ALL THAT I AM THANKFUL FOR

holidays this week, I decided to reflect on how I am thankful in many ways. The more these years. time we spend thinking about them, the more we discover.

I am thankful for being pastor here, for being able to serve with amazing people and be welcomed into so many wonderful homes as "part of the family."

I am thankful for the many beautiful experiences I am blessed with as a priest: baptisms, weddings, Confessions, welcoming converts to the faith, seeing parishioners reach out in our community and change lives, even witness miraculous events in people's lives. That is just the tip of the iceberg. Being a priest is a huge blessing - I pray I can repay the Lord well for all He does for me.

Remembering how things were a year ago, I am thankful for how our church looks, and that we don't have to set up Mass in the gymnasium every weekend. I am also thankful for how smoothly that process went and how we all endured it with heroic patience and joyful anticipation.

I am thankful for my family. They are all unique and God cherishes each of them differently as He delights in who He made them to be. I definitely love being an uncle! I thank the Lord for my parents and the blessing of their faithfulness to Him and His Church, and for their example of how a life spent for others is truly an abundant

As we celebrate one of my favorite "secular" life. I love my extended family on both sides and am grateful for their love toward me all

> I am truly blessed also by the parish I grew up in and especially the priests who were good examples of Christ's love. I thank God for my schools and for the teachers who sacrificed for me and were so patient with me. I am grateful for all the coaches of my many sports teams who helped me to grow in skills and in human virtues. I'm grateful for all the good friends I've had over the years, too many to count (friends, not years!).

I am thankful that God never gives up on us - that He keeps loving us even when we make mistakes - that His love helps us to recover from those falls and turn back to Him. I am thankful for the many years of formation I received in seminary and even beforehand. I am grateful for the priests and bishops who have been so supportive to me in my priesthood. I would be lost without them, I'm sure.

I'm grateful for all the beautiful wonders we get to experience every day in this life: sun, stars, wind, rain, snow, fire, flowers, food, chocolate (worthy of particular note), smiles, laughter, love, friendship, mercy, heroic stories (saints!), music and singing, the other fine arts, sports, games... I'll stop there. Life is a gift. Despite the pains, we are all well indebted to our Heavenly Father who is a giver of good gifts! Happy Thanksgiving!

On All Saints Day, our 4th grade saints lined the halls for the annual Wax Museum of Saints! Guests, teachers, and students could hear the story of each saint by placing a coin in their can. The 4th grade students have worked for 9 weeks on their saint projects. New this year, the 4th grade teachers teamed up with Mrs. Steffen in Consumer Technology class where each student created a google slide presentation about their saint. The Wax Museum of Saints earned $886.34 for Saint Mary's Soup Kitchen!! GOOD JOB AND WELL DONE to Ms. Becker, Mr. Ball, Mrs. Steffen, and all our 4th grade saints!
