FR. TERRY'S COLUMN

JUNE 8, 2025 • PENTECOST SUNDAY

This Sunday celebration of Pentecost is the conclusion of the Easter season, and the birthday of the Church's missionary work to proclaim the gospel to the world. This mission was given by Jesus last week at the Ascension, but the Apostles were charged to wait for the coming of the Holy Spirit. This Holy Spirit leads the church into all truth and providentially guide to the course of the churches work throughout human history. That work remains our own, as Pope Francis so often told us. His famous phrase is that every disciple is a missionary disciple.

That is lived out in many ways, and this week we see one of those beautiful ways of sowing seeds of faith in the mission field that is our own children. Vacation Bible school this week is a great witness to the beautiful gift of our faith and of the Christian community. I'm so grateful to the many people (adults and older children volunteers) who make this such a fun and successful week for the dozens and dozens of children in our parish family. By the end of the week, we are usually pretty tired, kids included, but full of joy as we sing and dance to the songs that have become ingrained into our minds. Please pray for the success of this week, and for good weather! May the Lord's love and grace shine forth.

It has been a joy to have Deacon Sam with us for the past week and we are looking forward to the other fun things that God will allow us to experience together as we witness and grow and receive from him what God desires for us. Please keep him and the other new deacons in your prayers.

Also continue to pray For the priests newly ordained for our diocese just on Saturday. Fathers Nicholas Monnin and Andrew Barnes are both former students at Saint Joseph high school where I was the priest chaplain. It is very rewarding for me to see these young men grow in their vocation and now reach the beginning of priestly ministry. May God bless them through their ministry, and bless their parishioners as they bring them the sacraments. God is good!

A WORD FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Greetings! On the last day of school, we took time to honor two wonderful teachers who are retiring. Legendary middle school Science teacher, Mrs. Jodi Jump, has served her students and inspired her colleagues for the past 42 years! Extraordinary 5th grade teacher, Mrs. Leslye Yarde, has enriched the lives her students and colleagues for the past 19 years! Thank you to both of these women for being wonderful examples of service and leadership. If you are considering enrolling your student in our school for next year, check out the “enrollment,” tab on the school website for class openings or call the school office to arrange a tour of our campus. HAVE AN AWESOME SUMMER! Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton. PRAY FOR US!

Live Worship Music

Hello SEAS Parishioners,

Mark your calendars for a fun-filled family event! The Knights of Columbus are thrilled to invite you to a unique and exciting afternoon of faith, fellowship, and friendly competition.

Instead of a minor league baseball game, we're hosting a spirited softball game SEAS versus Queen of Angels, featuring a very special all-star team: Fathers Spencer from Queen of Angels, and our own Fathers Terry, and Father Jake! Witness their impressive athletic skills on Saturday, August 9th, at Queen of Angels Catholic Church. The game begins immediately following the 4:00 PM Mass.

Join us for Mass, then head over to the ballpark for an afternoon of fun for all ages! We'll have a silent auction, delicious food, a bounce house for the kids, and plenty of entertainment. It's a wonderful opportunity to connect with our parish community in a relaxed and enjoyable setting.

We hope to see you there! A big thank you to all SEAS Parishioners who rolled up their sleeves recently to donate blood. Did you know that our parish has been in the top 2 parishes across Indiana for the number of units of blood donated! We couldn't do this without your loving generosity towards those in need so thank you on their behalf!
