Rest in Peace Bishop Gorman

On Sunday, June 2nd, we received sad news that Bishop John Gorman passed away. Bishop Gorman was born in Chicago on December 11, 1925. He attended Visitation Grammar School, Quigley Preparatory Seminary High School and then Mundelein Seminary. He later received a Master of Psychology, and Doctor of Clinical Psychology from Loyola University. Bishop Gorman used those advanced degrees in modernizing the learning experience of seminarians at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary when he was appointed as Rector in 1965. His creativity, ingenuity, faithfulness, and compassion were a true blessing to the seminarians and, therefore, to the Church of Chicago and beyond.

In 1973, Bishop Gorman was named pastor of St. Michael's parish in Orland Park. At St. Michael's, Bishop Gorman was able to use the experiences as rector to truly develop a parish of lay leadership. Bishop Gorman challenged his parishioners to take ownership of their faith community under the guidance of the pastor. In 1988, St. Pope John Paul II named him an auxiliary bishop of Chicago. After serving as vicar of Vicariate I, and then as Vicar General, Bishop Gorman was named Vicar of Vicariate V (which includes the Lemont Catholic parishes). During his time as Vicar, Bishop Gorman was an example of leadership through service, especially by supporting parishioners and lay leadership growth. He organized a Ministry Commission that offered opportunities for faith development, leadership training, and ministerial formation. Bishop Gorman's life serves as an example of what can happen when we invite the Lord into our hearts and place ourselves at the will of the Holy Spirit. We pray for Bishop Gorman's entire family, including the John Lenz family, who are parishioners here at St. Alphonsus and St. Patrick Parish. Thank you, Bishop Gorman, for your dedication and service to our faith!

Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

This weekend we commemorate the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. In the Gospel we heard about how Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured. As we celebrate this special day of our faith, here is a prayer to celebrate the true presence in the Eucharist:

Prayer for the True Presence

Jesus, what a gift we have in your True Presence: the assurance of your friendship, your company, your grace, your love. Increase our thirst for you as you, also, desire to draw closer to us. Amen.

Supporting Our Parish

Now that the summer season officially begins this weekend, I know that families will be embarking on trips to various destinations. We hope everyone has a wonderful time on their exciting outings, but we also would like to encourage you to remain dedicated in your support to St. Alphonsus & St. Patrick Parish. Two great ways of continuing your financial support of our parish include our direct-withdrawal Electronic Fund Transfer (E.F.T.) program and our Give Central program. They are both very convenient and hassle-free ways to donate to St. Alphonsus & St. Patrick Parish. Thank you for your support!

Chemical abortion is a two-drug process intended to kill and expel a developing child from the womb in the first trimester of pregnancy. Proponents call it "medication abortion," but that's misleading. "Medication" indicates something that is intended to manage a patient's disease or illness, but chemical abortions end the life of an unborn child and can be dangerous to the health and lives of pregnant mothers, as well. Catechist Formation Day 2025

CATECHISTS AS PILGRIMS OF HOPE

SAVE THE DATE

Saturday, August 16, 2025 | 8 a.m. – 4 p.m.

St. John Brebeuf

8305 North Harlem Avenue, Niles, IL 60714

All catechists in the Archdiocese of Chicago are invited to attend the Office of Lifelong Formation's annual Catechist Formation Day.

This Jubilee Year of Hope is a time of grace, renewal, and celebration for Catholics around the world, including catechists! This special Jubilee, declared by Pope Francis, calls us to reflect on God's boundless mercy and embrace our mission to live out the Gospel in everyday life as Pilgrims of Hope.

This year's catechist formation day will be a time for catechists to rediscover their vocation as pilgrims, and messengers, of hope. Through keynote presentations and practical workshops, catechists will be inspired to maintain a hopeful enthusiasm in their lives and in their ministry as catechists. Workshops covering a variety of faith formation topics will be offered in English, Polish, and Spanish.

Registration information will be available in May.

Thank you to our sponsors that will be present at our event: Bayard, Liturgy Training Publications, Loyola Press, Our Sunday Visitor, RCL Benziger, Sadlier Religion and Tree of Life Imports.

The following is the full text of Pope Leo XIV's address to those gathered to celebrate the Chicago-born pope's election:

My dear friends,

It's a pleasure for me to greet all of you gathered together at White Sox Park on this great celebration as a community of faith in the Archdiocese of Chicago. A special greeting to Cardinal Cupich, to the auxiliary bishops, to all my friends who are gathered today on this: the feast of the Most Holy Trinity.

