Sunday October 29, 2023 ~ The Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Bishop's Pen...

"You shall love the Lord your God and your neighbor as yourself."

The Sadducees had just approached Jesus, telling Him that they did not believe in the resurrection of the dead. Jesus answered them saying "Have you not read what was said to you by God, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not the God of the dead but the living." Yet, despite Jesus' answers that they could not argue with, the Sadducees and the Pharisees continued to constantly try to discredit Him in public.

This time, they wanted to discredit Jesus over which of the more than 600 religious laws, which they created, was the most important. They were trying to again place Jesus in a position where His answer would anger one faction over the other, as they tried in last week's Gospel about the validity of the Census Tax.

When asked which commandment is the greatest, Jesus tells them, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." In the time of Jesus, the heart was associated with the mind or will; the soul was associated with life. What is meant here is that the love of God must be comprised of a total response without distraction or competition.

Then Jesus immediately added the second great commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." We see that these two commandments are inseparable. How can we love God, whom we have never seen, if we cannot love our neighbors, who we often see?

God created each of us in His image and likeness. Therefore, each of us is meant to resemble God; just as each child in a family resembles their parents. Jesus is telling the Pharisees and Sadducees, and us, that we are more than neighbors to each other. Each of us is God's child; therefore, we truly are sisters and brothers to each other. We are called to love each other the way we are called to love God, selflessly and completely.

– Bishop Roy Campbell

To The St Joseph Catholic Church Community

Our desire is that every member of our parish family encounters Jesus Christ in a very personal and life-changing way as they journey through life within our community. That now includes you and we welcome you to this very personal, communal journey of faith as part of our parish family. As you begin the next part of your faith journey with us, we encourage you to check in at the Welcome Table and complete the parish registration form. You may also get the form from a Hospitality minister. Stay connected with the St Joseph Community through our Website, Facebook and FlockNote. God has given you gifts to share in helping the Church build the kingdom and accomplish her mission. Seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help you discern where you are meant to serve. When we fully reopen, please check out our Ministries and Organizations at the Welcome Table or our Website. Pray, discern, then take that leap of faith and get engaged in the life of the parish.

LIVE THE LITURGY:

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God became human to show us that only love can change the world. Let's not just believe in that love — let's be that love, each and every day.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - FOR YOUR REFLECTION

First Reading

We hear today some of the laws that Moses received from God on Mount Sinai. Namely, God's expectation that we show compassion for those most vulnerable in society.

How could you show care for those in need this week?

Second Reading

Paul praised the Thessalonians for being role models of the faith for the surrounding regions of Achaia and Macedonia.

How do you model your faith to family and friends?

Gospel Reading

For Jesus, love of God and love of neighbor and self are the most important commandments.

Which of these commandments do you do best?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – DID YOU KNOW?

Question:

What's the official name for the Dominican Order?

Answer:

- (a) The Order of Preachers      (b) The Order of Priests
(c) The Order of Deacons      (d) The Order of Bishops

SEE PAGE 5 FOR ANSWER

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Sacramental Seal

Question:

What is a sacramental seal and where did it come from?

Answer:

Leaving more than just a memory, there are some events in our life that are truly transforming, making us different people. The same thing can be said of spiritual things, especially sacraments. A sacramental seal or character is a theological concept to describe the life-changing and permanent effect of three sacraments on the person: baptism, confirmation, and holy orders. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that these sacraments confer a seal "by which the Christian shares in Christ's priesthood and is made a member of the Church according to different states and functions. This configuration to Christ and the Church, brought about by the Spirit, is indelible" (#1121).

Once we receive these sacraments, we are forever changed. It's a spiritual "point of no return" whereby we take a step forward in our faith journey. We are marked as people of faith, as those who have received the Spirit and as those called to serve in ordained ministry. That is why these sacraments are received only once. The direction is set, the choice is made, and we are called by God to be his people. Nothing can change that, not even our own sinfulness.

The Month of October is...

NATIONAL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

When a person discloses domestic violence

Remember:

- Never counsel a victim and abuser together.
- Never go to the scene of an incident in progress.
- Assist the person to get medical, legal or social services.
- Listen. She/he needs the affirmation of listening.
- Allow the person to make their own decisions.
- Be cautious about giving advice.
- Be patient: the first disclosure may be confused or partial.
- Look for and appreciate the inner strength of each person.

What you can say:

I believe you.
You are not alone.
You have good reason to be afraid.
What do you see as the next step?
What can we do to help you right now?

Do not say:

This is God's will.
We all have burdens.
You must forgive and take your partner back.

If there is an immediate threat of violence call 9-1-1!

If the violence occurred in the past, ask the individual if the police have been called, if she/he would like to contact police or file for a protective order. If the person doesn't want to contact the police or obtain a protective order, respect that choice. Survivors know their situation best.

Assess safety

Many people suffer psychological, emotional, and economic abuse and need counseling and support. Individuals living with intimate partner abuse may not realize that some situations are very dangerous. Guns, threats of murder or suicide, a recent or planned separation indicate high risk for lethal violence. Connect her/him to:
