From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

The Samaritan Woman that Jesus met at the well was quite intelligent. She engaged Jesus in discussion about Jews and Samaritans. She asked Him, "Why do you bother talking to me? Jews don't speak to Samaritans."

She was also a hard worker, She was at that well probably to get the water she needed to care for her livestock, clean her home, and, perhaps, prepare the afternoon meal. She had gone through five husbands and now was living with a man she had not married. No one respected her. She did not respect herself. She had learned to live with the emptiness that comes from accepting sin in her life. She was thirsty. She was dry. Internally and spiritually, she was thirsty. She had led a sinful life but had refused to acknowledge her sins and seek forgiveness.

On the last and greatest day of the festival, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink." John 7:37

A thirsty Jesus goes to the same well. He sees the woman and thirsts even more. He also is dry, but he is not empty. He thirsts for the people who need Him. At the well, Jesus simply tells the woman that she will remain dry unless she confronts her past and changes her life. These are the words she needed to hear. She submits to the Love of God. From that moment on she is absolved, transformed. Her thirst is quenched. Now she has a spring of water within her, a reservoir really. She is overflowing with the Love of Jesus the Christ.

She goes into the town. Her joy is on her face. The townspeople experience her peace and want this for themselves. So they go out to the well to meet Jesus. They go to investigate. They experience God.

Today's Gospel calls us to remember the Source of our Joy. It reminds us that we do not have to settle with putting up with life. Jesus has given us mercy and compassion. Jesus has transformed our lives. Jesus transformed the woman at the well because He was concerned about her. He is concerned about us. If we drink the water that He gives us, we will thirst no more.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Anthony

“THERE IS A TIME FOR EVERYTHING...
NOW IS THE TIME FOR MERCY”

In keeping with the penitential spirit of the Lenten Season we are reminded that our world, our Church, our nation is in need of God's mercy. The message of Divine Mercy is not something new. It is the message of the Gospel, the message of the Church throughout the ages, the message of St. John Paul II, the message of Our Lord through Saint Faustina, “Be merciful as your heavenly Father is Merciful.” (Luke 6:36).

During Lent we at St. Helena Parish will continue to pray The Chaplet of Divine Mercy on Tuesday mornings after Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and also on the Fridays of Lent after the 8:30 AM Mass. We hope that everyone will join us in this prayer at church or at home, if you are not able to attend. Jesus also said to Saint Faustina, “Mankind will have no peace until it turns with trust in My Mercy.” (Diary 300)
