SUNDAY JANUARY 11, 2026 ~ THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

From the Bishop's Pen...

"After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God coming upon him."

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Baptism is "the Christian rite of pouring water over a person or immersing them in it, purifying them for admission into the Christian Church." When we are baptized in the Catholic Church or any Christian Church that follows our baptismal rite, water is used, whether it is poured over our heads or we are immersed in it.

Baptism is the first of the Sacraments of the Church. A Sacrament is not just a symbol or symbolic act, but it is an "efficacious sign." This means that the sign we see does what it symbolizes. In baptism, the water symbolizes both death and life. In baptism, that is exactly what happens, we die to sin and through the Holy Spirit, we are born into new life with Christ and adoption as sons and daughters of our heavenly Father. In baptism, the Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, comes to each of us.

At His Baptism, Jesus made the waters of baptism holy, so that for us, the waters of baptism can make us holy. As flowing water cleanses our bodies, the flowing water of baptism cleanses our souls. At Jesus' Baptism, the Holy Trinity revealed Itself when "he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

The baptism of Jesus is one of the great revelations from God, teaching us about ourselves. In His baptism, Jesus identified Himself with all that it means to be human. On the surface He identified Himself with our human frailties and our need to repent of our sins and change our ways. On another level Jesus points to a reality beyond our sinfulness. We are given a revelation of what we can be at our best. The good news is that God loves us; and we have been redeemed from our sins. We have an identity in God's heart. In Jesus' humanity, God sees our humanity and He loves us. He wants to bring out the best within us.

Baptism frees us, it empowers us. Baptism fills us with the power of God's love. We should always be conscious of God's love within us, as we renew within ourselves the power and glory that God gave us in our own baptism.

– Bishop Roy Campbell

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

John could not believe that Jesus would seek baptism from him, a lowly mortal man. But our God is a humble God. He does not fear our weakness. He extends his hand, saying, "It is fitting." So take his hand. Begin the work he has set out for you.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Temptation

Question:

At times, temptation seems so powerful that it is almost impossible to resist. How can I be stronger in my resolve to avoid sin and temptation?

Answer:

The saints have written that every human person desires the good. In a sense, we don't desire sin itself. Temptation is powerful because there is at least some bit of good in it. Even in the blackest of sin, there is something good that becomes twisted. We can look for good in sin when we feel it is lacking in our own life. When we lack true relational intimacy, it can be easy to turn to lust. When we lack confidence in God in our own lives, it can be easy to judge others or to grasp for control over situations. When we lack peace in the present moment, it can be easy to compete with others or to treat others poorly in our quest for success.

Overcoming temptation isn't just about repressing our sinful desires. If that's all we do, they'll just burst out someplace else! If there is a recurring temptation in your life, prayerfully consider why this is so appealing to you. Submit this to God and bring it to a wise person. And in the meantime, continue to resist temptation to sin. If we fail to choose God in small choices, we're several steps down the road towards failing in larger ones. Pray for the grace to persevere!

For Our Young Parishioners

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus came to John one day to be baptized. Jesus was God's Son, and had no sin for John to wash away in the Jordan River. But Jesus wanted to be baptized anyway, to please his Father in heaven. God looked down from heaven, and when Jesus came out of the river, God sent his Spirit to rest on Jesus like a dove. Then God spoke from heaven for John and everyone else to hear. God said, "This is my son."

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for showing John that Jesus was your Son.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus on the day of his baptism.

JUST A THOUGHT...

What is Joy?

Joy is the experience of achieving what we most desire — and what we most desire is love. God made us in love and for love, and so, in the same way that a flower seeks the sunlight, our souls seek the warmth of true, selfless love. The virtue of joy, therefore, is a fruit of the virtue of love, or charity (CCC 1829)
