SUNDAY DECEMBER 21, 2025 ~ FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

From the Bishop's Pen...

"Jesus will be born of Mary, the betrothed of Joseph, a son of David."

Let's think back some 2,000 years ago, about marriage and fidelity. Joseph was going to seek a divorce from his betrothed, Mary. In their time, to be betrothed was to be married; however, a wife had not yet come to live in her husband's house. Joseph found Mary to "be with child" and the child was not his. However, unlike the couples on the once popular TV show, Divorce Court, Joseph wanted to end his marriage quietly, not in the "public's eye."

Joseph may have thought that Mary had been "seduced" by another man. In any case the Jewish law was clear, in the "public's eye," a woman guilty of infidelity must be "stoned to death." Joseph did not want Mary harmed. He wanted to divorce her on his own, which a man could do, since he tried to live by Jewish law. However, God Himself intervened, sending His angel in a dream, to tell Joseph to take Mary into his house. It was necessary for Joseph to take Mary into his home to fulfill Isaiah's prophesy, "... a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom."

Jesse was King David's father and God promised David that his kingdom would last forever. "And when your time comes and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your heir after you, sprung from your loins, and I will make his kingdom firm." Joseph was a descendant of David and by taking Mary into his home and raising Jesus as his own son made Jesus a descendant of David. What God promised David in the Old Testament, was fulfilled in Jesus in the home of Joseph.

Joseph had free will and decided to say YES to God. There is no doctrine about his immaculate conception or sinlessness. Yet, he responded with generosity. He responded with faith. He responded out of love. He listened to this message from God in a dream. He rose above his fear. He rose above his confusion. He did not know how the story was going to end other than to know that this child was going to save his people from their sins. The words, "HE DID AS THE ANGEL OF THE LORD COMMANDED," should be inspirational to all of us. They are simple words, yet behind them stand a man who should inspire us to respond generously to every prompting of the Holy Spirit in us, to do as the Lord commands.

Isn't it marvelous that God sent His Son as Savior to us, not simply to live among us but to become one of us in our very nature? That astounding miracle happens every time we celebrate Mass, and we receive Jesus in our own humanity, when we receive the Eucharist. God becomes one with our body and blood, joined with His Body and Blood. Because of the Incarnation, God becomes one with us. Every Mass is another Christmas.

In every Mass, Jesus gives Himself to us out of love. Out of love, Joseph was called to give himself to Jesus and Mary, the mother of God. Out of love, we are called to give ourselves to Jesus and to each other. This is the true spirit of Christmas! The spirit of giving of ourselves, out of love! It is a spirit we should live every day of our lives!

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Sometimes we want God's instructions to be clear and precise — like the angel in Joseph's dream. But Joseph's understanding was only as strong as his devotion to God's will. If we give our lives to God as Joseph did, we will know what he asks of us.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Tithing vs. Stewardship

Question:

What is the difference between tithing and stewardship?

Answer:

Both tithing and stewardship are part of a spiritual way of life that calls us to use all of our resources for the service of the Gospel. Everything we are and everything we have comes from God. Offering back to God what He has given us is part of how we worship and give thanks to God.

Tithing is the practice of giving back 10 percent of what we earn. It comes from the Old English word for "ten." The first Scriptural example of tithing came from Abraham who gave a tenth of his possessions to the priest Melchizedek. He did so as an act of thanksgiving to God.

Stewardship as a way of life calls us to use well all that we have and all that we are, placing all things in service of others and God. Stewardship helps us see the good we can accomplish by making God and our spiritual life the most important values in our life. Whatever we accumulate in this life stays here. We can't take it with us! Both tithing and stewardship help us remember that nothing is mine or even ours ... all belongs to God.

Questions of the Week - for Your Reflection

1st Reading Question:

Seven hundred years before the birth of Jesus, Isaiah prophesies to King Ahaz that a virgin would bear a son and name him, Emmanuel ("God is with us").

When have you felt close to God this Advent season?

2nd Reading Question:

Paul instructs the Roman Christians that they are "called to be holy."

What do you see as some of the steps toward growing in holiness?

Gospel Question:

We hear how Joseph struggled initially with the news of Mary's pregnancy.

How do you discern making difficult decisions?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA...

Question:

Which saint's nickname is "Santa Claus"?

Answer:

Part 1 - This is an easy one...

Part 2 - What is this saint's feast day?

For Our Young Parishioners

SHARING THE GOSPEL

An angel told Joseph to marry Mary because her baby was through the Holy Spirit of God. They would name the baby Jesus because he would save his people from their sins. God called you by name, too. Before you were born, he could tell you how many hairs would be on your head. He knew how long your feet would be. He knew all the good things you would do for his people.

PRAYER

I am proud that I am your child, Father God.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw an angel telling Joseph not to be afraid and to marry Mary.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will thank my parents for having me and taking good care of me.

JUST A THOUGHT...

*Advent is drawing quickly to a close,
and Christmas is coming soon. The change is upon us.
Do we rise to accept it, or do we fall on our faces in fear?*

MERRY CHRISTMAS

CHRISTMAS BLESSING

*On this blessed Christmas day,
may the joy and goodness of the sweet baby Jesus fill our home and our hearts.
Jesus, bless every member of our family, near and far.
May peace prevail, goodness reign,
and love triumph.
Amen.*

A LITTLE HOLY HUMOR ...

"What do bear families sing during Christmas?"

"Have yourself a Beary Little Christmas."

All of creation joins in praise for the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. May the joy of the season fill your home!
