From the Bishop's Pen...

"If your brother or sister listens to you, you have won them over."

I remember the song, "He ain't heavy, he's my brother." That song was originally written by Bobby Scott and Bob Russell; recorded by Kelly Gordon in 1969 and then made popular by the Hollies the same year. Some of the lyrics of the song say "I'm strong enough to carry him, so on we go. His welfare is of my concern; no burden is he to bear. He ain't heavy, he's my brother."

That song says a lot about caring for each other, just as Jesus tells His disciples in today's Gospel. He calls us have the strength to carry each other, because "He ain't heavy, he's my brother." How important is it to have that strength? In our Old Testament reading from the Prophet Ezekiel, the Lord says, "If I tell the wicked man that he shall surely die, and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked man from his way, the wicked shall die for his guilt, but I will hold you responsible for his death."

As true friends, we would not let our brothers and sisters do wrong without trying to persuade them to do what is right. But what if they do continue to do wrong? Our Lord gives us the steps to follow, go to him in private; if that does not work, bring someone else to help. If that is to no avail, go to the Church and finally, realize that you have done all that you can. Why does our Lord give these action steps to His disciples?

Jesus is insisting that all His followers, especially His ordained ministers, have the same selfless and determined attitude that He has, to save every lost soul. We are called to live as Christ lived. We are called to do as He did, to give ourselves to each other in true friendship, to help each other come to Christ.

– Bishop Roy Campbell

Our desire is that every member of our parish family encounters Jesus Christ in a very personal and life-changing way as they journey through life within our community. That now includes you and we welcome you to this very personal, communal journey of faith as part of our parish family. As you begin the next part of your faith journey with us, we encourage you to check in at the Welcome Table and complete the parish registration form. You may also get the form from a Hospitality minister. Stay connected with the St Joseph Community through our Website, Facebook and FlockNote. God has given you gifts to share in helping the Church build the kingdom and accomplish her mission. Seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help you discern where you are meant to serve. When we fully reopen, please check out our Ministries and Organizations at the Welcome Table or our Website.

If you choose to send in your Church envelopes by mail or drop them off at the Church, please continue to do so. Your tax deductible offerings are based on the information on your envelopes. We have also set-up Online Giving through Faith Direct, which is an easy, simple, and secure way to continue supporting the ministry and mission of our parish. We had to make a number of decisions regarding our current Church staff because we are unable to collect our regular offertory. Please go to the link: <https://www.stjoseph-largo.org/online-giving> to sign-up for Faith Direct, make a contribution, and to view a video about enrollment and have your questions answered about online giving.

LIVE THE LITURGY:

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our personal relationship with Christ is important, yes — but thank God, that is not all there is to being a Christian. We depend upon the support, the encouragement, and even the correction of the rest of the Body of Christ.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - FOR YOUR REFLECTION

First Reading

The Lord teaches Ezekiel that he is personally responsible to be faithful to the prophetic words given to him. How could you show others that you take your faith seriously?

Second Reading

Paul taught that love (loving one's neighbor) is the fulfillment of the law God gave to Israel. What do you think is most challenging to this seemingly simple command to love one another?

Gospel Reading

Jesus taught his disciples to make every effort possible to be reconciled with someone who has wronged you. Is reconciliation a high priority for you?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – DID YOU KNOW?

Question: How many books does the New Testament of the official Catholic Bible have?

Answer: (a) 32 (b) 29 (c) 27

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Should a Catholic Pursue an Annulment?

Question:

After a civil divorce, is a Catholic obligated to pursue an annulment?

Answer:

Many Catholics are not exactly sure what an annulment does. An annulment does not deny that a marriage took place, nor does it deny that there once was love. It does not mean that people say anything untrue, such as they never loved each other or that everything in their marriage was wrong. An annulment does not negate children, nor make them illegitimate. An annulment addresses the spiritual aspect of marriage. In effect, an annulment says that at the time of the wedding, there was either something present or something absent that prevented the sacrament from taking place. It is a spiritual determination that, if granted in the affirmative, allows a person to marry in the Church.

Annulments have no legal standing and are unable to be used in a civil court. Therefore, a Catholic has no moral obligation to pursue an annulment. However, when the tragedy of divorce occurs, and there is no hope for reconciliation, annulments may help bring some spiritual closure to a person's life. Some people have found the process to be healing and others have found it to be difficult. Speak to your priest or a member of the Diocesan Tribunal staff to decide what is best for you.

*Good and gracious God,
you have given us the gift of children,
who in turn give us the gift of grandchildren.
Bless our children
and help them to be good parents to our grandchildren.
Let the little children come to us with arms wide open.
Help us to open our hearts
as wide as those little arms that wrap around our necks.
Protect them and their parents from worry and stress.
And give us as many days of life as possible to hear those little voices cry, "Saba!"
We ask all this in Jesus' name who is your Son and lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God for ever and ever.
Amen.*
