God works through invitation. If we invite someone we know to come to Church with us, many of them are likely to consider saying yes. If we invite Jesus to come into our hearts, He will definitely say yes. If we listen carefully, we will hear the invitation from Love itself, to pass from the lowly and dim good things of this world into the eternal joys that are constantly being sung in heaven, where our hearts are truly home. It is there in Bethlehem that Mary and Joseph first saw the light in its fulness, in the eyes of the Word made flesh, and their hearts forever delighted in that promise, even as they ached for its completion.

I wish to assure you of the prayers and a heartfelt Christmas blessing on you and your family, on behalf of your parish staff: Father Jake, Deacons Rob and Steve, and everyone who serves alongside us in the parish to help make this parish family continue to grow and thrive. May we accept the invitation to seek the Christ-child with the excitement of the shepherds, the adoration of Mary and Joseph, the homage of the Magi, and the wonder of a child.

I pray you can find some benefit to your prayer and reflection from these poems, one older from England, another from the U.S. (now a famous Christmas song).

There Is No Rose Of Such Virtue
(anonymous, 14th century)

There is no rose of such vertu
As is the rose that bore Jesu;
Alleluia.

For in this rose contained was
Heaven and earth in little space;
Res miranda [a thing of wonder].

By that rose we may well see
That he is God in persons three.
The angels sung the shepherds to:
Gloria in excelsis Deo: [Glory to God
in the highest]
Gaudeamus [Let us rejoice].

Leave we all this worldly mirth,
And follow we this joyful birth;
Transeamus [let us cross over].

Christmas Carol – Christina Rossetti
(1830-1894)

In the bleak mid-winter
Frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron,
Water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
Snow on snow,
In the bleak mid-winter
Long ago.

Our God, Heaven cannot hold Him
Nor earth sustain;
Heaven and earth shall flee away
When He comes to reign:
In the bleak midwinter
A stable-place sufficed
The Lord God Almighty
Jesus Christ.

Enough for Him, whom cherubim
Worship night and day,
A breastful of milk
And a mangerful of hay;
Enough for Him, whom angels
Fall down before,
The ox and ass and camel
Which adore.

Angels and archangels
May have gathered there,
Cherubim and seraphim
Thronged the air;
But only His mother
In her maiden bliss
Worshipped the Beloved
With a kiss.

What can I give Him,
Poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd
I would bring a lamb,
If I were a Wise Man
I would do my part, –
Yet what I can I give Him,
Give my heart.

CUPERTINO CLASSIC: PRIESTS V. SEMINARIANS BASKETBALL GAME

The Annual Cupertino Classic priests vs. seminarians basketball game will take place on Tuesday, Dec. 27, at Marian High School in Mishawaka. Join us for this great night of Catholic fellowship to encounter vocations and enjoy the game! The day kicks-off with Adoration at 3 p.m. at the Sisters of Saint Francis of Perpetual Adoration Provincial House. Mass will follow at 4 p.m. at the same location. Then, move across the street to Marian High School for the Cupertino Classic. Tip-off is at 6:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to this free family-friendly event. Please pray for continued vocations to the priesthood. For more information, visit diocesefwsb.org/cupertino.

OPLATEK IS AVAILABLE

If you wish to stop by the parish office, we have Oplatek, a Polish tradition to celebrate the Christmas season.

A free will offering will be accepted but is not necessary.

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

This Advent, I invite you to consider the words of St. Josemaria Escriva, "We are not the source of light, we only reflect it."

As the days grow darker on our journey toward Christmas, I am reminded of how much light surrounds us during this season. From the gentle glow of Christmas trees to the colorful rays illuminating homes, these lights are a reminder of the true Light we are called to reflect. In these final days of Advent, let us consider how we can share this Light with others.

Through our work at Catholic Charities, the Light of Christ is brought to our most vulnerable neighbors during the coldest and darkest times of the year. Our food pantries, Christmas Programs, mental health ministries, and more than 20 other programs are lifelines for those in need, while offering the warmth of compassion.

As the Human Services Arm of the Church, Catholic Charities fulfills the charitable mission entrusted to us by the faithful in our Diocese. Simply put, we cannot do this without your support. 88 cents of every donated dollar goes towards our programming.

In your parish envelopes, you will find a special collection envelope for Catholic Charities. This Christmas, we invite you to bring this envelope to Mass. While your gifts are recorded at your parish and remain anonymous to us, your support is a visible reflection of your love and generosity in the lives of those we serve.

As we approach the final days of Advent and ready ourselves for the birth of our Savior, I pray the light of the manger will be our source of strength and hope this Christmas Season.

Yours in Christ,

Dan Florin
