SUNDAY FEBRUARY 2, 2025 ~ THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

From the Bishop's Pen...

"So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

"So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love." Love allows us to have faith – to believe in what we have not seen. Love allows us to have hope – to look forward to receiving what we believe in faith. But what is love? St. Paul tells us some attributes of love. Love is patient, kind, believes all things, and hopes all things. Love never fails. He also tells us some things that love is not. It is not jealous, rude, quick-tempered, or holds a grudge.

"The gifts of love," are often used at weddings. The wedding couple uses this reading to express how they intend to show their love for each other. There is another gift of love, the gift of giving; we can give our love to others. The gift of Love allows us to do things that may sometimes seem extraordinary, even miraculous.

*So, what is this love that gives us faith, which gives us hope, which also allows us to do extraordinary and miraculous things? What is this love that allows a man and wife to love each other so much that they love their children even before they are born? What is this love that allows them to raise their children in a loving family, while at the same time giving their love to care for other family and neighbors? THIS LOVE IS GOD!

Jesus told the people in His hometown of Nazareth that God's love is so great that He is bringing salvation not just to the Jews, but also to the Gentiles. He was telling them that God's love is for everyone, and Jesus' salvation is for everyone. The Jews could not accept that. They thought that God's love and salvation were only for them. If God loved everyone, then they would have to love everyone too. Jesus was telling them that God wants everyone to be His chosen people.

*When we come to receive the Eucharist, think about how much God loves us, His chosen people. Like parents who could not bear to leave their children alone to "fend for themselves," God cannot bear to leave us alone. God has given Himself to live in us in the Eucharist, so that we can live in Him and be with Him for eternity. This is true love. THIS IS THE LOVE OF GOD!

Blessing of the Throat

Mini Explanation: Catholics traditionally receive a blessing of the throat on the feast day of St. Blaise (Feb. 3), who was a bishop and martyr of fourth-century Armenia. During the blessing, a cross is formed from two blessed candles that are held over the throat.

St. Blaise Blessing of the Throat, Explained Perhaps it's an example of divine providence that the feast of St. Blaise falls on Feb. 3 — right in the middle of cold and flu season! This fourth-century Armenian saint was a bishop and martyr and is venerated as the patron of those who suffer from illnesses of the throat.

On his feast day, Catholics traditionally receive a blessing of the throat. This blessing is administered by a priest, deacon or a lay minister who follows the rites and prayers designated for a layperson. During the blessing, the minister takes two candles that were blessed on the feast of the Presentation and makes a cross in front of the throat, saying "Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness." A priest or deacon will then make the sign of the cross.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

LITTLE KNOWN BLACK HISTORY FACTS

Gardner L. Bishop was a barber and civil rights activist in Washington, D.C. His work for equal schools for black and white children in the 1940s and 1950s included organizing the student strike at Browne Junior High School and contributing to the historic Bolling v. Sharpe case that made school segregation unconstitutional in the District. Bishop, originally from North Carolina, was known for his outspokenness and his drive to end elitism in the black community.

He was born on January 20, 1909, in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. He learned how to express his opinions early on, winning prizes as a high school debater in his home state. Although he attended a year of college at Shaw University in Raleigh, North Carolina, he did not graduate. In 1930 he moved to Washington, D.C. He lived east of the Anacostia River and, like his father, began working as a barber. After challenging the comments of racist customers on multiple occasions, he was fired. Not cowed, he opened B&D Barber Shop at 1515 U Street NW in 1940, which he owned and operated through his retirement in 1985. His black clientele could get both "a haircut and an earful" from the "barber of U Street." He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was married for 58 years to Ethel Crutchfield Bishop, who died in 1989. They had three children: Dr. Judine Bishop Johnson, Anita Harley, and Gardner L. Bishop Jr. He died of kidney failure on November 25, 1992, at age 82.

THIS FACT SHARED BY STEPHEN JOY.
PLEASE CONTACT THE PARISH OFFICE IF YOU HAVE A LITTLE KNOWN BLACK HISTORY FACT TO SHARE.

FAITHFUL FUNNIES

"If Moses were alive today, why would he be considered a remarkable man?"

"Because he would be several thousand years old!"

Moses was chosen by God to free the Israelites from slavery by the Egyptians, and bring them to the promised land. It was also through Moses that we received the Ten Commandments.
