SUNDAY FEBRUARY 15, 2026 THE SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the Bishop's Pen...

"So it was said to your ancestors; but I say to you."

Have you ever driven through a neighborhood, admiring the beautiful houses on the streets? They may have what is called "great curb appeal." But what we do not know just driving by is how these houses look on the inside, where the homeowners live. The scribes and Pharisees presented a certain kind of goodness, even holiness, to others. However, they governed their thoughts and actions only by their external observance of the Jewish laws and how they appeared in the eyes of others.

The love of God and the love of others that flows from our love of God never filled their inner selves, so that pure love for God and for others never filled their hearts where they really lived. An example was the Pharisees' view of women. They did not commit physical adultery, but they allowed themselves to regard women merely as objects for the pleasure of men. That attitude adulterates genuine love and demeans women. That lack of love in their hearts is why Jesus said, "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart."

Think about how we can, at times, have less than loving feelings about our friends, our brothers, and sisters, even about our spouses. These types of less than loving feelings recall more sayings, "never hold a grudge," or "never go to bed mad at your spouse." These sayings apply to what Jesus is telling His disciples, "You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, 'You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment.' But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment, and whoever says to his brother, 'Raga,' will be answerable to the Sanhedrin, and whoever says, 'You fool,' will be liable to fiery Gehenna."

We have also heard the saying, "kiss and make up." Our parents have said it to us when we were not getting along with a sister, a brother, or a friend. Jesus is telling us to always do this when He said, "If you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Finally, Jesus says, "Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the evil one." Do not deceive others by feelings that betray the apparent good of our actions. God is more interested in what He finds in our hearts than just what He sees in our actions. God wants to find unconditional love for Him and for each other deep in our hearts, where we really live. That unconditional love will then be sincerely shown in our actions. These actions will be pleasing gifts to place "at the altar."

– Bishop Roy Campbell

To The St Joseph Catholic Church Community

Our desire is that every member of our parish family encounters Jesus Christ in a very personal and life-changing way as they journey through life within our community. That now includes you and we welcome you to this very personal, communal journey of faith as part of our parish family. As you begin the next part of your faith journey with us, we encourage you to check in at the Welcome Table and complete the parish registration form. You may also get the form from a Hospitality minister. Stay connected with the St Joseph Community through our Website and Facebook God has given you gifts to share in helping the Church build the kingdom and accomplish her mission. Seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help you discern where you are meant to serve. Please check out our Ministries and Organizations at the Welcome Table or our Website. Pray, discern, then take that leap of faith and get engaged in the life of the parish.

LET US KNOW YOU ARE HERE
SO WE CAN PROPERLY WELCOME YOU!

LIVE THE LITURGY!

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus does not want us to live within the law — he wants the law to live within us. God’s law, fulfilled by His Son, is rich soil. We must let it nourish the words and the decisions of our Christian life — only then will it flow forth into the world.

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED! – CONNECT WITH TRADITION AND GROW YOUR FAITH

Gentleness

Gentleness, Explained!

As followers of Christ, we are commanded to “always be prepared to offer an explanation ... to justify the hope that is in you.”

But the success of that evangelism hinges entirely on the very next instructions this passage contains: “However, do so with gentleness and respect” (1 Peter 3:15).

The word “gentleness” has come to be associated with softness and fragility — but there is no virtue that requires greater strength. As one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, gentleness disposes us to receive the inspirations of the Spirit, who “reveals to men who Jesus is” (CCC 152). In cultivating a spirit of gentleness, we more closely resemble Christ, who was unflinchingly gentle, even in the face of violence and death.

“Every virtue is a good thing, but most of all gentleness and meekness,” said St. John Chrysostom. “This shows us men; this makes us to differ from wild beasts; this fits us to vie with Angels.”

Questions of the Week - for Your Reflection

1st Reading Question:

Sirach speaks of the human freedom to choose between good and evil and of God’s desire for us to act justly. What good could you do this week for a friend or family member?

2nd Reading Question:

Paul teaches that God reveals His wisdom to us through the Holy Spirit. How might you be more open to listening to the Holy Spirit in your daily life?

Gospel Question:

Jesus offers stern warnings against breaking the commandments, holding grudges, committing adultery, divorcing your spouse, and falsifying oaths. Why do you think Jesus holds us to such high moral expectations?

CATHOLIC TRIVIA...

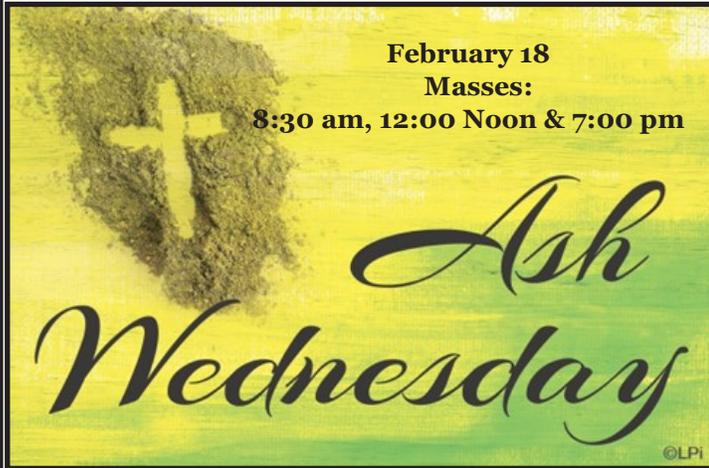

Question:

What are the names of the three theological virtues of the Catholic Church?

Answer:

- (a) Faith, Hope, and Charity. (b) Faith, Hope, and Love

SHARING THE GOSPEL

God's rules stop you from hurting yourself and the people around you. God knows that if you really love him, you will want to follow his rules. You will trust him. You will want to be thoughtful and kind. You will want to love people the way God does.

PRAYER

God, help me to follow your rules with my whole heart.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself cheerfully helping your parents dust and vacuum your house.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Ask your parents to list three ways you can honor them.
