FR. TERRY'S COLUMN

APRIL 6, 2025 • FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

SO MUCH BEAUTY SURROUNDS US

You will notice two things: our painting is veiled, and some new color is added up above!

I'm grateful for the ladies and gentlemen in the parish who volunteered their skills to help with the veiling project. This was quite an effort that took some real thinking and some hard work to solve. We may have a different solution in the future as we work out ideas. I am glad with what we have for this year and think it will make Easter even more special.

Our mural installation will be completed this week ahead, just in time for Palm Sunday and Holy Week. It has been a huge undertaking, with lots of anticipation and excitement, and a good chunk of anxiety thrown into the mix. I have been very impressed with the work of our painter, Peter Lupkin, and the whole support team (his brothers, father, and other coworkers) and the installation team he has hired (the same gentlemen as last time). Their efforts have coordinated very well, and they have been flexible (as have we) to make it work for our week-day and weekend liturgies. I am sure that when the saints are installed in the next four or five days, you will agree that it was worth the wait. It takes a long time to paint so many full-size portraits, but we are glad to reap the results of those efforts for years to come!

The schedule for Holy Week, and for Easter Masses, is there on the front of the bulletin for your convenience. We hope to have great crowds as we celebrate this most important time in our liturgical calendar. Hopefully you can join us for these liturgies, which are the central aspects of Holy Week. If not, please do all that you can to make your home and your heart a space for prayerful quiet. Making this week different from all other weeks is the best way to make it "holy," which means "set apart" (for a special purpose).

Our parish welcomes some new members at Easter who have been preparing this past year for entrance into the Catholic Church. Many of them have either spouses or family members who are Catholic, and some of them have chosen to enter the Church simply because of their friends and their own relationship with Jesus and the Church. It is beautiful to see how all of them have grown over the past months into a deeper relationship with Christ and with our community of faith. God is doing great things in their lives because they are open and willing to walk where He is leading. May they be an example to all of us for how we are called to continually walk with the Lord further and further into His plan for our lives.

SVdP Lenten Challenge

The St Elizabeth SVdP Conference invites you participate in our Lenten Challenge. Lent is period of preparation to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection at Easter through prayer, almsgiving, and fasting. This week, let's challenge ourselves to prayer: please pray for our neighbors in need of assistance, may they feel the love of Christ through us. Pray for our Vincentians, may they serve the Lord with compassion and wisdom. Pray for our volunteers, may they answer the call to give of time, talent or treasure to help others.

SVdP invites everyone to help in an area of your interest or talent, like our home visits to offer assistance to those in need, our First Fridays to work at the Thrift Store, our different committees to plan food drives, promotions, and fellowship events, and our involvement with fellow ministries at SEAS and in the southwest community. For more information on how you can help us help others, please email us at SVdP@seasfw.org or attend our next St Elizabeth SVdP Conference meeting on Monday, April 14th at 7pm in the parish hall.

SVdP would like to thank everyone that volunteered Friday at the Thrift Store during our monthly First Friday Volunteer Event. Mark your calendars for our next First Friday, May 2nd.
