Sunday March 24, 2024 ~ Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

From the Bishop's Pen...

"The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ."

We all suffer in this life, some much more than others. If someone tells you about the suffering that they are going through, it probably recalls a suffering of your own. Your response to the person could very well be, "I know what that's like." Now, think of the Agony, Suffering, Crucifixion, Death, and Burial of our Lord. Jesus can honestly say to each of us about our sufferings, "I know what that's like." However, Jesus can also say, "Come, all you who pass by the way, look and see whether there is any suffering like my suffering." Can we say that we really know what His suffering was like?

Saint Paul tells the Philippians that "though he was in the form of God, Jesus did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross."

Jesus endured His suffering out of obedience to His Father, because His Father loves Him, and He loves His Father, and because He loves us so much that He was willing to die for us. His suffering ended on the Cross, the "tree of death," which became for us, the "tree of life." His death on the Cross made our eternal life in Him possible. Through His passion, death, and resurrection, Jesus reversed the disobedience of original sin by obeying his Father's will despite the devil's temptations, the betrayal of Judas, the abandonment of His apostles, the false accusations, the condemnation, the humiliation, the scourging, the crowning with thorns, and the torture of crucifixion.

This week, we need to stay united to Jesus Christ, our loving Savior. We need His strength to come into our lives, so that we can have the courage to live as He wants us to live. The ways we can stay united to Christ this week are by prayer, fasting and good works. We should spend more time in prayer this week, and more heartfelt sincerity in our prayer. This week, we must resolve to let Christ lead us, to concentrate on doing His will, not ours. This week, we can imitate Christ's Passion by doing what He did, by sharing our neighbors' sufferings, by taking upon ourselves the crosses of others.

We must see that we are not called to be spectators to Jesus' suffering and Passion; we are called to be active participants in His suffering and Passion. We participate in Christ's victory over suffering, sin, and death, by carrying our sins to Calvary, just as Jesus carried His Cross. Then, He can save and heal us by nailing our sins to the Cross. He calls us to bring our sins to Him, and in exchange we get to carry Him everywhere we go, and into every heart we touch. Jesus wants to bring His salvation and His healing love to the world through us. A donkey carried Jesus into Jerusalem on that first Palm Sunday. Now, it is our turn to carry Him to others, for the rest of our lives.

If you choose to send in your Church envelopes by mail or drop them off at the Church, please do so. Your tax deductible offerings are based on the information on your envelopes. We have also set-up Online Giving through Faith Direct, which is an easy, simple, and secure way to continue supporting the ministry and mission of our parish. We had to make a number of decisions regarding our current Church staff because we are unable to collect our regular offertory. Sunday

10:00 AM - THE ST JOSEPH FAMILY

12:00 PM JAMES JOHNSON †

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Communion Wafer

Question:

Do Catholics always need to receive communion in wafer form, or can it be different kinds of bread?

Answer:

In the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church, the most common form for the eucharistic bread is the small white communion “wafer” that is a ubiquitous part of the Catholic Mass. The instructions of the Church have been very specific regarding the make-up of the bread used in the Mass: “The bread used in the celebration of the Most Holy Eucharistic Sacrifice must be unleavened, purely of wheat, and recently made ... it follows therefore that bread made from another substance, even if it is grain, or if it is mixed with another substance different from wheat to such an extent that it would not commonly be considered wheat bread, does not constitute valid matter for confecting the Sacrifice and the Eucharistic Sacrament” (see Redemptionis Sacramentum by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, no. 48).

The Church’s tradition of using a wheat-based bread is based on the bread that Jesus would have used at the Last Supper and is considered to be an essential part of the “matter” of the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

As we consider the question of whether a “wafer” — which is properly called a “host” — should be used, we also must keep in mind that in the Eastern Rites of the Catholic Church, leavened (i.e. “raised”) bread is more often used. And so, while the thin, white “wafer” is most commonly used in the Roman Rite of the Church, the full expression of the Catholic tradition does allow for a more substantial form of bread to be used, but the tradition of using a simple wheat bread with no other additions or additives is considered essential.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The crowds of Jerusalem beautified the path of Jesus as he came into the city, offering their own cloaks in homage. Let us make way in our hearts for the King as we enter into Holy Week.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - FOR YOUR REFLECTION

FIRST READING

Despite his suffering, we hear how the prophet Isaiah found strength in his faith and fidelity to God.

How does your faith help you through professional or family challenges?

SECOND READING

Paul taught that central to Jesus’s identity was his humility and obedience to God.

How well do you practice these Christian virtues

GOSPEL READING

We hear today Mark’s account of the Passion of our Lord.

How do you prepare yourself to listen to the passion narrative?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – DID YOU KNOW?

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Everyone in Jerusalem heard Jesus teach, and saw him heal the sick. They followed him wherever he went. They cheered whenever they saw him. When he arrived in town on a donkey, they shaded him from the hot sun with palm leaves. Imagine what kind of parade you and your friends would have for Jesus if he came to teach in your class or came to visit your town.

PRAYER

Holy Spirit, help me follow Jesus and love others.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw Jesus on a donkey with people waving palm leaves to keep him cool.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

If a family member or a friend of mine is hurt, I will stop playing to help them.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS
