FR. TERRY'S COLUMN

PRAISE GOD, FOR HE IS SO GOOD

This past week I was in a doozy of a car pile-up. After slowing to a halt on Goshen road heading north from Franke park's new entrance, I saw in the mirror that the driver behind didn't notice the unusual situation and I braced for impact. I felt like I had two or three collisions in a row, probably bouncing around between the vehicles (four were affected). It was quite the shocking experience, but I am grateful that the vehicles nowadays are so much safer thanks to decades of hard efforts at improvements. Though a little sore from the seatbelt and whiplash, I should be alright by the weekend you read this. I think all the other drivers were even better off than me, thankfully, as airbags seemed to protect the rider behind me, and my car itself crunched up nicely, softening the impact in front. Jesus speaks of "laying down one's life for one's friend" – that car really sacrificed itself for me! So I don't regret taking care of it over the years.

Many lessons learned from that experience, not newly but more deeply: Always be ready. Drive safe. Do what is right. Life is fragile. Life is an adventure that we don't fully control. God is good and always present. His plan is good even when we don't understand.

Deacon Sam Martinez was ordained on the 24th with three other seminarians. We are thrilled that Bishop Rhoades has assigned him to us for the summer, and I am happy to have another good man of God sharing our house and joining us in prayer. He will have his own unique gifts and style of preaching, as every priest and deacon does, so we thank God for the ways Deacon Sam's ministry will benefit us this summer. Please keep him in your prayers and receive him with open hearts. I'm sure you will get to know him over the summer before his last year of studies in seminary. We have the chance to support another priestly vocation, so may we give him our best as a way of giving God and His Church our best. God bless Deacon Sam!
