FAITHFULLY LIVING OUR PRIESTLY VOCATION

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, our church renovations will begin in earnest very soon. Please look for the video that you can access on our website by the time you read this (hopefully!). This offered a great education in how we as Catholics can understand church architecture and what it symbolizes and expresses. I also recorded some of my explanation of the project and hope you find that helpful as well. There is also a write-up explanation that I have available for you to read. This is exciting for our parish and I am grateful to so many who have financially supported this project!

We welcomed Father Jake to the parish this past Tuesday and this is his first weekend with us. As he tries to learn a whole lot about the parish as fast as possible, I am sure he feels like he is trying to drink from a firehose! It is probably a good thing that, for this week, we will be on the diocese's annual priest retreat. We both look forward to these days of deeper focus and integration of our priesthood into our own personal life of journeying as Christian disciples. It will also help Fr. Jake to feel the fraternity of the priesthood in a moving way, as we pray and celebrate Mass together, relax and chat together. Please keep all us priests in your prayers. The retired Fr. Lawrence Teteh, who is living in the rectory until October when he returns to Nigeria, has graciously accepted offering Mass Tuesday through Friday of this week at 8:00 a.m. This will allow for one Mass each day while Fr. Jake and I are away. We are grateful to Fr. Lawrence for his generous priestly life, using the ordination God has given to him so that the faithful can receive Jesus in the Mass.

Father Stephen and Father Luke were sent off with much love from the parish. It was beautiful to see the heartfelt expressions of gratitude to these two priests who will now be pastors at their own parishes in our diocese. Your expressions of thanks were testaments to the fact that, despite mistakes or areas where they can grow, these two men consistently spent themselves for their parish and tried to faithfully live their priestly vocation. May God continue to keep them faithful to this calling as they live spiritual fatherhood in an even fuller way as pastors, shepherding their own parishes according to God's will. I believe that your love for these priests was also a testament to the other priests here (or elsewhere) that you have known and loved, and this same fact gives me confidence that you will accept and love generously our new parochial vicar, Fr. Jake. That is something that gives me great consolation, as your love for this new priest will help him to thrive in his vocation in these important first years of ministry. Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

Greetings! Our summer office hours are listed below. Be sure to contact us if you need anything school related. Even though the building is not as busy, there is still a lot going on! Our maintenance team is painting, cleaning, and refreshing every corner of the building! Our support staff is busy meeting, planning, and preparing for a new school year! Hopefully EVERYONE is taking time to refresh and rejuvenate this summer! . Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, pray for us!
Miss Widner
