

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, “Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.”

Mark 10:14

PRAY FOR OUR BISHOPS AS THEY GATHER IN ROME

Many thanks to those who shared kind words and/or gifts to me as I celebrated entering into my forties. It was a beautiful reminder of how good God has been to me over the years. I don't deserve all I have received from Him, but none of us ever has. God manifests His goodness by His abundant generosity – if we have eyes to see it all. Thank you for your kindness. I renew my commitment to be a faithful servant-priest for all of you. May God continue to use me as He sees fit.

Next Sunday (13th) at 7:30 p.m. I will give a presentation about phase 2 of our renovations project. We will have this in the parish hall (if too large, we can use the church). This is an informational meeting, both for sharing and for gathering information. We have not begun implementation, but I do hope to move forward towards that. We do not have blueprints; we haven't even revisited the concept drawings that you see in the narthex (gathering space) showing the potential choir loft and a view of what the exterior could look like. (Those drawings are from 1.5yrs. ago)

We will discuss what has proceeded over the past two years in regards to these ideas, and the current location of where we are in the process. I will lay out my thoughts for where I expect things to go at this point. We will have opportunity for clarifying questions as well as some small group discussion about the church renovations (both phase 1 and phase 2).

Our bishop is away for the Synod at the Vatican. It is the most important ecclesial gathering that Pope Francis will hold this year for our church, and will last about one month with bishop representatives from around the world. As one of the few bishops from our country present, it is neat to know that our bishop carries us in our hearts to this important event. It truly shows how the church is united around the bishop of Rome, and how we are part of something greater than ourselves, even greater than our local diocese. I will be going away on vacation to Rome and hope to have dinner with Bishop Rhoades one of those evenings I am in the Eternal City.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Being a Christian is like being a pumpkin, God lifts you up, takes you in, washes all the dirt off you. He opens you up, touches you deep inside and scoops out all the yucky stuff, including seeds of doubt, greed, selfishness, hatred, envy, deceit, disobedience, etc. Then he carves you a smiling new face and puts His light inside of you to shine for all the world to see.

"And I sought for a man among them who should build up the wall and stand in the breach before me for the land."
Ezekiel 22:30

Knights of Columbus

The Breach In The Church

In the past two decades, more than 14 million Catholics have left the faith. In the face of these losses, Catholic men are called to put aside any hesitation to live a life of mission. We must enter into the breach.

Called to Conversion

Christ calls us to a life of continued formation so that, with grace, we can seriously engage the war for our souls. That's why the Knights have produced Into the Breach, a video series inspired by Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted's apostolic exhortation of the same name.

Ready for Battle

Prepare yourself for the spiritual battle raging around you. To step into the breach requires every man to have faith and take action. The Into the Breach series challenges men to seek greatness and to be heroically virtuous, to have a character marked by goodness and truth, strength and courage.

Building a Brotherhood

"Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another" (Proverbs 27:17). Through shared experience and small group discussion, men build a brotherhood through Into the Breach, strengthening them in their mission as disciples.

Greetings

A Word From Our Principal:

Greetings! It's hard to believe that the end of the 1st quarter is upon us! Our teachers and students have worked hard to get to this point! Thank you to HASA for hosting a fun and well-planned Trivia Night! It was a spooky good time! Coming up on Friday this week we have our annual Generations Day. We are looking forward to hosting the special guests of our 1st, 3rd, and 6th grade students. Have a great week! Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton . . . Pray for us! Miss Widner
