SUNDAY JUNE 22, 2025 ~ THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

From the Bishop's Pen...

"They all ate and were satisfied."

On this Solemnity of "Corpus Christi," the "Body and Blood of Christ," we celebrate the Eucharist. This is the mystery of Transubstantiation, that the priest, through the power of the Holy Spirit, can change the true substance of bread into the living Body of Christ and the true substance of wine into the living Blood of Christ. They still have the appearance, taste and properties of bread and wine; however, what they have really become has changed!

We know that in today's Gospel, Jesus foreshadowed the institution of the Eucharist in feeding the 5,000 with the loaves of bread. But what did the fish signify? Remember, that after His resurrection, the Apostles went fishing all night and, in the darkness, caught nothing. In the dawn light, Jesus, who was on the shore, said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So, they cast it and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. The fish signified all of mankind. The Apostles were to become Fishers of Men, to catch all men and bring them to Christ.

Jesus miraculously multiplied the loaves and fish. How Jesus chose to give the bread and fish to the 5,000 is very important. Jesus gave His Apostles the fish and loaves to give to the 5,000. He was telling them that they were called to feed all His people. He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves."

The Apostles were called to be the "instruments of salvation to the ends of the earth," bringing Christ to all men and women. "They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." The twelve baskets of fragments collected after all had eaten their fill, shows us that there will always be the Eucharist and that Eucharist will always be enough to satisfy our spiritual hunger. Our eternal food, Jesus' Body and Blood, will never run out!

Today, we are being fed by the successors of Jesus' Apostles, whom He called to be His ordained bishops, assisted by His ordained priests. He gives each of us Himself in the Eucharist, so that we are united in Him, and are therefore united with each other. In celebrating the Feast of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ, we celebrate our unity with God through Jesus, and we celebrate our unity with each other, in and through God's truth and love, His Son, Jesus Christ. I pray that when God looks into each of our hearts, He sees true love. Love of God and love of each other, the same love that we receive in the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ.

To The St Joseph Catholic Church Community

Our desire is that every member of our parish family encounters Jesus Christ in a very personal and life-changing way as they journey through life within our community. That now includes you and we welcome you to this very personal, communal journey of faith as part of our parish family. As you begin the next part of your faith journey with us, we encourage you to check in at the Welcome Table and complete the parish registration form. You may also get the form from a Hospitality minister. Stay connected with the St Joseph Community through our Website and Facebook God has given you gifts to share in helping the Church build the kingdom and accomplish her mission. Seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help you discern where you are meant to serve. Please check out our Ministries and Organizations at the Welcome Table or our Website. Pray, discern, then take that leap of faith and get engaged in the life of the parish.

LET US KNOW YOU ARE HERE
SO WE CAN PROPERLY WELCOME YOU!

PARISH TITHING AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Please use your offertory envelopes, and fill them out completely. Enclose your check or cash in your offertory envelope and write the amount on the envelope. As a reminder money/checks do not stay together with the envelopes so if there is no information or amount on the envelope you may not receive proper acknowledgment for your offering. If you choose to send in your Church envelopes by mail or drop them off at the Church, please do so. Your tax deductible offerings are based on the information on your envelopes. We have also set-up Online Giving through Faith Direct, which is an easy, simple, and secure way to continue supporting the ministry and mission of our parish. We had to make a number of decisions regarding our current Church staff because we are unable to collect our regular offertory. Please go to the link: <https://www.stjoseph-largo.org/online-giving> to sign-up for Faith Direct, make a contribution, and to view a video about enrollment and have your questions answered about online giving.

MASS SPECIAL INTENTIONS

Mass Intentions are made in the Parish Office during regular business hours or may be given to Hospitality Minister after the Sunday Masses. You will be contacted if the date requested is not available. Bookings for one name for several days in succession will not be accepted. An offering is $10.00 CASH per date / per envelope. Mass intentions are acknowledged at the Sunday and daily Masses.

Mass intentions must be received in the office by Monday 9:00 am to be included in the bulletin for the next week.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANNOUNCEMENTS for the NEXT bulletin are due in the Church Office NLT 12:00 noon on Monday. The bulletin is sent to the printer on Tuesday morning.

Late submissions will go into the next bulletin.

COMMUNION CALLS / HOME VISITS

The Eucharistic Ministry is available for communion calls and home visits. If you or someone you know is homebound but would like to receive communion on a regular basis, contact the parish office on 301-773-4838 to schedule a visit. The office is open Monday through Friday 10:00 am - 6:00 pm

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Five loaves and two fish: a measly portion of food for such a large crowd of people. But we must remember that it doesn't matter what the size of our offering is. If we only lay it before Christ, he will take it and make it a mighty bounty.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Sign Before the Gospel

Question:

I have been going to Mass for years and have always wondered: why do we make the three signs of the cross before the Gospel?

Answer:

Certainly, many people go to Mass or other devotions, doing and saying things out of habit or reverence and not really understanding the reasons behind some of these things. But everything we do has a meaning or purpose that helps us to worship better, proclaim our beliefs, or focus the attention of the people on something that has a greater importance or significance. A review of the meaning of various gestures and practices can help us have a deeper appreciation for what we do.

There is a little prayer that goes with the three crosses before the Gospel: "May the words of the Holy Gospel be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart." In standing to hear the Gospel, we acknowledge that Jesus is present, and the words of the Gospel are addressed to us. All of the gestures and special postures we adopt before the Gospel are intended to help us prepare for hearing the Word as well as act on it. The incense, the Alleluia, the deacon or priest, and the special dialogue and announcement that introduces the Gospel help us focus our attention on the Good News we are about to hear. The three signs of the cross show our desire and good intention to hear and live the Gospel.

Questions of the Week - for Your Reflection

1st Reading Question:

In reaction to the thanksgiving meal of bread and wine, Abram generously gave Melchizedek a tenth of his possessions. What could you give back to God this week out of gratitude?

2nd Reading Question:

Paul tells us from the very beginning the early Church celebrated the Eucharistic meal as a remembrance of Jesus' death and as central to our faith. How does the Eucharist strengthen your faith?

Gospel Question:

The miracle of the feeding of the 5,000 underscores Jesus' desire to feed us. What do you find yourself hungry for today?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA...

Question: What does the celebrant say at the conclusion of each Mass?

Answer: (a) "The Mass is ended, go in peace." (b) "The Mass is ended, have a blessed day."
