FATHER JAKE'S COLUMN

No matter the vocation; there is always a honeymoon stage. Even if it lasts for a moment, there is always great rejoicing from the life we are called. Whether we are called to marriage, priesthood, religious life, or another consecrated life, once we respond to that call and make the firm commitment, the Lord fills us with peace and joy.

For every vocation begins with a tiny desire placed on our hearts by the Lord. Ultimately, we were made for holiness and our vocation is the particular way of holiness for us. The Lord delights in our discovery of that tiny desire and slowly it grows over time, until we begin to make our arrangements to prepare to accept this vocation. For married couples, that would be your engagement, for a priest it would be his time in seminary, for a religious entering the community – the yes to cultivate and tend to our mysterious desire.

Over those months and years, the desire has grown into an anticipation of our life freely chosen. On the day when we made our promises, the Lord fulfills that desire with great peace and joy. Ahh, thus begins the honeymoon stage. For with our vocation, there comes so many new experiences, and because of their novelty we experience these responsibilities with an enthusiasm that bolsters our acceptance of our vocation.

I, too, am experiencing a great joy in my vocation as a priest in his honeymoon stage. All the new things I can do and get to do for you and your family. The masses to celebrate, the confessions to hear, the sick to anoint, and the families to share a meal with – its all a part of God's plan to bless and bolster my priesthood. Truly, I have found St. Elizabeth's parish as my new family and place to call home.

The great grace given from our honeymoon stage, however long or short, was not just for that moment. The grace of God is given in an experience, a moment, but cannot be exhausted by that moment. For what we receive is an unlimited outpouring for us who can only receive in limited ways. It was given to strengthen our difficult days ahead or perhaps when we experience a vocational crisis.

Perhaps, it is time to reflect upon your honeymoon stage. This week, my goal for you is to take a few minutes in prayer to meditate and reflect on that experience. Try to remember the senses you felt, place yourself back in those moments and relish the goodness of the Lord. Then, ask yourself these questions: How did you come to accept your vocation? What were the blessings and joys of those beginning moments? How have you continued to deepen your call? How have you gone astray or have begun to let things slip from your faithfulness to your vocation? Lord, what am I to do from here?

May God continue the good work in you and bring it to fulfillment!

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST

We as Catholics have a duty to bring morality into the public forum. The Indiana Catholic Conference (ICC) works to bring morality into the public forum by educating policy makers and politicians on Catholic Social Teaching and the impact it can have on proposed laws. While the ICC had some successes during the most recent Indiana General Assembly session with expanding school choice and curbing predatory lending, we need assistance. Those who stay informed on local and national issues can help the ICC help the Church. Signing up to receive information on matters of importance to the Church from the ICC is a small first step. After receiving information, you can prayerfully discern which matters you want to share with family and friends, or which matters move you to engage in some way with your local or national representatives or senators. You can sign up via email icc@archindy.org or by calling 317-236-1458.

Thank you for your consideration.

Peace,
The Indiana Catholic Conference
