FR. TERRY'S COLUMN

APRIL 27, 2025 • DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

WHAT A GIFT FOR EASTER TO HAVE OUR MURAL INSTALLATION COMPLETE!

You may not be able to tell which saints we are admiring in heaven, so here's a reminder: Mother Teresa of Kolkata (Calcutta) - (Albanian); Bl. Solanus Casey (Irish-American); Kateri Tekakwitha (Native American); Martin De Porres (half Spanish, ¼ African, ¼ Native American); Peter the Apostle (ancient Jewish); Elizabeth Ann Seton (Colonial Anglo-American); Jose Sanchez del Rio (Hispanic); Louis & Zelig Martin (French); Josephine Bakhita (African, many years a slave); Magdalena of Nagasaki (Japanese martyr).

I'd like to point out that one of the main goals was to have a wide array of saints depicted in heaven. We have much of the globe represented, and thus many cultures and ethnicities as well. Three of the saints are younger, though it will be perhaps a bit harder to notice that Kateri and Magdalena were 24 and 22-23 at the time of death (martyrdom for Magdalena). We have priests, religious sisters, and laity. The saints come from different eras of the Church - ancient, renaissance, modern. I'm happy to have a married couple, which is a two-for-one, and it puts the final count at five men and six women. There are so many amazing saints that it is hard to narrow down to such a small list, even if we could double it to twenty (the space also won't permit so many full-sized images).

WELCOME NICHOLE MOORE TO THE BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

We're excited to welcome Nichole Moore, who brings her strong analytical background and deep commitment and accuracy to our Parish Business Department. Her attention to detail ensures that our financial and operational information remains current and precise.

Many of you may recognize Nichole from Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton School, where she has served as an Assistant Aide. Her dedication to Catholic education has also been evident through her active volunteer work with HASA, where she helped on various committees before stepping into leadership roles as Vice President and eventually President. She also played a key role in Seton Night Live, first as a volunteer and later as Chair of Seton Night Live. Nichole's passion for Catholic education runs deep. She believes wholeheartedly in the beautiful integration of faith and academics, and how this foundation helps students see God in everyday moments and apply their faith in meaningful, real-world ways.

As Nichole's involvement in our community deepened, so did her faith in God and devotion to Mary. In September 2020, she began her journey in the RCIA, and on December 18, 2022, she received the Sacraments of Initiation, officially becoming a member of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish. Since then, she continues to be guided, strengthened, and sustained by God's grace. Please join us in welcoming Nichole to this new role as she continues to serve our parish with faith and dedication. Nichole is married to David Moore, DO, FACOI who is a Lt Col in the Indiana Air National guard, and a flight surgeon at the 122D Fighter Wing. They have a daughter Katelyn in 6th grade.
