OUR ARCHDIOCESAN FAMILY PRAYER

Loving and Faithful God, through the years
the people of our archdiocese have appreciated
the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness.
We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism.

We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community
founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people.

Bless parents
that they may form their children in faith.

Bless and protect our youth
that they may be peacemakers of our time.

Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence.

Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance
to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.
Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

WEEKLY REFLECTION
Luke 10:38-42

Many passages of Scripture can be difficult to understand if one does not appreciate the cultural background of the author and his audience. On the other hand, there are some passages that are easily understandable because lessons and examples relate to our culture as well. One of the great examples of the latter is the story of Jesus' visit to the home of the sisters Martha and Mary related in the tenth chapter of the Gospel of Luke.

While Martha was busy preparing to serve a meal to Jesus and his disciples, her sister Mary sat at the feet of Jesus listening to his teaching about the Kingdom of God. Martha asked to Jesus to tell Mary to help her with the household duties. You and I can easily relate to this situation. Frequently people perceive their relatives, their business associates, or their friends as neglecting to do their share of work in whatever business is at hand.

Jesus does not grant Martha's request to dismiss Mary so she can help with the dinner preparations. He said "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, and it shall not be taken from her." (Luke 10:41-42)

Mary was attentive to Jesus' teaching about the Kingdom of God. Martha considered the duties of hospitality more urgent. By allowing her sense of urgency and responsibility to cloud her vision, she neglected attention to the word of God in Jesus' teaching.

The same temptation is present in our lives as well. It very easy for us to be so preoccupied with meeting deadlines, planning schedules, fulfilling duties that we fail to hear Jesus' teaching us that Kingdom means we surrender those things in which find our glory. For Jesus the Kingdom means that we accept the Father's will. Jesus challenged Martha, and he challenges us to put aside our perfectionism, our disordered desire to be praised for our personal responsibility, and our need to be in control in all circumstances.

Let us pray to be open to the Spirit as we acknowledge the sovereignty of God over our daily decisions.

Anthony McGinn, S.J.

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO

Rooted in our identity as Catholic and Jesuit, and driven by the spirituality of St. Ignatius of Loyola, Immaculate Conception Parish gives glory to God by creating a faith community where all are welcomed to experience God's love in Word and Sacrament and Community, and where all are challenged to embrace the mission of fulfilling God's desires for us and our world by growing in love and by becoming Christ to others through lives of prayer, witness, and service.

VISITING? / WELCOME!

No matter where you are from, what you do, your current family or marital situation ...

No matter your personal history, age, background, race or political affiliation ...

No matter your religion or self-perceived relationship with God or the Church ...

we are very happy you are with us. Learn more about our parish by visiting our website, and if you would like to learn more about the art and architecture of our building, we invite you to consult the brochure found at the back of the church.

Every Sunday Morning Coffee & Donuts are served in the parish hall following the 8:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. Masses.

GLUTEN FREE

If you are unable to receive an ordinary host in Holy Communion, please let the priest celebrating the Mass know, and he will arrange for you to receive a gluten-free host.

HURRICANE SEASON

Let us pray:

Through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, may we be spared damage to life and property during the hurricane season.

NEWS FROM AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

BLACK AND INDIAN MISSION COLLECTION

This weekend, July 20-21, 2019, the Archdiocese of New Orleans will take up the annual Black and Indian Mission Collection, which has a direct impact in our own archdiocese as we benefit locally from grants funded by the collection. Your generosity to this collection reflects the depths of your faith and your willingness to help our brothers and sisters in need; it is an opportunity to evangelize and further the missionary cause of bringing the Gospel to our African American and Native American family. Information about the work of the Black and Indian Mission Office can be found at https:// blackandindianmission.org/

RETREAT CENTER GALA

The Archdiocese of New Orleans Retreat Center invites you to join us for our 6th Annual Chef John Folse Gala on August 2, 2019, at Chateau Country Club in Kenner. Our annual fundraiser allows us to raise funds for the furthering of our mission. You can participate by purchasing tickets, providing sponsorship, donating auction items, or bidding on auction items. Call Kim Gandolfi at 504-887-1420 for more information or visit our website at <https://one.bidpal.net/anoretreat>.

