Sunday January 21 , 2024 ~ The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Bishop's Pen...

"Repent and believe in the Gospel."

King Edward VIII was the reigning monarch in England in 1936. Everyone looked to him for leadership. His younger brother, George, was heir to the British throne, but he could become king only if his older brother died, or abdicated the throne (relinquished the throne), without having a child. Edward abdicated, and George became king.

The people now looked to their new king to lead them. What happened in England was a change of leadership and the new King was calling his people to follow him, telling them the same message as the former king: to have assurance in the royal leadership.

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." Jesus had proclaimed the same message as John the Baptist, "repent and believe in the gospel."

However, there was one huge difference between John's message and that of Jesus! John told his followers that One was coming after him, who is greater than him. Jesus tells His followers that the "kingdom of God is at hand." John says to wait for the One who is to come. Jesus says, I am the One who is to come! Jesus gives all who hear Him the assurance that the "kingdom of God is at hand." In that assurance, Jesus calls all who hear Him, to have faith in Him and to follow Him.

Jesus then calls His apostles to leave their ordinary lives as fishermen, to become "fishers of men." He calls them to go from catching fish to feed men's stomachs, to catching men for God, by feeding their souls. They left their nets and followed Jesus.

In our first reading, Jonah calls the people of Nineveh to repent. The people of Nineveh listened to him and repented. Because they repented of their wrongdoing, God spared their city from destruction. Jesus called Saul to repent, after knocking him down and blinding him while he was on the road to Damascus. Saul, now renamed Paul, listened, repented of his ways, answered Jesus' call to conversion and proclaimed the Gospel to the Gentiles.

Each of us is called by Jesus, by name, and each of us must choose to answer His call. Each of us is called, not only to repent, but to go out and proclaim the Gospel to everyone we meet. Today and every day, we should go out proclaiming the Gospel by the way we live our lives, as followers of Christ, called to be Christians, loving God by loving each other.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

There's a colorful envelope addressed to you on the kitchen table. You see it's from your friend. You open it and find a party invitation inside. You parents say you can go! When Jesus invited Peter, Andrew, James and John to come along with him, they were just as excited to go. Jesus was the Savior and a good friend. They couldn't wait!

PRAYER

Jesus, I thank you for inviting me to spend time with you.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus smiling and waving to you.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus wants you to come to his home in heaven. Make a party invitation from Jesus to you. Use this invitation as a bookmark in your Bible.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The disciples were fishing when Christ found them, hard at work to support their families, casting their nets into the sea. Sometimes when God calls us, we are in the middle of something else. Don't be afraid to change your plans to follow Him.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - FOR YOUR REFLECTION

FIRST READING

The people of Nineveh (the capital city of the Assyrian Empire and historic enemy of Israel) repented of their sins when they heard Jonah's warning of God's impending destruction of their city. What motivates you to repent?

SECOND READING

Paul encouraged the believers in Corinth to live with a sense of urgency and in a radically different way than before coming to faith in Jesus. In what way are you living counter-culturally as a person of faith?

GOSPEL READING

This Sunday we hear the first words of Jesus in Mark's account of the call of the first disciples: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." Jesus taught that the time had come for God to come and reclaim His world. What excites you about this message?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – DID YOU KNOW?

Question: Who was the first Catholic president of the United States?

(c) Barack H. Obama (d) George W. Bush

ANSWER ON PAGE 5

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A Good Time for Fulfillment

There are some things that always come at the worst time. I've never gotten a telemarketing call and thought, "This is a really convenient moment for me to listen to a sales pitch." I've never seen the compulsory software update notice flash on my computer screen when I didn't have a deadline I was struggling to meet. My kids never come down with the flu unless it's the weekend and the line at Urgent Care is stretching out the door.

And I never, ever feel the calm, persistent shoulder-tap of the Holy Spirit without thinking, "Now? Now is not a good time. Can you try again when I'm..." But then I stop and think: when I am what? When I am stronger? When I am happier? When I am smarter? When I am a different person?

When God calls us, He calls the person He sees in front of Him. "Come on," He says, and He doesn't mean "When you're finished" or "When it's convenient" or "Think about it." He means now. This moment.

This is what Paul is saying when he writes that "the world in its present form is passing away." He is saying that your plans mean nothing, the kingdom of God is at hand. Abandon your nets, let your catch escape into the sea. You're not who you thought you were, and you don't need what you thought you needed. Your sins do not define you. Your fears are not fate. Your inclinations do not govern you. Your life can be changed. We live in the time of fulfillment, and fulfillment is coming for you — ready or not. "Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: 'This is the time of fulfillment.'" — Mark 1:14
