Fourth Sunday of Lent—March 27, 2022

Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings

1 SM 16:1B, 6-7, 10-13A; EPH 5:8-14; JN 9:1-41

Today's readings on this fourth Sunday of Lent are filled with contrasting images — God's vision versus human vision, the light of Christ versus the darkness of sin, spiritual blindness versus spiritual sightedness. Embracing a stewardship way of life can free us from spiritual blindness, allow us to see as God sees and help us to reflect the light of Christ's love in the way we live our daily lives.

The first reading, from the First Book of Samuel, recounts God's choice of a king for his people from among the sons of Jesse. Surprisingly, it was not the oldest or the strongest of the seven brothers that God chose to lead his people. It was the youngest, the least likely candidate by the world's standards, that God chose — "Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart." Our Heavenly Father is not impressed by our job title or athletic achievements or the number of Twitter followers we have. He is pleased by the condition of our hearts when they are conformed to Christ and by the way we use the time and gifts He has given us to serve others.

Our Second Reading, from Ephesians, gives a further reminder of the aspect of our identity that truly matters to God and encourages us to live in a way that reflects this. "You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light." Because of our Baptism, we have the "light" of the Blessed Trinity dwelling within us. In the difficulties and messiness of daily life, it's easy to forget this glorious truth about ourselves. It can also be difficult to determine whether we truly are living in a way that reflects Christ's light. The stewardship way of life, with its emphasis on the rightly ordered use of the gifts of time, talent and treasure, gives us a guide we can consult on a daily basis to help ensure that we really are living as "children of the light."

In our Gospel passage from John, Christ says of Himself, "I am the light of the world." This passage recounts a miracle our Lord performs, restoring sight to a man born blind. The man responds to the Pharisees who question him about his healing by declaring to them that Jesus "opened my eyes." These Lenten days are an excellent time for us to ask Jesus to open our eyes, too. Let us ask Him to show us where we may be suffering from spiritual blindness, perhaps even in subtle ways.

Are we truly reflecting His light in our use of time by giving first priority to our prayer lives, regularly attending Mass and Confession, giving our full and consistent attention to our loved ones?

Are we reflecting His light in the sharing of our talents by supporting the ministries in this parish, by community involvement, by being good neighbors to those near us who may be in need?

Are we reflecting His light by sharing our material blessings in a committed and intentional way as an act of gratitude to the God Who has given us all that we have?

As we continue on our Lenten journey, let's intensify our efforts in any of these areas where we have become a little blinded so that by Easter, we are truly living as children of the light.

— Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship Consultants

ARE YOU BEING CALLED TO THE DIACONATE?

The Diocese is looking for men who are interested in becoming Permanent Deacons. A new diaconate formation class is about to begin. Applications for that class will be accepted near the end of this summer; prior to applying, interested men must attend an Information Meeting. A General Information Meeting will be held at the St. John Neumann Pastoral Center in Piscataway on Tuesday, March 29, 2022 at 7:00 PM and again on Saturday, April 9, 2022 at 10:00 AM.

If you are between the ages of 35 and 60, and you believe you are being called to this ministry, you, your wife and your pastor are cordially invited to attend one of these meetings. If you have any questions, or wish to advise that you will attend, please contact the Diocesan Diaconate Office at (732) 562-2457 or diaconate@diometuchen.org.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

On the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent, we hear three stories from the Gospel of John — the Woman at the Well, the Man Born Blind, and the Raising of Lazarus. Note that we are using the Year A scripture readings. These are the weeks for celebrating the Scrutinies of the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.

The Scrutinies are rites of conversion and repentance and the prayers of intercession are intended to deliver the candidates from sin, protect them from temptation and invite them closer to Christ.

At the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night, Shawn and other Candidates throughout the world are welcomed to the Lord's Table as full disciples of Christ. We invite everyone to come and witness this beautiful evening as we anticipate Christ's resurrection.

This Sunday, March 27, at the 10 a.m. Mass, the second of the three scrutinies will be celebrated with Shawn, the elect of our parish. Today's scrutiny calls upon the elect, and the community to recognize how we choose blindness... blindness to good, blindness to truth and blindness to values. Next Sunday the third scrutiny will be celebrated, also at the 10 a.m. Mass. Please continue to keep Shawn in your prayers throughout these later Lenten days.

SANCTIFY

SAINTS IN THE WORLD

Sanctify, our group for young families, couples, and adult singles will be meeting on Sunday, April 3 at 1:15 p.m. following the noon Mass at St. Ann. Join us as we continue a series of reflections on the 7 Sacraments.

One of our Oratorian fathers will be offering a reflection on the Eucharist, and Eucharistic Adoration and discussion will take place after that.

We hope to see you then, and at our future events on the first Sunday of each month moving forward :)
