PRAYER PROMPTS FOR ADORATION - QUESTIONS FOR JESUS

Guided by the Holy Spirit, please spend some time reflecting on these questions. If one strikes you particularly, it would be good to spend extra time with that question.

- Jesus, where can I foster silence in my daily life so that my heart can hear You better?
- Jesus Light of the World, where is there darkness in my life? Where do I need the light of Your love and Your truth to dispel it?
- Jesus, what am I worrying about lately? What do You want to tell me about these concerns?
- Jesus my King, how do you want me to prepare myself, my home, and my family for Your arrival in a spirit of anticipation and hope?
- Lord Jesus, when I wake up on Christmas morning, how do You want me to have changed and grown?
- Jesus, Desire of Nations, how may I open my heart more so that I may receive, feel, taste, and experience Your thirst for me as Your beloved?

Greetings

Greetings! This week we celebrate the second week of Advent by lighting the PEACE candle. Throughout the school, we continue to prepare for the coming of the Savior with classroom Advent wreaths and special seasonal activities! Congratulations to our 1st grade students and their teachers, Mrs. Peters and Miss Morgan, who raised money this week for St. Anne Retirement Home through their 32nd annual "Goodies for God," bake sale! To complete their project, the 1st grade students will visit St. Anne's on December 15th to deliver the check, some Christmas goodies, and sing Christmas carols with the residents. Well done, 1st grade! If you are still in need of a little Christmas spirit, join us at 7:00 p.m. in the gym on Dec. 14th for our Guitar performances and again on Dec. 15th for our primary Christmas show, "That's How the Story Goes." Have a great week everyone. Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, Pray for us! Miss Widner
