SUNDAY JANUARY 12, 2025 ~ THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

From the Bishop's Pen...

"When Jesus had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened."

Baptism is "the Christian rite of pouring water over a person's head or immersing them in it, purifying us and admitting us into the Christian Church." This is a definition of our baptism into the Body of Christ, the Church. But why would Jesus Christ undergo baptism? At His Baptism, Jesus made the waters of baptism holy, so that for us, the waters of baptism can make us holy. As flowing water cleanses our bodies, the flowing water of baptism cleanses our souls. Something else also happened when Jesus was baptized.

The Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Spirit, revealed Itself to mankind at Jesus' baptism, "After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.'" Christ, already full of the Spirit, "received the Spirit" in so far as He was man and in so far as man could receive the Spirit.

In the Holy Spirit, Jesus raised the baptism of John the Baptist from one of only repentance, to the first Sacrament of life in Christ – the Church. He raised baptism to entry into life in the divine nature of God. In baptism, God our Father sees us in His Christ. Evil corrupts that vision. Sin disfigures how God wants to see us and it disfigures how we see ourselves. It is through God's goodness that we are baptized into Christ.

With that vision of God our Father seeing us in His Christ, we can face tomorrow, and the days after tomorrow, with hope, with courage, and with the love within us that can bring life and hope to others, especially those imprisoned in ways of seeing themselves apart from God and His love for us. Baptism frees us and empowers us. Baptism fills us with the power of God's love. We should always be conscious of God's love within us and ask Him to renew within us the power and glory that He gave us at our baptisms.

– Bishop Roy Campbell

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“The people were filled with expectation,” writes Luke. And so we find ourselves, two thousand years later, filled with expectation, with longing. Who can give us what we seek? Only the one upon whom the dove descended. Follow him.

Questions of the Week - for Your Reflection

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah brought words of comfort and hope from God to the Israelites exiled in Babylon. Is there someone in your life who needs hope for the future?

Second Reading:

Paul challenged Titus to reject godless ways and worldly desires. Do you have any family or friends you consider a role model in living an exceptional life?

Gospel:

The Holy Spirit affirms Jesus as the Christ, the beloved Son of God. When do you sense the presence of the Holy Spirit in your life?

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Baptismal Bib

Question:

At my grandson's Baptism, the priest put a bib on the baby. I do not remember seeing this before. Why is this done? Is it something new?

Answer:

When an adult is baptized, there is a part in the ceremony when the newly baptized is vested in a white garment. It is symbolic of the changes that baptism brings in the life of the baptized as they are freed from the bonds of sin and brought into the saving grace of Christ. Realities that are so profound are symbolically presented so that we might better grasp and understand them.

Infants are often dressed in a baptismal dress, which is the baptismal garment. In some places, the bib is used as a kind of baptismal garment. At the place in the ceremony where the investiture takes place, the bib is used. Some are poncho-like and fit over the baby's head. Others are simply placed on the baby's chest. If the baby is dressed in a white garment, nothing else is needed. The prayer says it all: “See in your white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity ... bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven.” In baptism, we are given our purpose and goal in life as believers and this is symbolized by the white garment.
