Sunday December 3, 2023 ~ The First Sunday of Advent

From the Bishop's Pen...

"Be watchful! You do not know when the Lord of the house is coming."

Today is the First Sunday of Advent. The word "Advent" means "coming." We light the 1st Advent candle today, preparing for the coming of Christ, the eternal light who will pierce the darkness of the world. Just as a light gets brighter, the closer it comes to us, the Light of the World is symbolically coming closer to us and getting brighter by each additional candle that we light during the four Sundays of Advent.

The Light of the World that we prepare for is the coming of Jesus. Yet, we should also be preparing for Jesus' Second Coming. Saint Cyril wrote: "At the first coming He was wrapped in swaddling clothes in a manger. At His second coming He will be clothed in light as in a garment. In the first coming, He endured the cross, despising the shame; in the second coming He will be in glory, escorted by an army of angels. We look then, beyond the first coming and await the second."

Jesus' first coming brought us salvation, and with salvation, He gives us abundant graces. We must accept His graces to guide us through this life, because the time of His Second Coming will be unexpected; therefore, we must use His graces to always be prepared. Advent then is a time of expectancy along with our waiting in hope. Advent is forward looking. It is different from Lent, which is a time of reflection and examination.

We know that we are preparing for Christ's coming, but what should we do to prepare? In today's world, we are busy with many things. However, what we need to be most busy doing is praying. When we pray, we are talking to and listening to God. There is no better way to prepare for Christ's coming in our lives, than through prayer. Then, as we prepare to remember Jesus' First Coming, we will not fear His Second Coming, but will look forward to it.

HAPPY ADVENT!

– Bishop Roy Campbell

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – DID YOU KNOW?

Question: What is the title for the superior of a women's monastic religious community?

Answer: (a) She is called a Prioress (b) She is called an Abbess.
(c) She is called Mother Superior (d) She is called Reverend Mother

ANSWER ON PAGE 5

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

WINE DISTRIBUTION

Question:

Why haven't Catholic Churches gone the way of disposable cups for wine distribution?

Answer:

If a Catholic has ever attended a Protestant worship service and saw the communion service that was offered for that community, one of the things that might have stood out was the use of small, disposable cups for distributing the wine or grape juice. This is in stark contrast to the precious metal chalices used in Catholic churches during the Mass.

Although practices for Protestant Christians can vary (ranging from large shared chalices, to personal-use cups, to dipping the bread in the wine/grape juice), the norms governing Catholic practices are fairly direct: "Sacred vessels are to be made from precious metal. If they are made from metal that rusts or from a metal less precious than gold, then ordinarily they should be gilded on the inside. In the Dioceses of the United States of America, sacred vessels may also be made from other solid materials that, according to the common estimation in each region, are precious ... they are to have bowls of nonabsorbent material" (nos. 328-330). Rather than being a commentary on the beliefs or practices of those other communities, these rules are intended to highlight the reverence that Catholics have for the bread and wine consecrated at Mass, which become the Body and Blood of the Lord.

WHAT IS ADVENT?

Sunday, December 3, 2023 - Sunday, December 24, 2023

Beginning the Church's liturgical year, Advent (from, "ad-venire" in Latin or "to come to") is the season encompassing the four Sundays (and weekdays) leading up to the celebration of Christmas.

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and to the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas. From the earliest days of the Church, people have been fascinated by Jesus' promise to come back. But the scripture readings during Advent tell us not to waste our time with predictions. Advent is not about speculation. Our Advent readings call us to be alert and ready, not weighted down and distracted by the cares of this world (Lk 21:34-36). Like Lent, the liturgical color for Advent is purple since both are seasons that prepare us for great feast days. Advent also includes an element of penance in the sense of preparing, quieting, and disciplining our hearts for the full joy of Christmas.

As we prepare for Christmas, the General Instruction of the Roman Missal notes some differences to the Mass that should be observed during the season. For instance, the priest wears violet or purple during Advent, except for the Third Sunday of Advent (Gaudete Sunday) when rose may be worn (GIRM, no. 346). Aside from what the priest wears, other aesthetic changes in the Church can include a more modestly decorated altar.

The final days of Advent, from December 17 to December 24, we focus on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord at Christmas. In particular, the "O" Antiphons are sung during this period and have been by the Church since at least the eighth century. They are a magnificent theology that uses ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming of Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but of present ones as well.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

"IMMACULATE MARY, YOUR PRAISES WE SING!"

December 8th is one of our feasts celebrating Mary, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. From the beginnings of the Church, spiritual writers and theologians have acknowledged the innocence and holiness of Mary. St. Irenaeus called her the "new Eve." Both faced with the pure freedom to accept or reject God, Mary began with work of redemption with her yes to Christ! The Church began to celebrate the feast of Mary's conception in the early Middle Ages. In 1854, Pope Pius IX infallibly declared that Mary was free of original sin from the first moment of her conception.

ON THIS FEAST DAY, WE CELEBRATE THE BEAUTY AND GOODNESS OF OUR LADY
