From the Bishop's Pen...

"Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son."

"Keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ that the blessed and only ruler will make manifest at the proper time, the King of kings and Lord of lords." St. Paul wrote these words to Timothy, but they also reflect the Blessed Virgin Mary's fiat in response to the Angel Gabriel.

She, who was conceived without the stain of sin, obeyed God's command to become the mother of His Son when "Mary said, 'Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.'" God told king David of the manifestation of His Son at the proper time through the prophet Nathan, "I will raise up your heir after you, sprung from your loins, and I will make his kingdom firm. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. Your house and your kingdom shall endure forever before me; your throne shall stand firm forever."

It is God who comes to us; it is God who has decided to build a temple built of living stones; it is God who has decided to abide within us. God wanted to abide in human flesh. God wanted to abide not only among us but more than that, within us. He went about building a temple of living stones. From Mary's flesh God the Son took on human flesh and then died in it to give us a share in His divine life.

God's Son could take on human flesh because Mary's faith was so strong, that it allowed her the freedom to say YES to God without hesitation. Mary, full of grace, wanted whatever God wanted. She would later say to her cousin Elizabeth, "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my savior."

Isn't that the type of faith and obedience that we should have? Mary's faith and obedience are our examples of belief in God's saving power. Are we preparing this last day of Advent for our Lord's coming to each of us? Will we be able to proclaim to each other, what Mary proclaimed to Elizabeth, "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my savior."?

If we can, then we should constantly pray "Come Lord Jesus."

– Bishop Roy Campbell

4TH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Think of the people you trust. These are people you can count on, no matter what happens. Both Mary and Elizabeth were amazed to learn that they were pregnant. God had surprised each of them with a special miracle, a baby. God trusted them both to take care of their babies. Mary and Elizabeth trusted God to help them. You also can trust God. Pray God, help me to trust you like Mary and Elizabeth did.

PRAYER

God, help me to trust you like Mary and Elizabeth did.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of three people you trust.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Name three reasons you can always trust God.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God's plans are not always what we imagined.
Sometimes they make us hesitate.
Be like Mary. Say "Yes, Lord" — and God will show you that His imagination is better than yours.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - FOR YOUR REFLECTION

We hear how God established his covenantal promise with King David to raise up a son after him and ensure that David's house and kingdom will stand firm forever. What promises have you kept with family or friends?

SECOND READING

Paul concludes his letter to the Romans with a hymn of praise to God. As Advent draws to a close, for what can you praise God?

GOSPEL READING

Today's Gospel reading is the annunciation to Mary of the upcoming birth of Jesus. Mary's unconditional acceptance offers us a model to follow. How open are you to God's work in your life?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – DID YOU KNOW?

Question: What is the name of the popular Christmas song about a boy playing his drum for Jesus?

Answer: (a) Silent Night (b) Away in a Manger
(c) Mary's Boy Child (d) The Little Drummer Boy

ANSWER ON PAGE 5

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

LIGHTING CANDLES IN CHURCH

Question:

Why do Catholics light candles in church?

Answer:

Candles have been part of the Church's worship from the earliest times. In the days before electricity, candles and oil lamps were the ways that people lighted buildings. Even today, we often still depend on candles during power outages, relying on their flickering flames to bring light into the dark.

Like our ancestors, we also light candles on special occasions. Think about a festive family meal or a romantic dinner for two — there will often be candles on the table, special objects for a special event. We light candles on birthday cakes and carry them in processions. We also place candles at makeshift memorials that appear when there has been an accident or act of violence. In these moments, their light casts aside a different kind of darkness — the darkness of grief, fear, and death.

The custom of the early Christians lighting candles and lamps at the tombs of the martyrs gave way to the practice of having candles at Mass, honoring the sacredness of the celebration. As Christians decorated their worship spaces with statues and icons, they would burn candles in front of sacred images and the relics of the saints, basically "shining a light" on what they held to be sacred. When pilgrims would visit these shrines, they would often bring candles to light before the image or relic. These candles came to be a symbol of the person, and their prayer and the burning these candles came to be understood as an extension and continuation of the prayer that was offered. What began as a practical way to provide light has come to be a symbol of the hopes, desires, loves, losses, fears, and faith of everyday Christians offering their prayers to God and his saints.

For Our Young Parishioners

CHRISTMAS EVE

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Mary and Joseph put all their trust in God. Once they found out what God wanted, they did it. God wanted Mary to have a special baby, and she said "yes" to God. God wanted Joseph to be a good husband and father, and Joseph said "yes" to God. When that special baby from God was finally born, Joseph named him Jesus. One day God would ask Jesus to save the world from sin on the cross, and Jesus would say "yes" to God.

PRAYER

God, help me to trust you and say "yes" to you.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of Mary, Joseph, and baby Jesus.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Saying "yes" to God takes practice. When your parents ask you to vacuum or set the table or take the garbage out, say "yes" to them.