HEAVENLY HOST OF STARS GALA BENEFITING
THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY FAMILY

On August 18, 2019, the Grammy-nominated and legendary Hall of Fame group, The Whispers, will take stage at the Hyatt Regency New Orleans in a benefit performance for the Sisters of the Holy Family. The "Heavenly Host of Stars Gala" is a major fundraising event to help sustain the longstanding ministries of the Sisters of the Holy Family as well as retirement needs of elderly Sisters. The patron party begins at 5:30 PM and the gala starts at 7:00 PM. Please offer your support by purchasing tickets or becoming a sponsor for this event! For more information call 504-241-3088 or <http://www.sistersoftheholysfamily.com/Gala-Info.html>.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING TRAINING

Our next quarterly Human Trafficking Basic Training will be held on Monday, August 12, 2019, at 6:00 PM at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Kenner. FBI Special Agent Hawkins will be presenting. Trainings include red flags of Human Trafficking, how to report it, and other measures you can take to fight Human Trafficking. Attendance is free and limited to those 18 years of age and older. For more information please contact the Respect Life Office at respectlife@arch-no.org.

MISSION APPEAL WARRI, NIGERIA

Fr. Peter Akpoghiran, the judicial vicar for the Archdiocese of New Orleans, spoke at all of the Masses on July 13 and 14. He appealed to the congregation for financial help for his home parish, St. Joseph in Oha in the Delta State of Nigeria. The parish is seeking to build a church for the congregation. Fr. Peter asked for our help in supporting the Church in this part of Africa. Unfortunately the complications connected with Hurricane Barry made it impossible for many of our congregation to hear his appeal. Attendance at our Masses last weekend was less than half the usual number. If you wish to support St. Joseph Parish in Oha, Nigeria, please send a contribution to

PRELUDE TO HURRICANE BARRY

On Wednesday, July 10, the Central Business District experienced a deluge of over 11 inches of rain in about three hours. The parish offices on the first floor of the rectory were filled with over ten inches of water. The pastor wishes to express his gratitude to the staff, parishioners, and friends of the parish who have helped and who will continue to help the parish deal with this challenge.

COLLECTIONS (July 8-14, 2019)

Sunday: $5,242.00

Special Collection (Diocese of Warri): $2,26.00

Weekdays: $519.00

Through our Legacy Campaign we were able to achieve a number of projects, including the renovation of our stained glass windows. Large gifts were acknowledged by inviting donors to “adopt” a window and then create a memorial plaque. Some windows remain unclaimed. Most of these are located in our balconies; others are above the high altar and choir loft. To learn more about how you might contribute to the ongoing renewal of our church, and at the same time honor a living or deceased loved one, please contact the pastor.

ONLINE PARISHIONER REGISTRATION & GIVING

We invite you to register as a member of our parish family. To do so, log on to www.jesuitchurch.net and click the “I’m New” and “To the Parish” tabs, or contact the parish office. Also, follow Immaculate Conception Parish on Facebook by logging onto www.facebook.com and entering Immaculate Conception Jesuit Church and “Like” us. In reflecting upon your support of the parish, please consider online giving, a quick and easy way to do your part to foster the life and ministry of our parish.

PARKING at 220 O’Keefe

For registered Immaculate Conception parishioners, parking at a reduced fee of $2.00 for a 3-hour period is available in the CENTRAL PARKING GARAGE at 220 O’Keefe, next to the Quality Inn, near the corner of O’Keefe and Common. The garage is open to parishioners for regularly-scheduled parish Masses on the weekend.

To get the reduced rate, for each visit you must use a magnetic voucher card available for purchase in the parish office, or you may order vouchers by completing the form available on the back counter of the church.

To take advantage of the reduced rate, enter the garage from O’Keefe, and take a ticket from the auto attendant. KEEP YOUR TICKET. When you exit the garage, you will need to insert both that ticket and the voucher.

Difficulties? The Central Parking emergency number is 504-655-3204. Questions? Please contact Judy Burke at 529-1477, ext. 223.
