WORLD YOUTH DAY

World Youth Day grew out of the pastoral experience of Karol Wojtyla, who as a pastor in Krakow and later as a bishop, would lead youth and young adults on multi-day trips into the mountains and rivers and forests of Poland. So as Pope, he dreamed of a new way to spend some time with the youth, first of his native country, and then with the world. During his first visit back to Poland after becoming pope, John Paul II invited the youth of Poland to come visit him in Rome, and this eventually grew into WYD. The schedule we followed in Portugal was very similar to what I have experienced at other WYD events, including Toronto back in 2002. On Tuesday, the local archbishop celebrates an opening Mass for all the pilgrims, hundreds of thousands. The following three mornings have catechetical sessions in various churches or other conventional halls, organized by language groups, and ending with a daily Mass. On Thursday, the Pope is received by the youth at a large gathering - these are all held outdoors due to the crowd size, and supported by huge screens and loudspeakers every 300 ft. in every direction. On Friday, we celebrate Stations of the Cross with the Holy Father, and on Saturday we go for a hike to meet the Holy Father out in nature at an even larger site to accommodate the ever-growing number of pilgrims. In the evening we do Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and after the Holy Father leaves, we sing and dance with various groups from around the world who have brought drums and guitars and are happy to welcome others. Eventually we get some sleep under the stars before the closing Sunday Mass with the pope.

The Knights of Columbus also sponsor a special US pilgrim event, usually on Wednesday evening, and we were able to attend that as well. We heard Bishop Barron and others that evening before the 10,000 pilgrims from USA (including 270 from our diocese) spent time in Adoration. Bishop Barron spoke at our Thursday morning catechetical session, called "Rise Up!" sessions after the theme of this WYD: "Mary arose and went in haste."

Bishop Rhoades welcomed us Sunday in Fatima, our first full day of pilgrimage, and we were able to spend multiple days with him. We had about 25 priests, as well as religious sisters and permanent deacons. The youth of our diocese were so engaged in the whole schedule. The Lord did so much beautiful work in their hearts and souls. I am confident that this will bear abundant fruit for our diocese as those seeds planted begin to grow. Pray that God will bless our parish and diocese through this World Youth Day! Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

Greetings! Once again, WELCOME BACK TO SCHOOL to all our SEASCS families! It was a big week as we got the 2023-24 school year off to a great start! Thank you to all the teachers and staff for your planning and hard work and thank you to all our school families who so diligently prepared their students for a new school year. The highlight of the week came on Thursday when students, teachers, and staff came together to honor the Lord and celebrate our faith at our first Mass of the school year! Parents, feel free to join us at any school Mass! Due to the church renovation, school Masses will be celebrated in the gym on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8:15 a.m. Have a great week! Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, pray for us!
