Sunday August 20, 2023 ~ The Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Bishop's Pen...

"O woman, great is your faith."

A Canaanite woman calls out to Jesus, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." We instinctively know that this woman has faith that Jesus can heal her daughter. Canaanites and Jews would not intentionally associate with one another during the time of Jesus. And a Jewish man would certainly not speak to a Canaanite woman.

Jesus met her request with silence, as any self-respecting Jewish man would do. However, Jesus' seeming indifference did not dissuade the woman's persistence. Even when Jesus tells her that His mission is to the "lost sheep of Israel," not to the "dogs" of another nation, the woman persists!

Jesus said in reply, "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." The woman said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Jesus was testing the degree and persistence of her faith.

Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that hour. What we see in today's Gospel is that even though Jesus came to save the "lost sheep of Israel," God does not limit His mercy to only His chosen people. Jesus looks for true faith, be it in the house of Israel or outside of it.

Jesus saw in this Canaanite woman a faith that she did not even see in herself. He saw in her a faith that could withstand any assault; a love that was divine; a hope that could not be shaken. He tested her mettle and she found something within herself that she did not know even existed, perseverance in faith, because of her love for her daughter.

Jesus wants to see that faith in you and in me. Jesus came among us with healing power, and He is looking for our faith to be healed, the same faith as the Canaanite woman.

– Bishop Roy Campbell

Sharing the Gospel

A woman begged Jesus to cure her daughter who was possessed by demons. This lady believed that Jesus could cure her daughter. He cured her daughter because of her faith. Ask God to help someone you know who is very sick. Ask God to help the homeless find jobs so they can pay for a place to live. Ask God to help you and your sisters or brothers play without fighting. He will help because of your faith.

Prayer

Jesus, I believe you can help.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of yourself playing an indoor game together with your sister or brother without fighting.

Mission for the Week

When I hear a siren, I will pray for the people inside the ambulance.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"O woman, great is your faith!" The Canaanite woman stood firm in her belief that God would answer her — even when those closest to him tried to send her away, and even when Christ himself challenged her. She never wavered.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - FOR YOUR REFLECTION

First Reading

The Lord instructed the prophet Isaiah to be open to "foreigners" (nations other than Israel) for God's covenant with Israel is intended for all people. How welcoming are you to outsiders in your life?

Second Reading

Paul believed that Israel's rejection of Jesus became a vehicle for God to reveal his mercy to all people, Jew and Gentile alike. Is there someone in your life who needs your mercy and forgiveness?

Gospel Reading

Jesus rewards the Canaanite woman for her great faith by granting the woman's request to heal her daughter. Who would you say has helped you grow in your faith?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – DID YOU KNOW?

Question: What is the name given to a school operated and supported by a parish community?

Answer: (a) Seminary (b) Parish Church School
(c) Parochial School

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Religious Orders

Question:

What is the meaning of the letters that professed religious have after their names?

Answer:

The Catholic Church includes hundreds of religious communities. The priests, religious brothers, religious sisters, and nuns of these communities (which are often referred to as "religious orders") are committed to particular spiritual traditions and often to a particular charism (such as teaching, healthcare, social work, or pastoral care).

To help identify a person as a member of a particular religious community, the custom developed of including post-nominal letters that provide a sort of shorthand for the name of the community that the priest, brother, sister or nun is part of. So, for example OSB after a person's name would indicate that they are a member of the Order of St. Benedict (the Benedictines), just as SJ would indicate that a priest or brother is a member of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) or RSM would show that a woman is a Sister of Mercy. Brothers and Salvatorian Sisters) SSND = School Sisters of Notre Dame SVD = Society of the Divine Word (Divine Word Missionaries)
