Third Sunday of Easter — April 23, 2023

Third Sunday of Easter — April 23, 2023

Stewardship Reflection on the Lectionary Readings

ACTS 2:14, 22-33; PS 16:1-2, 5, 7-11; 1 PT 1:17-21; LK 24:13-35

Today's readings focus on a theme of "sojourning." As Christian stewards we know that our lives are a sojourn towards the ultimate destination of heaven.

Our second reading instructs us to "conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed... with the precious blood of Christ." What a powerful reminder during the Easter season of our "why" for embracing the stewardship way of life — we have been ransomed by our Lord's saving death and resurrection. Our lives are a gift from Him — as we sojourn through life, we are to make of our lives a gift to Him in return.

Our Gospel passage today describes a sojourn as well, the familiar Easter season story of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus. The two are dejected and despondent after Jesus' death. These men knew Jesus personally. They were believers. They had heard the Gospel message directly from His lips. They talked with Him, traveled with Him, ate with Him. They heard the testimony of the women who discovered the empty tomb of our Lord and saw a vision of angels announcing He was alive. And if that were not enough, they had also been informed by other disciples who went to the tomb that all was exactly as the women reported.

How much more obvious could the Good News be?

And yet, at times, the reaction of the two disciples describes our own walk of faith, doesn't it? We have the fullness of the Catholic faith, the power of the sacraments, the support of our parish family. Yet, we lose our way. We fail to see all the gifts we have been given. We lack trust in the perfect goodness and almighty power of God. The life of a disciple — even for us modern-day disciples — is truly a sojourn, with valleys and mountaintops, wrong turns and course corrections required on a regular basis.

Our Lord offers a course correction to the two disciples who have lost their way, opening their eyes to the reality of His presence and the truth of His Resurrection. What happens when their eyes are opened once again and they recognize Jesus in the Eucharist — "the breaking of the bread?" They are transformed! Their hearts are set on fire with love for the Lord and their faith. They recall that their hearts began "burning within" as the Lord was explaining the Scriptures to them.

So, what can we do when we become discouraged, when we need our hearts set on fire once again? We can go to the same sources as the two disciples on the road to Emmaus — the Scriptures (the living Word of God) and the Eucharist (the very source and summit of our faith). Frequent recourse to these two gifts from our Lord is absolutely essential to sustain us in the stewardship way of life.

In this Easter season, resolve to feast deeply on these two sources of grace. They are the fuel that will propel us on the journey towards heaven, with a renewed sense of joy and gratitude as we go!

SUPPORT FOR THOSE STRUGGLING WITH GRIEF

Bereavement Ministry strives to bring consolation and peer support to those who grieve the loss of a loved one. Informal small group gatherings are facilitated by caring parishioners. Sharing thoughts, feelings, and emotions in the atmosphere of our faith with others who are also going through a personal loss can often bring some peace and acceptance, when understanding that these experiences are normal. You are welcome to participate in this process of healing.

Holy Trinity Church is beginning a ten-week session process on Monday, May 1st from 6:30pm until 8:00pm.

No fee, but registration is required.

Contact Deacon John Phalen at (908) 526-2394 or email at bereavement@holyltrinitynj.org.

The Diocese of Las Vegas has let us know that Father Blaise Baran, a former pastor of St. Ann's, has been hospitalized with some health issues. In your kindness, please keep him in your prayers. If anyone wanted to send a card or such, Father Baran serves as the Administrator of La Virgen de Guadalupe Catholic Church, P.O. Box 300, Mesquite, NV, 89024.

"The Catholic Church of St. Ann" was officially established on April 17, 1903. The first members consisted of more than 100 families from Italy. Our first church building was small and wooden, built in 1906. It was replaced with our current brick church, built in 1933. For 120 years now St. Ann's has sought to faithfully proclaim and live the gospel, worshiping and serving God and neighbor.

St. Ann, intercede for us!
