SUNDAY MARCH 23, 2025 ~ THE THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

From the Bishop's Pen...

"The water that I shall give you will become a spring of eternal life."

We have a number of Catechumen, now the Elect, entering the Church and Candidates receiving full communion in the Church at the Easter Vigil, so my reflections are from the Third Sunday in Lent, Cycle A.

In the first reading from Exodus, the Israelites thirsted for water to drink. However, their thirst showed their lack of trust in God. He had led them out of the captivity of slavery in Egypt and parted the Red Sea for them. Yet, their thirst led them to "put God to the test", that is what the word Massah means in Hebrew. Meribah is Hebrew for "quarreling", which is what the Israelites did with God, because they constantly wanted assurance that He was with them and would take care of them.

The Israelites tested God because they were wallowing in self-pity. They were hurting and angry with God. They did not have true "faith and trust" in God. The Israelites had "faith and trust" in God only when He worked a wonder for them. However, when that wonder faded from memory, so did their "faith and trust" in God. The Israelites' "insatiable thirst" for another sign from God, was the result of feeling sorry for themselves, and living in their own self-pity.

In the Gospel, the Samaritan woman came alone at midday to Jacob's well to draw water, because she was rejected by the other women, probably because of her lifestyle. She too was living in self-pity. Jesus saw in her, a woman who had an "insatiable thirst." He saw a woman who thirsted for love, who had five husbands and currently had another lover. Jesus offered this woman "living water," and the Samaritan woman went from self-pity and rejection and thirst to "faith and trust" and "filled up" in Jesus, in His grace and in His gift of the Holy Spirit.

The Samaritan woman's thirst for "living water" led her to the source of "living water," Jesus Christ. It is the same "insatiable thirst" that has led our Elect, Candidates, and children to seek full reception, full initiation into the Church, the Body of Christ. These Elect and Candidates are seeking the waters of eternal life through Baptism, Confirmation and especially the Eucharist.

So, how does our "insatiable thirst" lead the rest of us to trust and believe in Jesus' gift of "living water" and eternal life through the Holy Spirit during this Lenten Season? It leads us to make our "daily trip to the well." We need to come to the same well from which the Samaritan woman left as a disciple of Jesus. We need to come to the well of prayer. When we pray, we draw from the well of Jesus' grace, wisdom, and love, refreshing and nourishing our souls, strengthening us for the fasting necessary for discipleship, so that we can give others our witness to the "living waters of eternal life" through His Gospel of Salvation.

To The St Joseph Catholic Church Community

Our desire is that every member of our parish family encounters Jesus Christ in a very personal and life-changing way as they journey through life within our community. That now includes you and we welcome you to this very personal, communal journey of faith as part of our parish family. As you begin the next part of your faith journey with us, we encourage you to check in at the Welcome Table and complete the parish registration form. You may also get the form from a Hospitality minister. Stay connected with the St Joseph Community through our Website and Facebook God has given you gifts to share in helping the Church build the kingdom and accomplish her mission. Seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help you discern where you are meant to serve. Please check out our Ministries and Organizations at the Welcome Table or our Website. Pray, discern, then take that leap of faith and get engaged in the life of the parish.

LET US KNOW YOU ARE HERE

If you choose to send in your Church envelopes by mail or drop them off at the Church, please do so. Your tax deductible offerings are based on the information on your envelopes. We have also set-up Online Giving through Faith Direct, which is an easy, simple, and secure way to continue supporting the ministry and mission of our parish. We had to make a number of decisions regarding our current Church staff because we are unable to collect our regular offertory. Please go to the link: <https://www.stjoseph-largo.org/online-giving> to sign-up for Faith Direct, make a contribution, and to view a video about enrollment and have your questions answered about online giving.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus Christ is the ever-vigilant gardener. He desires us to bloom, that we will do what we were created to do, that we will bear the fruit that God intended. Will we let him cultivate our ground and prune our imperfections? Will we let him save us?

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Mortal versus Venial Sin

Question:

What is the difference between mortal and venial sin?

Answer:

Sin is a deliberate thought, word, action, or omission contrary to God's law. Since the beginnings of the Church, sin has been distinguished by its gravity. "Grave matter" is traditionally defined by the Ten Commandments. If a person commits a grave sin with full knowledge of the action's evil and with the complete consent of their will, this is a mortal sin. The effects of mortal sin are grave – the loss of sanctifying grace, which can be restored by a fresh outpouring of God's mercy in the sacrament of Reconciliation.

Venial sin does not fit one or more of these conditions (for example, a less serious matter still freely chosen or grave matter committed while under force or ignorance of God's law). The effects of venial sin – while still damaging to the human heart and human society – are less severe. Even so, smaller sins build habits, which can obstruct our growth in virtue. When we are serious about following Jesus, we should do our best to avoid all sin, whether large or small!

Questions of the Week - for Your Reflection

Gospel Question:

Jesus taught one must repent to bear good fruit in life.
Can you think of some good fruit you have borne from repenting?

1st Reading Question:

God reveals to Moses that He has heard the cry of His people, and He is coming to rescue them from slavery in Egypt.
What prayer do you need answered from God?

2nd Reading Question:

Paul believed the mistakes of the Israelites in the desert serve as an example and a warning of what to avoid in our journey with God.
How might you show gratitude to God this upcoming week of Lent?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – DID YOU KNOW...

Question: What is the name of the commemorative, prayerful "walk" that Catholics take part in to retrace Christ's journey to Calvary.

Answer: (a) Mary's Way of the Cross (b) hmm.. Not sure?

Jubilee Year of Hope

SOLEMNITY OF THE ANNUNCIATION

This year, the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord falls on Tuesday, March 25, 2025.

The Solemnity of the Annunciation celebrates the coming of the Angel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary to announce to her the special mission God had chosen for her in being the mother of His only son.

Two prayers that highlight the importance of this solemnity are the joyous mysteries of the Rosary and the Angelus.

"As early as the middle of the 6th century in the East, and the 7th century in Rome, there is evidence of this Feast celebrated on 25 March. Since this feast is connected with the Lord Jesus and to His entry into history, the revised liturgical calendar gave this feast the title of the "Annunciation of the Lord", over the more popular Annunciation of Mary. The Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord is a Christmas feast even though it is not celebrated during the Christmas Season. Nine months before we celebrate the Lord's birth, we celebrate His incarnation in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary." ~Vatican News

Lenten Reflections For Our Young Parishioners

SHARING THE GOSPEL

An angel told Mary, "You will have a baby. You will give birth to the Son of God through the Holy Spirit." Mary agreed to have the baby. She named him, Jesus. He grew up and taught us how to love God and our neighbor. Jesus lived, died and rose from the dead to lead us to heaven. Because Mary said, "Yes, Lord," God sent his Son.

Prayer

Lord, teach me to say, "Yes, I will do as you ask."

Something to Draw

Draw the angel asking Mary to be the Mother of the Son of God.

Mission for the Week

I will take diapers, blankets, canned milk, and baby clothes to the homeless shelter.
