THIS IS OUR FAITH

Hallelujah, He is risen as he promised! Jesus told his disciples many times that he would be rejected by the religious leaders of their time, be rejected, crucified, and die, but on the third day would rise. Today that promise is fulfilled anew! Every Sunday is a weekly Easter for us as Catholics, as Christians. So today, this Easter Sunday, is the central celebration of our faith where Jesus' glory is revealed definitively and all he said is verified as trustworthy: God is known by faith as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. "Is death the end?" asks every human heart. Jesus' Resurrection is the answer to that question: death is an intermission and a bridge into eternity. The book of Revelation, the last in the Bible, speaks of two deaths, the second being more tragic. In Jesus, we avoid that second death of sin and hell by freely embracing the first death along with Him, united to Him, so that we may rise to new life now, already, but not yet. Jesus rises from the dead so that we can live beyond the fear of death, neither the first nor the second. It isn't merely a promise for the future, but something that transforms us now so that we are immune to those fears.

Every Sunday, brothers and sisters, indeed every moment of every day, Jesus is offering us new life in Himself, with the distinct requirement that we offer our former life to Him entirely. The Paschal Mystery thus becomes our own: dying and rising with Jesus. It is not easy to be a Christian, but it is the only way to find peace. The fear of our hearts cannot be quelled except under the powerful mantle of the victor over sin and death, Jesus Christ. All the world can offer is restless distraction from that fear or lies that try to write it off as nonsense. But the humble and listening heart will not be betrayed by such falsity and manipulation, and thus can only find contentment and peace in the one who appears with his wounded but glorious body and declares, "Peace be with you!"

May the peace of Jesus reign in our hearts as we begin this Easter season. Every year, God desires to make us more and more into the person we are meant to be. Each Easter, His graces are particular and specified for each one of us according to our circumstances and the path that is before us. Stay open to all that God wants to give you during this Easter season. Listen anew with a heart that is attentive to the circumstances of your life, your story of the past year and even since childhood, and let God work in your soul as He wishes.

God is for us, brothers and sisters, not against us. When Jesus rose from the dead, it wasn't to bring revenge, but to bring life to those who unite themselves to Him. Trust in His love and mercy, and His peace will be yours. Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, pray for us!

Divine Mercy Sunday
PLENARY INDULGENCE

THROUGH PRIVATE REVELATION TO ST. FAUSTINA, JESUS REVEALED:

"I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy (1109). The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment (699)."
Diary of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska

DIVINE MERCY IS FOR YOU

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated annually on the first Sunday after Easter. A Plenary Indulgence removes all temporal punishment due to forgiven sin ("Temporal punishment" is the "making up" for sin to which we are obliged after we are forgiven). A Plenary Indulgence can be applied to one's self or to anyone who is deceased. A Plenary Indulgence can be gained once per day.

THREE NORMAL CONDITIONS FOR GAINING ANY PLENARY INDULGENCE + ONE SPECIFIC WORK REQUIRED ON DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

-  Sacramental Confession within 20 days of Divine Mercy Sunday, April 16, 2023
-  Eucharistic Communion
-  Prayers for the Pope's Intentions

In any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy.

OR

In the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. "Merciful Jesus, I trust in you").

ARE YOU NEW TO OUR PARISH?

If you are new to the parish or thinking about joining our community, please join us for a wine and cheese social following the 4:30pm Mass on Saturday, April 14th. We would love to get to know you and welcome you to our parish family! Thank you.

BAPTISMAL PREP CLASS

If you are a new parent or having a child baptized for the first time at St. Elizabeth, please contact Raeann Mullen to register for a required baptismal prep class via email rmullen@seasfw.org or call the Parish office 260.432.0268 x104.

It is recommended that parents attend the class before the birth of your child so that there will be no delay in setting a date for the baptism once the baby is born.

The next baptismal prep class is scheduled for April 16 or May 21, 2023 @ 12:45 pm in the Mother Teresa room.

Good News:

We've added additional baptism dates on the following Sundays at 12:30 pm:
May 21, June 18, July 16, August 20, September 10, October 15, and November 19.
Please contact Raeann to register. Thank you.
