Pastor's Letter

Dear Parishioners,

Monday is the national holiday for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. His nonviolent approach to positive social change, and his charge that we should not judge each other on the color of our skin but rather on the content of our character, is as relevant today as it was in his day. I hope we as individuals and a nation take Dr. King's legacy to heart and that his message will change some of the divisiveness in our country today and unite us as various races with many political positions.

As everyone knows, we live in very difficult times with the pandemic and the political chaos and division in our country, something none of us living in the USA have ever experienced.

God willing, the pandemic will subside with the vaccine and more and more people receiving it. I plan to get mine as soon as it is available for my age bracket. I hope you will also.

The other “elephant in the room”—the political chaos, insurrectionist tendencies, and the polarization that our country is experiencing—presents a very terrible threat to our democracy and way of life as Americans. Extremes on both the left and right of politics and the vision for our country are tearing our country and way of life apart.

This polarization also affects families and friends who have their favorite political candidate and party and are excoriated for having these. While there have always been political tensions with differences of opinion about this, that, and the other political candidate, today people disown each other when politics are spoken about with each other.

That must change!

Part of the problem, too, is instant communication through social media, 24-hour news stations that have become the political arm of Democrats and Republicans, and too much talk from our politicians and from each other, especially opinions posted on social media.

When I was young, before social media and cable news networks, we had the Today Show in the morning, maybe a 15- or 30-minute national newscast at night, five minutes of radio news at the top of the hour all day long, and newspapers. We seldom heard the president speak or other politicians, and rank and file Americans only could write letters to the editor or maybe call-in shows on the local radio stations to voice their opinion. That was it.

Too much talk, too many opinions, and communications with one another that are far from our Judeo-Christian tradition are causing the problems we have in America with social unrest and coup attempts. The Golden Rule has been thrown out the window, and we see how this mortal sin causes a hell-like situation in our country, rather than in a civil society based on God's love and the Golden Rule.

Pray for sanity to return to our country's citizens and to each of us, based upon the Gold Rule and God's grace and truth. God bless you.

Your Pastor,

Fr. Allan

CYM In Action

Last month, the Catholic Youth Ministry assembled 50 stockings for the nonprofit Soldiers' Angels. This group sends Christmas stockings to VA hospitals throughout America and to military hospitals for soldiers who are not able to go home for the holidays. Our stockings went to the hospital in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The Youth Group wants to thank RPI Roofing, owned by St. Anne parishioners Marci and John Reynolds, for their generosity in donating all the gifts and postage!

What's in the Church? Tabernacle

The tabernacle is where Jesus lives—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity—in each consecrated Host. In the Bible, God has always chosen to be truly present to His people. The tabernacle in the Old Testament held the Ark of Covenant. Our Mother Mary became a tabernacle herself by carrying God within her womb. Today, God is truly present in the tabernacle in every Catholic Church. (When you pass in front of a Catholic Church, always bless yourself as a sign of reverence for Christ is truly present there!)

Speak Lord; We Are Listening

In today's first reading, God keeps calling out in the night to a sleeping boy. Neither the boy, Samuel, nor his teacher, Eli, understands who is calling. But God's persistence convinces them. Samuel is then ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. “Speak, for your servant is listening” (1 Samuel 3:10).

In the Gospel Jesus is out teaching. Various people notice him and begin to gather around. They soon become disciples and, like the young Samuel, are ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. “Speak,” they say, “we are listening.”

God's voice is always with us, awake or asleep. It swirls around us like fog on a waterfront, enveloping us, gently urging us to wake up, to listen. Awareness of the voice comes first; then willingness to listen; then, in time, the decision to act, to live according to God's word. Let's ask today for the ability to keep our ears open so we don't miss God's voice.
