SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 21, 2025 ~ THE TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the Bishop's Pen...

"We cannot serve both God and mammon."

There is an important part in "The Lord's Prayer," in which we petition almighty God to "lead us not into temptation." Here, we ask our God to give us the strength to resist the temptations of the devil to do wrong, to commit sin.

Jesus gives us an example of the meaning of this part of "The Lord's Prayer" in His parable of the steward in today's Gospel. A good steward must be trustworthy. This steward was a thief, misusing his master's property for his own benefit.

When his master calls for this steward to give an accounting of his stewardship, he knew that he was in trouble. He believed that his master would relieve him of his duties, leaving him without a job and a way to support himself.

This steward had no desire to regain his master's trust, instead, he turns to the very debtors of his master with whom he has cheated his master and makes his situation worst by reducing their debt to his master, without his master's authority or approval. The steward was trying to look out for himself by looking out for those in debt to his master. He, was in effect saying, "I'll scratch your back, if you will scratch mine."

This steward's master found out about his underhanded dealings. He complemented the steward for his cleverness, for dealing with others to benefit himself. The steward failed to recognize that his opportunity to plead for forgiveness from his master, and to change the way he lived his life, was wasted by his committing an even greater wrong against his master. This steward still sought to serve his own material wealth, rather than serve the master who had taken care of him.

"No servant can serve two masters." This servant could not be trusted by his master. We, too, cannot serve two masters. Either we love and serve God, who gives us all that we have; or we try to accumulate fleeting material wealth (mammon). We cannot do both. The choice we make will have an eternal consequence for our immortal souls.

– Bishop Roy Campbell

Our desire is that every member of our parish family encounters Jesus Christ in a very personal and life-changing way as they journey through life within our community. That now includes you and we welcome you to this very personal, communal journey of faith as part of our parish family. As you begin the next part of your faith journey with us, we encourage you to check in at the Welcome Table and complete the parish registration form. You may also get the form from a Hospitality minister. Stay connected with the St Joseph Community through our Website and Facebook God has given you gifts to share in helping the Church build the kingdom and accomplish her mission. Seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help you discern where you are meant to serve. Please check out our Ministries and Organizations at the Welcome Table or our Website. INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

No servant can serve two masters, and in his goodness, God gives us the ability to choose. Will we serve mammon, the riches of this world? Or will we seek true wealth, the kind that cannot be hoarded or wasted, but only given freely away?

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Fish on Friday

Question:

Why do Catholics eat fish on Friday?

Answer:

For centuries, meatless Fridays were the norm for Catholics throughout the world. Friday was chosen because that was the day on which Jesus died, and Christians wanted to find a way to honor that day with special prayers and acts of penance and self-denial. The practice of abstaining from meat on Fridays — under pain of sin — grew out of that desire, and it became an official part of Church teaching until the time of the Second Vatican Council.

In the 1960s, there was a shift in the Church's thinking, in large part because there was a recognition that differences in cultures and economic realities meant that eating or not eating meat had different meanings for different peoples. For example, in cultures that were largely dependent on seafood or a vegetarian diet, abstaining from meat was no sacrifice at all. While in other places, eating fish and other kinds of seafood was actually something rare and special and not a sacrifice. This was all part of a basic reflection on "why we do what we do" among the Church's pastors.

CATHOLIC TRIVIA...

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Today, Catholics throughout the world are still instructed to abstain from meat on the Fridays of Lent. The bishops of some countries, such as in England and Wales, ask Catholics to abstain from meat every Friday, continuing the older tradition. The Bishops of the United States have taken a slightly different approach, encouraging Catholics to honor Friday as a special day by abstaining from meat every Friday or by taking on some other work of penance or charity for the sake of others.

Regardless of what we choose to do, the real value in all of this is to see a reflection of Good Friday in each Friday, to remember the self-giving love of Jesus, and to honor that love through some sort of sacrifice or act of mercy.

For Our Young Parishioners

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus wants you to be honest. When you tell lies, your friends will not be able to trust you. Tell the truth. If you find a wallet, bring it to the police station. If you see someone drop some money, pick it up and give it back to them. If someone left a jacket or toy on the playground, don't take it. Turn it in to "lost and found." When you are honest with small things, people will see that you can be trusted with bigger things, too.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be honest.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself giving money back to someone who dropped it.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Ask your parents to tell you ways that they choose to be honest with their work, their money, and with God.
