PEACE BE IN YOU

Medjugorje is a small town in the small country of Bosnia and Herzegovina, near the mountainside where the Blessed Mother appeared to six youth (the church has withheld its final judgment of these events but it is trustworthy, and Pope Francis has allowed official pilgrimages to the site). My recent trip confirmed in my own heart the truth that Mary is the kraljice mira, queen of peace. The Croatian word mir, which means peace, definitely summarizes what I experienced in Medjugorje. It was a beautiful experience of encounter with God and the peace that comes. Her words reported to the visionaries simply reaffirm the truths of our faith that we know so well. For example, "I came to tell the world that God exists and that there is life in God. Those who find God will find peace and life."

This past week we had a saint who was a profound peacemaker: Elizabeth of Portugal. I found the reading from the Liturgy of the Hours to be particularly poignant and helpful on the topic, and hope some of this saint's words will take root and ultimately bear fruit in your own heart as well. Mary, queen of peace, pray for us.

From a sermon by Saint Peter Chrysologus, bishop (De pace: PL 52, 347-348)

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons of God. Truly Christian virtues grow in a man who enjoys the unchangeable possession of Christian peace, and no one comes to the title of son of God except through that of peacemaker. Peace, dearest brethren, rescues man from servitude, provides him with the name of a free man, changes his identity before God together with his condition, from a servant to a son, and from a slave to a free man. Peace among brethren is the will of God, the joy of Christ, the completion of holiness, the rule of justice, the teacher of truth, the guardian of morals and a praiseworthy discipline in every regard. Peace lends strength to our prayers; it is the way our petitions can reach God easily and be credited; it is the plenitude which fulfills our desires. Peace is the mother of love, the bond of concord and the manifest sigh of a pure soul, one which seeks to please God, which seeks to be fulfilled and has its desire rewarded.

Peace must be preserved according to the Lord's precepts, as Christ said: I leave you peace, my peace I give you; that is, as Christ left the world, he wished to leave the gift he wanted to find when he returned. We have a commandment from heaven to retain his gift. God's is the planting of peace in the root, but the uprooting is from the enemy; for, just as brotherly love comes from God, so hatred comes from the devil; therefore, we must condemn our hatred of men, for it is written: He who hates his brother is a murderer.

Now you see, dearest brethren, why we should love and peace cultivate harmony: because they beget and nurture love. But you know also from the apostle John that, Love comes from God, and that whoever is not with God does not possess love. Let us therefore, my brethren, keep the commandments, which are life for us; let us carry on together the obligations of our brotherhood in profound peace; let us bind one another with the ties of salvific charity in this mutual love which covers a multitude of sins. Love ought to be embraced with the grasp of all our desires, since the goods it provides amount to as many rewards. We must keep peace before all other virtues, since God is always in peace. Love peace, and all the world will be tranquil and quiet. By doing so you store up rewards for me, and joy for yourselves, that the Church of God may be founded on the bond of peace and may cling to perfect observance in Christ.

TRIVIA ANSWER

WHO IS THE ARTIST WHO SCULPTED THE "ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON WITH CHILDREN" STATUE OUT FRONT OF OUR PARISH DOORS?

A striking tribute to "St. Elizabeth Ann Seton with Children" statue graces the south face of the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton church portico. It is the artistry of Sister Margaret Beaudette and holds a message that can easily be overlooked. According to, Who Put That There? Outdoor Sculptures of Fort Wayne - compiled by Saint Jude Catholic School students published June 3, 1998 - the artist, a Sister of Charity, created the statue using reinforced fiberglass. Sister Margaret completed and installed the work March 22, 1993. According to the Saint Jude School authors describing the image, "St. Elizabeth Ann Seton is dressed in the clothes of her era, but the children with her are dressed in modern day clothes. It's a message that symbolizes the great Saint's teachings continue throughout the generations of time."
