RESTRICTION CHANGES PRECAUTIONS FOR MASS ATTENDANCE MORE UPDATES TO COME

As more people get vaccinated and restrictions ease up, we hope that more parishioners will be confident and comfortable returning to church for the celebration of the Mass.

For now please maintain the practice of properly wearing your mask when inside the church and in close proximity to others. Those who are vaccinated do not need to wear a mask when outside; you may feel that you don't need to wear it inside either. Please do so anyway out of sensitivity and care for others.

Some changes in our practice at Mass will probably occur soon, enabling the liturgy to regain a higher degree of normalcy — the more regular use of liturgical ministers, the offertory, the manner of distribution of holy communion, singing.

The lifting of capacity limits may lead to opening more pews for seating. However, a portion of the church will maintain the current setup especially for those who have not been vaccinated or wish to still keep a greater distance from others.

Keep attuned to announcements of changes to come.

Pentecost Sunday — May 23, 2021

Reflection on the Sunday Lectionary Readings

Pentecost Sunday (Mass During the Day)

ACTS 2:1-11; 1 COR 12:3b-7, 12-13; JN 20:19-23

Our Easter season culminates with the glorious feast of Pentecost. Pentecost, meaning "fifty," is the day that the Holy Spirit descended on Mary and the apostles in the form of tongues of fire fifty days after Easter. We also celebrate this day as the birthday of the Church, for shortly after this event, St. Peter preached his first homily.

We can imagine how incredible that moment was for the apostles and all who witnessed it. The Holy Spirit was alive and working.

The Holy Spirit is just as alive and willing to work here and now in our day-to-day moments as back at our first Pentecost. It is our call as Christian disciples to be attentive and open to these workings. By the power of the Holy Spirit, God is in us and always around us — yet, we must call upon His name, seek His guidance and become aware of His presence in our lives.

Our First Reading bears witness to the first Pentecost. During this encounter with the Holy Spirit, the apostles and Mary felt a driving wind, there were tongues of fire on the heads of each of them and the Spirit allowed them to speak in different tongues proclaiming acts of God.

We might hear this reading and wish the Holy Spirit worked that obviously in our lives each day. The truth is, the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives is obvious, we just might be blind to it, or it might be that we have closed ourselves off to the Holy Spirit's wonderful works.

Our tongues of fire might be a profound conversation with a friend, something that you needed to hear in that exact moment; or a pushed-back deadline at work when you were swamped; or a moment of strength to speak the truth when you typically shy away; or even a closed door to an opportunity for something much, much greater. These are movements of the Holy Spirit in our everyday moments.

The more we take time to recognize them, the more we become aware of them. So, at the close of each day, try examining how the day went. Search for the moments where you witnessed the Holy Spirit working in your daily life and the life of your family and friends.

In our Second Reading, St. Paul reminds us of our unique role as Christian stewards as he says, "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord... To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit."

Each one of us has been given unique gifts from the Holy Spirit. No two stewards are the same. Some of us might be confident in those gifts and some of us might not know what they are just yet. When we discover them and use them for God's work, they are multiplied beyond what we could have imagined. It is our job to look inward and pray, "Come Holy Spirit, reveal my gifts to me so that I may use them for Your glory."

And when we live a life attentive to the Spirit's workings and gifts, we can better live out Jesus' call in our Gospel today, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." As disciples of Christ, we are sent out to gather more disciples. If we are constantly striving to be in tune with the Holy Spirit, God will do the rest by showing us the way.

On this Pentecost Sunday, let us give thanks to God for sending us His Holy Spirit. Let us strive to be in tune with the Holy Spirit by looking for the ways God has been working in our lives and let us ask for the grace to know our gifts and talents so that we can put them to good use.

PRAYER TO MARY FOR VOCATIONS

O Virgin Mary, Mother of Jesus and Mother of the Church, to you we commend our young people, in particular those called to closely follow your Son.

You know, O Mary, the struggles, the obstacles, they must face.

Assist them to answer "yes" to the divine call, as you did at the invitation of the angel.

Draw them near to Your heart so that they can understand the joy that awaits them when the Lord Jesus calls them to be witnesses of His love in the world. Amen.

May the Holy Spirit
open eyes and hearts to the humanity of children in the womb.

FOR YOUR MARRIAGE

For Your Marriage helps couples at all stages of life to understand and live God's plan for happy, holy marriages by providing educational and spiritual resources. The website was launched in 2007 as part of the National Pastoral Initiative for Marriage, an initiative of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to communicate the meaning and value of married life for the Church and for society. Also a great resource for preparing for and planning your wedding.

FORYOURMARRIAGE.ORG

Congress is trying to force Americans to pay for abortion.

The Hyde Amendment and similar laws have protected taxpayers from funding elective abortion for 45 years. Now, powerful members of Congress want to take away these laws that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century. Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion.

It is critically important for Catholics to send a strong message before Congress moves forward to impose taxpayer-funded abortion.

Bishop Checchio invites all parishioners to join our diocesan response to this nationwide effort by the USCCB, set for the first week of June. The primary goal is for millions of Catholics to sign the petition on NoTaxPayerAbortion.com.

Birthday Greetings

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!! Today we celebrate our empowerment, through the Spirit, to continue the mission of Jesus. We Catholics, followers of Jesus, believe that we are a people, a community of faith, and that each one of us has been lavished with the Spirit's gifts, which are not for our personal aggrandizement, but are to be put to the service of our brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ. Do you know someone who seems interested in learning more about Jesus or about our Catholic Faith Family? Bring them to an RCIA Inquiry Session and allow us to help you tell them the Good News. Anyone who is unbaptized, baptized into another Christian denomination, or baptized Catholic but has never received BOTH sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist is invited. Inquiry Sessions will continue throughout the summer. For more information call Fr. Tom

Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Bereavement Ministry

strives to bring consolation and peer support to those who grieve the loss of a loved one. Informal small group gatherings are facilitated by caring parishioners. Sharing thoughts, feelings, and emotions in the atmosphere of our faith with others who are also going through a personal loss can often bring some peace and acceptance, when understanding that these experiences are normal. Knowing that we are not alone may give some strength and consolation.

A nine-week session will begin at Holy Trinity Church on Monday, June 14th from 6:30pm until 8:00pm.

No fee, but registration is required.
