SUNDAY APRIL 6, 2025 ~ THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

From the Bishop's Pen...

"I am the resurrection and the life."

We have a number of Catechumen, now the Elect, entering the Church and a number of Candidates receiving full communion in the Church at the Easter Vigil, so my reflections are from the Fifth Sunday in Lent, Cycle A.

Jesus remained for two more days in the place where He was after learning that his friend, Lazarus, was dying. Jesus waited so that there would be no mistake that raising Lazarus from the dead would be a miracle that only He could do. Jewish people believed that the deceased soul remained near its body until it could no longer recognize its body due to decay, about four days, then the soul left the area of its body.

When Jesus arrived in Bethany, Martha told Him that her brother died and had been in the dark tomb for four days and there would surely be a stench. Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" Martha said, "Yes."

We place our sins inside our own dark tombs, where we hope that nobody will see them and where they will not be discovered. There, they will only cause us more decay and emit a stench of hopelessness and depression. We may think that our sins are so dark and ugly that even Jesus would not want to approach their stench. We may even think that they are hidden from Him.

The story of Lazarus teaches us that nothing can be hidden from God, not even our sins, no matter how grave the sins are that we have buried in our own dark tombs. Jesus desires to approach our sins and to bring life where there is death. Jesus is not afraid of the stench of our sins. We must have faith that the light of Christ always overcomes the darkness in our lives, that His resurrection conquered death, that His love and forgiveness always overshadow the power of sin. Like Martha, we too should believe in Jesus.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation, the Sacrament of God's forgiveness, gives us a fresh start, a new beginning, and a new lease on life. If we have any sins entombed in us, we must roll away the stone from the tomb of our hearts during these last weeks of Lent. We must ask Jesus to approach our sins, no matter their stench, and overwhelm them with the sweet fragrance of His forgiveness. We must believe in Jesus, for only in Him can we experience the Resurrection and the Life.

– Bishop Roy Campbell

To The St Joseph Catholic Church Community

Our desire is that every member of our parish family encounters Jesus Christ in a very personal and life-changing way as they journey through life within our community. That now includes you and we welcome you to this very personal, communal journey of faith as part of our parish family. As you begin the next part of your faith journey with us, we encourage you to check in at the Welcome Table and complete the parish registration form. You may also get the form from a Hospitality minister. Stay connected with the St Joseph Community through our Website and Facebook God has given you gifts to share in helping the Church build the kingdom and accomplish her mission. Seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help you discern where you are meant to serve. Please check out our Ministries and Organizations at the Welcome Table or our Website. Pray, discern, then take that leap of faith and get engaged in the life of the parish.

LET US KNOW YOU ARE HERE
SO WE CAN PROPERLY WELCOME YOU!

PARISH TITHING AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Please use your offertory envelopes, and fill them out completely. Enclose your check or cash in your offertory envelope and write the amount on the envelope. As a reminder money/checks do not stay together with the envelopes so if there is no information or amount on the envelope you may not receive proper acknowledgment for your offering. If you choose to send in your Church envelopes by mail or drop them off at the Church, please do so. Your tax deductible offerings are based on the information on your envelopes. We have also set-up Online Giving through Faith Direct, which is an easy, simple, and secure way to continue supporting the ministry and mission of our parish. We had to make a number of decisions regarding our current Church staff because we are unable to collect our regular offertory. Please go to the link: <https://www.stjoseph-largo.org/online-giving> to sign-up for Faith Direct, make a contribution, and to view a video about enrollment and have your questions answered about online giving.

“Go, and sin no more,” Jesus tells the woman caught in adultery. Her life, like ours, has been saved. She, like us, has a chance for a new beginning. So he begs her, and he begs us: be changed by it. Let the mercy transform you. Go, and sin no more.

Questions of the Week - for Your Reflection

1st Reading Question:

The prophet Isaiah teaches us that the Lord forgets our sins and offers us a new beginning so that we might praise him. What could you do today to honor and praise the Lord?

2nd Reading Question:

Paul tells the believers in Phillipi of his deep desire and hope to know Jesus and the power of his resurrection. In what ways have you drawn closer to Jesus during this season of Lent?

Gospel Question:

Jesus showed mercy toward the sinful woman when others were quick to judge her. Is there someone in your life who you could show mercy over judgment this week?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA...

Chaplet of Divine Mercy

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is an intercessory prayer invoking God’s mercy on the world, utilizing words drawn from the text of The Diary of St. Faustina Maria Kowalska. St. Faustina was a Polish nun who received visions of Christ imploring her to spread the message of his Divine Mercy, specifically through the recitation of this chaplet.

Prayed with an ordinary five-decade Rosary, the chaplet opens with a recitation of the Our Father, the Hail Mary and the Apostle’s Creed. The beads usually used for the Our Father are used to recite this prayer:

“Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world,” followed by ten Hail Marys and the words “Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.”

TAKE A MINUTE ...

The Allure of Being Right

Mini Reflection: Too often, we don’t care about righteousness or truth. We just care about being right. We have a terrible tendency to see only our decisions, and in doing so we dehumanize the people behind them. But when God looks at us, he sees more than the worst decisions we’ve ever made.

Lenten Reflections For Our Young Parishioners

SHARING THE GOSPEL

When we do something wrong, God does not want to punish us. God just wants us to stop, learn from our mistake, and make better choices next time. Try to remember that the next time you catch a friend sinning. Instead of tattling, talk to your friend, and gently help your friend do what is right.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to be kind to my friends when they make mistakes. Help me remember that sometimes I make bad choices, too.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of Jesus right next to you, helping you after you have done something wrong.

Mission for the Week

Name one thing you have done wrong. Jesus can forgive you for your mistakes. Try to forgive other people, too.
