

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God.”

GOD EXISTS AND OUR HEARTS ARE MADE FOR HIM

Each year the priests of the diocese are summoned by the bishop to a program for continuing education. It is organized with his guidance and is meant to keep us in a growth mindset throughout the years of priesthood, engaging our minds and helping us to see from a different perspective some aspect of our priestly ministry or of the culture that we live in. It has been helpful for me over the years, and has many other benefits, including a real sense of priestly brotherhood. That aspect of collaboration is important for those priests who may be the only clergy within a large mile radius, such as former "son of Seton" Fr. Jay Horning, who is currently serving in Wabash, IN. Before Pentecost, as part of his own ministry of proclaiming the Kingdom, Jesus sent out the disciples two by two in their missionary work of "preparing the way" for Him. The pairs of disciples were a support to each other, much like a running buddy helps keep you going when your mind or body wavers temporarily. So it is really important that we priests take these two days each year to support each other as brothers in our work for the Lord and for His flock.

Because of this, we are going to have to miss some Masses this week. Please consult the Mass schedule to note that Wednesday and Thursday schedules are different.

Please keep in your prayers the upcoming Welcome retreats for Women (Oct. 26-7) and Men (Nov. 9-10). There is a good response so far but last I heard we still have spots available for the retreats. Fr. Jake said it well last week: if you haven't been on a retreat for two or more years, you should work out some time for the Lord in a retreat such as this. While there are other opportunities, a parish retreat is a special blessing because you receive from your own community, and it is something you get to experience with fellow sisters or brothers in Christ from your own parish family. I will be making my own annual retreat next month (I missed the summer priest retreat the diocese provides) through a program that bishop commissioned me to go through. Fr. Fortin just had his own retreat through another program. It is an important opportunity for restoration of true spiritual health: to get back to the fullness of "reality" by putting our emphasis on what is most important: God exists, He alone is truly "real," and our hearts are made for Him and Him alone.

If you can't make a retreat this year due to commitments, here's another challenge: Can you spend ONE HOUR each week in quiet prayer in the church or chapel (open all hours via exterior entrance)? To sit with the red fire of the sanctuary lamp reminding you that Jesus is truly present – that is a great way to grow in intimacy with Jesus. If one hour is too much, how about 30 minutes three or more days a week in church or the chapel? I promise you, it will be hard for the first two or three visits, but then you will start to get comfortable and eventually will crave for that peaceful time with the Lord. Because you were made for Him and Him alone.

WE NEED YOUR GIFTS AND TALENTS

Interested in the organization helping neighbors with utility, rent, food, transportation, clothing, household items, furniture, and other assistance? Curious how your gifts and talents could be utilized to organize events, visit with those needing assistance, plan food drives, coordinate parish-school-community activities, or volunteer at our own parish food pantry or at the SVdP Thift Store? Ready to check it out? The St Elizabeth Ann Seton Conference of SVdP invites you learn more and become involved in this vital ministry group. The main Conference meetings are the second Monday evening of each month and the Sr Rosalie Chapter meetings are the third Thursday morning of each month. Attend one or attend both, whatever works best with your schedule. For more information, email Angie at SVdP@SEASfw.org. Mark your calendars for our October meetings: Monday, Oct 14th at 7pm in the Parish Hall and Thursday, Oct 17th at 9:30am. All are welcome and we look forward to seeing you.

SEAS Sr Rosalie Chapter of St Vincent dePaul

The Sr Rosalie Chapter is an opportunity for parents to become involved in the SEAS St Vincent de Paul Society during this stage of life...school age. Sr Rosalie will meet during the day, organize various activities based on SVdP works of mercy, assist those in need in the 46804, 46814 area, and participate in various SVdP parish events. Our vision for Sr Rosalie is to offer parishioners an opportunity to become involved in St Vincent de Paul Society with a daytime meeting and planning time that works best for today's hectic schedules. Perfect for parents with school age kids, older parishioners who prefer daytime meetings, those wanting to become involved in a ministry that you can focus on volunteer opportunities that speak to the stage of life you are in.

Possible activities the Sr Rosalie Chapter will coordinate:

- * 200 Acts of Kindness
- * Saint book donations for school and parish libraries
- * SEAS Food Pantry drives & challenges
- * Christmas cards for adopted nursing homes
- * Neighbor assistance, visits & vouchers
- * Trunk n Treat

- * Spring girl event (tea, make 'n take, etc.)
- * Fall or Winter boy event (game night, fishing trip, etc.)
- * Feast of Blessed Rosalie Rendu celebration (Feb 7th)
- * Service Saturdays (opportunity for service hours at the SEAS food pantry, SVdP Thift Store, or with Carpenter's Sons)

Whatever your interest, the SEAS Rosalie Chapter of SVdP has an opportunity for you to share your gifts and to help us help others right here in our school and the St Elizabeth Ann Seton neighborhoods.

We are currently needing a co-coordinator for our 200 Acts of Kindness event. Duties would include organizing a school/RE/homeschool event (disburse and collect classroom post-it packets), maintaining post-it window display, completing Allen County 200 Acts submission form, posting/admin duties for SEAS 200 Acts Facebook group, coordinating SEAS attendance to Bicentennial Bash, and publicizing (photos and press releases). Again, this is a co-coordinator so duties can be shared. Please contact Angie Brown if you are willing to share your gifts and talents in this capacity.

The next Sr Rosalie Chapter meeting will be Thursday, Oct 17 at 9:30am (after 8:15am Mass). Want more information, contact Angie at SVdP@SEASfw.org
