GRACE IS A FREE GIFT

Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live; and I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. Behold, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. Behold, you shall call a nation that you do not know, and a nation that did not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, and of the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you. Seek the Lord while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. Isaiah 55:1-9 (English Standard Version)

Grace is a free gift. God's mercy is not earned. Heaven is never something we can demand as a right. That is the point of these first words from Isaiah's 55th chapter. God's generous election of the small and seemingly insignificant Hebrews is a mysterious foreshadowing of His free gift of grace to those who know Him more intimately through His Son Jesus by faith in the Church. Do you ever wonder "why did God bless me with this offer to be so close to Him?" This is a cause for gratitude from us all.

Isaiah then transitions into the call to draw close to God and to turn away from our sins, so that God may forgive us. That forgiveness is a second grace, a second merciful gift, that is only known to those who look sincerely on their past and bring their sins to the Lord in the sacrament of Reconciliation (also called Confession or Penance). This week, Tuesday night, is the last great chance for this sacrament before Easter. If you have been telling yourself, "I should go," then now is the time. For those who are apprehensive about Confession, there is strength in numbers: it is good to know that you are not alone in the sacrament, and really encouraging to see everyone ahead of you come away more than just still alive, but manifesting relief and joy at having been embraced by God's love! What could be a better use of thirty minutes on a Tuesday night? Being the Solemnity of Saint Joseph, it is fitting to know that the one member of the Holy Family with his own sins (which didn't stop him from growing into a saint) is also interceding for us to have an abundant confidence that Our Lord does not meet us in the confessional to condemn us, but to save and to heal us.

See you Tuesday, by God's grace.

Finally, Friday Stations of the Cross will be at 7, not 6, because it will be a special living stations performed by our Fraternalis and Fidelis groups. You will certainly enjoy this wonderful and prayerful rendition. Plan on it lasting longer than usual, but definitely worth it.

St. Mary Mother of God Church has an important ministry for our Diocese within the Ave Maria House. Our current Director will be leaving soon, and a steady stream of volunteers have been keeping the Ave Maria House open Monday thru Thursday each week. At this time, we are looking for a new Director to oversee the daily decision making of the day shelter and we need more volunteers to come one day a week with understanding hearts to make the homeless and disadvantaged feel Christ in their midst. If you have a background in the healthcare field or counseling and have an interest in the daily operations as Director, please apply to the Diocesefwsb.org/careers page to let St. Mary's know of your interest. If someone feels called to volunteer during the day, please contact St. Mary's parish office as soon as possible.

TO OUR SEAS PARISHIONERS

March 25th marks the national Knights of Columbus Day of Recognition of the Unborn. In preparation for this day, you will be receiving a Gospel for Life Novena prayer card after all masses on March 16-17. We ask that you begin praying this Novena on March 17th and again daily so that the 9th day of prayer will conclude on March 25th. You will also be receiving a Rosary for The Unborn prayer card which you can pray as well during this time or anytime to support our Catholic belief in the dignity of life. God bless you for your prayers.

Ladies!
Join us in March for Kingdom Builders

Ladies – our true beauty is often veiled from us. But when we can claim our beauty and goodness, we can open our hearts for Jesus to love us completely. Join us in March as we invite Jesus in to embrace our hearts and transform them into His own.

HAPPY SAINT PATRICK'S DAY

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON SCHOOL

Greetings

Greetings! This is our big celebration weekend with the annual SNL Auction happening on Saturday evening! A huge THANK YOU goes out to SNL Chairpersons Sarah Adams and Michelle Chase who have once again created an awesome night where we can come together to celebrate and raise funds for our school and children. THANK YOU also to the many volunteers who tirelessly worked to capture and create this year's theme "A World of Pure Imagination!" THANK YOU to everyone who came out to support our school! Have a great week! Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, Pray for us!

Employment Opportunities

SEASCS is seeking a dynamic Middle School Math teacher to join our middle school faculty and Math program. We are looking for a candidate with strong Math skills and differentiated instructional experience. This candidate will work collaboratively with our other Middle School teachers including another Math teacher.

PHOTOS

LETTUCE IS READY!! Mrs. Steffan and her 5th grade Consumer Technology students recently harvested this semester's lettuce from the classroom Tower Garden. Next, they formed assembly lines to prepare turkey and ham pinwheels featuring their recently picked lettuce! Following a recipe provided by Mrs. Steffan, several students expressed their doubts about how the afternoon snack would turn out! Empty plates and satisfied students tell the story!

VIRTUE=STRENGTH

SEASCS follows the Virtue=Strength program which emphasizes the strengthening of moral character by introducing a new virtue each week along with activities that reinforce our Catholic values. This week's virtue is PERSEVERANCE.

CHRIST CHILD SOCIETY THANKS YOU!

We at the Christ Child Society of Fort Wayne want to extend our heartfelt gratitude for your incredible generosity in support of our Baby Bottle fundraiser! If you still have a bay bottle at home, don't hesitate to bring it to the church office. Every little bit helps and we truly appreciate your kindness. Also, if you have an empty bottle, returning it to us would be equally fantastic! Thank you again for being a part of our journey to make a positive impact on the lives of babies and families.
