LET US COUNT OUR BLESSINGS

This week starts our school year, with students returning for their first day of classes. Wow, how the time flies when you are having fun. This summer whizzed by for Fr. Jake and me – we can't believe we are getting back into the swing of things already. At the same time, however, we have been out and about with lots of adventures over the past couple of months. Fr. Jake joined the young men in Fraternus on their summer camp retreat for five days, and I did the same for the young ladies of Fidelis. We both got some vacation away, including a camping and biking trips for me and my little brother's wedding in Colorado. (Fr. Jake's brother is being married this fall as well!) Fr. Jake loves his water skiing and has enjoyed opportunities to do that.

There was a lot of fun closer to home as well. We had a great week of Vacation Bible School. We both were able to attend some of the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis. We spent time with parishioners at weddings, graduation parties, birthday parties, and lake days (perhaps our favorite!). We had our Family Adoration events in June and July (and already for August) which have continued to grow. (Kona Ice afterwards drew the largest crowd!)

We've also had more sobering times. There have been a large number of funerals this summer, with some of the parishioners having been in the parish for many decades. It is hard to see so many good souls go home to God, but we know that we are made for something even better than this world, and the only way is through our own sharing in Jesus' passion: "No one comes to the Father except through me," our Lord said at the Last Supper (Jn. 14). Please continue to pray for the souls of the faithful departed and for their families. We are called to "weep with those who weep; rejoice with those who rejoice." (Rom. 12:15) As members of the Body of Christ, we share our hearts (joys and sorrows) with each other.

As we turn back toward the present and what lies ahead, please pray that this school year is a blessing to all of us. The fall brings looming threats of division and pain within our nation as people are tempted to place their hopes in things outside of God alone. Let us be a source of goodness for our world: showing and fostering unity, temperance, humility, sobriety, patience, and zeal for the things that matter most. May we all be a witness to our children of what it means to be a disciple (a student) of the one perfect teacher, Jesus Christ.

Two 6-Week Sessions on Saint Peter

You are invited to join our Bible Study on Saint Peter. Saint Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the rock upon which Jesus would build His Church? Learning from biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and classical art, participants will gain a better understanding of our first Pope and one of our greatest saints! The Bible Study is a 12-week program that will be divided into TWO six-week sessions. The first session begins September 19 through October 24 and the second session begins January 16 through February 20. There are two meeting times: The morning group will meet from 10 am to 11:15 am and the evening group will meet from 7 pm to 8:15 pm. The cost to register is $10 per participant and includes a participant guide. Registration deadline September 5. Register online at seasfw.org/bible-study. Contact Carole Yaney at cyaney@seasfw.org for more information.