And I begin with that because the Trinity is a model of God's love for us. God: Father, Son and Spirit. Three persons in one God live united in the depth of love, in community, sharing that communion with all of us.

So, as you gather today in this great celebration, I want to both express my gratitude to you and also an encouragement to continue to build up community, friendship, as brothers and sisters in your daily lives, in your families, in your parishes, in the Archdiocese and throughout our world.

I'd like to send a special word of greeting to all the young people - those of you gathered together today, and many of you who are perhaps watching this greeting through technological means, on the internet. As you grow up together, you may realize, especially having lived through the time of the pandemic - times of isolation, great difficulty, sometimes even difficulties in your families, or in our world today. Sometimes it may be that the context of your life has not given you the opportunity to live the faith, to live as participants in a faith community, and I'd like to take this opportunity to invite each one of you to look into your own hearts, to recognize that God is present and that, perhaps in many different ways, God is reaching out to you, calling you, inviting you to know his Son Jesus Christ, through the Scriptures, perhaps through a friend or a relative... a grandparent, who might be a person of faith. But to discover how important it is for each one of us to pay attention to the presence of God in our own hearts, to that longing for love in our lives, for ... searching, a true searching, for finding the ways that we may be able to do something with our own lives to serve others.

And in that service to others, we may find that coming together in friendship, building up community, we too can find true meaning in our lives. Moments of anxiety, of loneliness. So many people who suffer from different experiences of depression or sadness - they can discover that the love of God is truly healing, that it brings hope, and that actually, coming together as friends, as brothers and sisters, in community, in a parish, in an experience of living our faith together, we can find that the Lord's grace, that the love of God can truly heal us, can give us the strength that we need, can be the source of that hope that we all need in our lives.

To share that message of hope with one another - in outreach, in service, in looking for ways to make our world a better place - gives true life to all of us, and is a sign of hope for the whole world.

To, once again, the young people who are gathered here, I'd like to say that you are the promise of hope for so many of us. The world looks to you as you look around yourselves and say: we need you, we want you to come together to share with us in this common mission, as Church and in society, of announcing a message of true hope and of promoting peace, promoting harmony, among all peoples.

We have to look beyond our own - if you will - egotistical ways. We have to look for ways of coming together and promoting a message of hope. Saint Augustine says to us that if we want the world to be a better place, we have to begin with ourselves, we have to begin with our own lives, our own hearts

And so, in this sense, as you gather together as a faith community, as you celebrate in the Archdiocese of Chicago, as you offer your own experience of joy and of hope, you can find out, you can discover that you, too, are indeed beacons of hope. That light, that perhaps on the horizon is not very easy to see, and yet, as we grow in our unity, as we come together in communion, we can discover that that light will grow brighter and brighter. That light which is indeed our faith in Jesus Christ. And we can become that message of hope, to promote peace and unity throughout our world.

We all live with many questions in our hearts. Saint Augustine speaks so often of our "restless" hearts and says: "our hearts are restless until they rest in you, O God" (Confessions 1,1,1). That restlessness is not a bad thing, and we shouldn't look for ways to put out the fire, to eliminate or even numb ourselves to the tensions that we feel, the difficulties that we experience. We should rather get in touch with our own hearts and recognize that God can work in our lives, through our lives, and through us reach out to other people.

And so I'd like to conclude this brief message to all of you with an invitation to be, indeed, that light of hope. "Hope does not disappoint", Saint Paul tells us in his letter to the Romans (5,5). When I see each and every one of you, when I see how people gather together to celebrate their faith, I discover myself how much hope there is in the world.

In this Jubilee Year of Hope, Christ, who is our hope, indeed calls all of us to come together, that we might be that true living example: the light of hope in the world today.

So I would like to invite all of you to take a moment, to open up your own hearts to God, to God's love, to that peace which only the Lord can give us. To feel how deeply beautiful, how strong, how meaningful the love of God is in our lives. And to recognize that while we do nothing to earn God's love, God in his own generosity continues to pour out his love upon us. And as he gives us his love, he only asks us to be generous and to share what he has given us with others.

May you indeed be blessed as you gather together for this celebration. May the Lord's love and peace come upon each and every one of you, upon your families, and may God bless all of you, so that you might always be beacons of hope, a sign of hope and peace throughout our world.

And may the blessing of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit come upon you and remain with you always. Amen.
