Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings

AM 8:4-7; PS 113:1-2, 4-8; 1 TM 2:1-8; LK 16:1-13

After today's readings, we can't say we have not been warned about the dangers of mixed-up priorities. God's Word is so very clear today on the necessity of putting Him first in all areas of our lives.

We see this in the First Reading from Amos. The Lord has harsh words for those who would take advantage of the poor and whose priorities are not aligned with God's.

In the Second Reading from St. Paul's letter to Timothy, Paul gives us the antidote to the self-centeredness condemned in our First Reading. The antidote is to imitate Christ, "who gave Himself as a ransom for all." Rather than thinking of Himself and how to "get ahead," Christ gave Himself away — completely — for our sake. That is how we are to live.

In our Gospel passage from Luke, the Lord shows us how to bridge the gap between worldly thinking and priorities and eternal thinking and priorities. Jesus tells the parable of the corrupt but clever steward who is about to be fired when the master discovers the steward has been squandering his property. Realizing his imminent unemployed status, the clever steward reaches out to the various debtors of his master to wheel and deal with them, making friends who would look out for him when he became jobless.

What if we put that kind of effort into our own tasks as good stewards of all God's gifts to us? Into our ministries, into the ways we could make more time for prayer as individuals, as couples, as families, and as a parish? What if we got as creative as the "bad steward" in the use of our finances so that we could give more generously to the poor and the advancement of God's kingdom on the earth? That's our lesson and our challenge.

HEALING MASS

St. Joseph Church, Raritan
Saturday, September 27 at 10:00am

The celebrant of the Mass will be Fr. Jeivi Hercules, Pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Moutainside, NJ. Fr. Hercules dedicates much of his ministry for people's healing and the deepening of our faith. Along with Eucharistic Adoration, there will be a prayer team to pray with those who are sick or distressed, anxious or struggling. Everyone is very encouraged to attend.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

The Bereavement Ministry strives to bring consolation and peer support to those who grieve the loss of a loved one. Informal small group gatherings are facilitated by caring parishioners. Sharing thoughts, feelings, and emotions in the atmosphere of our faith with others who are also going through a personal loss can often bring some peace and acceptance, when understanding that these experiences are normal. A ten-week session will begin at Holy Trinity Church on Monday, October 6th from 6:30pm until 8:00pm. No fee, but registration is required. Contact Deacon John Phalen at (908) 526-2394 or bereavement@holyltrinitynj.org.

Following the procession there will be a program in the church which will include a homily by our guest presider, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Benediction and the traditional Fatima farewell. Members of the Our Lady of Fatima Choir will sing and we will be joined by two members of the Orchestra of Saint Peter by the Sea.

Come, bring your family and friends. Join us in prayer for peace for our families and the world. For additional information or directions please call Roberta Maurer at 732-245-9124 or email her at rebaspec@comcast.net.

Volunteer Care for St. Ann's Church Property

At a cost of over $8,000 a large portion of the sidewalk in front of the church was replaced. We have various other small areas of sidewalk that need repair also (fill in cracks and holes, patch and level). It would be a great savings to the parish if anyone familiar with working with concrete can volunteer to help fix these areas. The church would greatly appreciate the assistance. Please contact Fr. Tom for more information about the spots in need of repair.

Parishioner Financial Support

The principal means of support for the Catholic Church of St. Ann is your weekly generosity. What is normally donated online and your sacrificial offering at Mass makes up the "ordinary income" that is supposed to balance the expense of ordinary parish operation, made up of salaries and benefits for the employees of the parish who serve you; all utilities and supplies; ministries and formation programs; resources needed for quality liturgies; snowplowing and landscaping, maintenance and custodial services to the buildings and properties—church, convent, rectory/office and school building. Please keep this in mind when assessing your regular level of financial support to the parish.

Whether by envelope, by mail or by online giving, your contributions are essential and appreciated. THANK YOU to all who help support the operation and ministry of St. Ann parish.
