ANNUAL MISSION SPEAKER

JULY 12&amp;13, 2025

Please welcome
Rev. Mark Enemali, CSSpon behalf of Saint Clement Catholic Church
in Tarentum, PA

St. Clement was founded in 1903 as a Slovak parish. The parish was the result of the growth of Slovak immigration to the area beginning in the late nineteenth century. Until St. Clement was established, local Slovaks attended either St. Peter or Sacred Heart in Tarentum. In 1902, a committee of Slovaks was formed to secure a Slovak parish. The cornerstone was laid on September 4, 1904, and the completed church was dedicated on May 20, 1906.

Over the years, this church has been renovated and remodeled. By the end of the twentieth century, it became obvious that Tarentum could no longer support two independent parishes. In 1992, St. Clement was merged with Sacred Heart-St. Peter parish to form the new Holy Martyrs parish. St. Clement church remains open and serves the new parish today.
