Notes from Fr. Dave

Sept. 29: The Church has been celebrating the World Day of Migrants and Refugees since 1914. It is always an occasion to express concern for many different vulnerable people on the move; to pray for the challenges and increase awareness about the opportunities that migration offers. Pope Francis has chosen the theme "It is not just about migrants" to show up our blind-spots and make sure no one remains excluded from society, whether a long-time resident or someone newly-arrived" P.S.: Why the pink hand in pic? She just voted!

Blessing of Animals

Wednesday, Oct. 3 2:15 pm

On the eve of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, we will have the blessing of animals in front of our Parish School at 2:15 pm. Cats, dogs, fish, gerbils, horses, rabbits, snakes...and the list goes on. Please be sure your pets are secured in a safe way as there are a lot of people and pets!

Annual Bishop's Appeal Seek God's Guidance!

The Lord loves a cheerful giver

(2 Corinthians 9:7)

Before you make your pledge. Take time. Seek God's guidance. He may speak a figure to you to sacrificially give over the coming year. He did this for me. $414.00. I have always responded. For myself I spread this donation to God's work over 10 months. For others it may be to tithe, taking a percentage of income to give for God's work.

NEW Pictorial Parish Directory Getting to know you...

At the last Pastoral Council it was suggested that we begin to "form a team" of people to help plan a new Parish Pictorial Directory. If you wish to part of this team, drop me an e-mail at TDynako@seasfw.org OR call the Parish office at 432-0268 ext. 113 and leave your name with Terry Dynako. My hope is to join with you in choosing a company and getting dates set. It appears that registering for a time to "take your picture" can now be done online...so it should be more simple. I am looking at August 2020 (a whole year away) to have pictures taken. Interested in helping?? Let me know! God bless!

Called to Care and to Share

Next weekend is Pledge Sunday and every parish family is asked to contribute to the Annual Bishop's Appeal. Please prayerfully consider a pledge to the Bishop's Appeal to support the work of the Church.

The Appeal helps our parish, since all overage beyond our parish goal comes back to the parish. In the past, this has allowed us to install the Hearing Loop in the church, update lighting in the church and gathering area, help married couples choose NFP, as well as many evangelization projects.

CATECHIST FORMATION DAY

Saturday, October 12
University of St. Francis

What is Catechist Formation Day?

Catechist Formation Day is an event especially for catechists of all kinds, DREs, youth ministers, etc. to gather in fellowship for further spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral formation in handing on our Catholic Faith and bringing the Good News of Jesus Christ to all of God's people. The workshops are also meant to be very practical! You can register by going to: <http://events.constantcontact.com/register/event?llr=n6yuymkab&oeidk=a07egl5z37k15529829>

The Prayer Routine

Whether you are aware of it or not, every day, you undoubtedly have some sort of routine in your life. You wake up, exercise, read the newspaper, get kids sent off to school, etc. You have breakfast, lunch and dinner throughout the day. You go to work, power up your computer while grabbing a mug of coffee. Sometimes we don't even realize the routines we have in our lives. I was not aware of one of my routines until my cat, Paul, pointed it out to me. His own routine involves waiting patiently for me by the door to the garage. I pick him up for some snuggles, and then he jumps down and leads the way to the bathroom...

So this begs the question, where is prayer in your daily routine? While prayer itself should never be a "routine" in the sense that it becomes mundane without our heart involved, we do need to build it into our day. However, if we add it to the "I'll get to it later" list, it will surely be one of the first things to go.

Many Catholic speakers have compared forgetting daily prayer to forgetting to eat. Eating seems so essential we wouldn't dream of just "forgetting" about it. However, far more essential than food for the body is food for the soul. If you miss a meal, you feel the affects, such as the common new term "hangry." You feel hungry, work production and motivation can go down, and your emotions become less stable. Just like we have signs to direct us to feed our bodies, we also have these same signs to care for our souls.

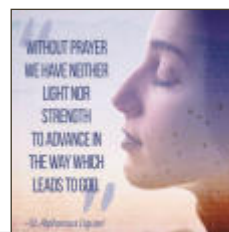

If I don't pray during the day, I feel the effects immediately. Although they may not seem as noticeable as missing a meal, they are there. We can grow used to these side effects if we are in a constant state of living our day without God, but they are still there whether we are attuned to them or not. If I don't put prayer first in the morning, it can seem like my whole day is off. I am less patient and less forgiving, more stressed, and less equipped to handle it. I can't survive without prayer anymore than I can survive without water, and neither can you.

When we live without prayer, we grow cold to the needs of this world. Christian and non-Christian alike no longer think about things like immorality, relativism, and evangelizing to care for the soul of others. We slowly become "dehydrated" to prayer even if we don't recognize the symptoms.

I always used to make the excuse that "I don't have time for prayer." Maybe some of you feel the same way. After all, we live in a fast paced world where it seems we have little time to spare even for ourselves. But God always provides. I discovered this one morning when I had so much housework, cleaning, and catching up to do that I felt overwhelmed, but I also felt God calling me to Him in adoration. I wanted to say no, but I went anyway. When I returned home, not only was I filled with joy doing some of my least favorite tasks, but I also finished way faster than I thought possible. I didn't lose time from the hour I spent in prayer, instead it seemed I had gained it. It finally made sense to me when St. Francis de Sales said, "Every one of us needs half an hour of prayer a day, except when we are busy – then we need an hour."

You don't need to start praying an hour everyday, but just ten minutes. Build it into your schedule. Stop in the Chapel if able, before work, while out and about, even if just for a minute. Build this into your routine, because otherwise, you will not succeed. When should you pray? When you will. Many scholars will tell you to pray first thing in the morning and before bed. While this is certainly true, I find it is better for me to pray when I actually WILL and not when I "should."

Beginning to pray is the most important step no matter when that is. Eventually, we should all strive for the goal to pray without thinking about it, talking to God all throughout the day. But even then, we NEED time scheduled to rest with God, listen, and refresh. Rehydrate and feed your soul. Don't start tomorrow, as the famous musical Annie says, "tomorrow is always a day away." Start today. God doesn't care how you begin to pray. He just can't wait to sit with you and love you. So what are you waiting for? God Himself is waiting to give you His undivided attention. Hopefully, with time we will give it to Him too, but for now, just come. Come without fear. No judgement awaits you. Only love. ~ Trisha Trout

A Message From Our Principal

It is almost October! Time sure is flying by. We want to thank Mrs. Gall's half day preschool classes for placing the Kindness Rocks all around outside. If you find one, pick it up and keep it. It is decorated and has a kind phrase painted on it as well. Then, pay it forward and be kind!

Thanks to the 8th grade for their fundraiser of Nelson's Chicken. That was sure yummy! Be sure to go to Panda Express on Wednesday, October 2 from 10:00am – 11:00pm. This is our first Dining to Donate and a percentage comes back to the school!

All are invited to the Pet Blessing on Thursday, October 3 at 2:15 at the school entrance. Fr. Dave will be blessing all the animals, and students may leave with their furry (an non-furry friends) after the blessing. On Friday, October 4, we have the Living Rosary at 2:15 in the Church. All are invited to attend this special event!

Many blessings,
Miss Widner, Principal
