Pastor's Letter

Dear Parishioners,

As I write this letter on Inauguration Day, January 20, I, like you, watched President Joseph Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris sworn in as our new President and Vice President. While it was different in years past, it was nonetheless quite impressive, and the peaceful transfer of power occurred without incident. Thank God for that!

I hope you will join with me in praying for our new administration and for the healing of our wonderful country during these divisive times.

Last week, we kicked off the Annual Catholic Appeal. Bishop Parkes spoke to us by audio recording. You can see the actual video of that talk on our parish website and Facebook page. It is worth watching.

Please don't procrastinate in sending in your gift or pledge. Commitment Sunday for those who have not returned their pledge card is Valentine's Day weekend, February 13/14. Let us show our Lord, our bishop, and our diocese love by offering a sacrificial gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Let us be the diocese's Saint Valentine!

This Tuesday is 40 days after Christmas, The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple, as well as the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is also known as Candlemas, because of the blessing of candles that takes place during Mass.

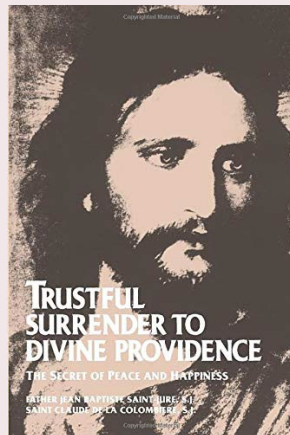

Fr. Robert will celebrate the 9:00 a.m. Mass in the Martha Mary Chapel, and I will celebrate a High Mass in the Ancient Latin Form at 6:00 p.m., also in the Martha Mary Chapel. Both will have the blessing of candles. You can bring candles from home to be blessed as well.

To those who have already sent your gift to the diocese, thank you. For those who have not, please do so today. No gift is too small. God bless you.

Your Pastor,

Fr. Allan

Trustful Surrender to Divine Providence

During Lent, we would like to give every family a spiritual book to read: "Trustful Surrender to Divine Providence: The Secret to Peace and Happiness." This enriching classic simply and clearly answers questions that many Christians have regarding God's will, the existence of evil, and the practice of trustful surrender. Fr. Robert has promoted this book and given it to some parishioners already. In order to do this, though, given our current financial situation, we need your help to provide this to the parish. If you would like to give or pay online through Our Sunday Visitor, you can sign up at the St. Anne online giving website: <https://osvonlinegiving.com/4445> (Option #6: Contributions for free printed media).

What's in the Church? Chalice

The chalice is the sacred cup that holds the wine, which will become the Precious Blood of Christ. Because the chalice holds something so Sacred, it must be made of gold or silver, which is non-porous and will not rust or break.

False and True Prophets

In Deuteronomy today, we hear that God’s very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God’s mouth. In Mark’s Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God’s own voice, the Holy One of God.

The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today’s Gospel, we learn that Jesus’ fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn’t an authority because he was popular or famous.

We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God’s purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day.

Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God’s very words filling our mouths.
