OUR ARCHDIOCESAN FAMILY PRAYER

Loving and Faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism.

We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people.

Bless parents
that they may form their children in faith.

Bless and protect our youth
that they may be peacemakers of our time.

Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence.
Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance
to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.
Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

WEEKLY REFLECTIONMatthew 10:26-33

Many times in the Gospels, Jesus encouraged his disciples not to be afraid. "And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul." (Matthew 10:29) Throughout the Old Testament, angels, prophets, and the Lord himself, spoke the simple message: do not be afraid.

Reasonable fears serve to warn us when danger threatens us. We cannot ignore threats to our physical safety. We naturally react to avoid situations that pose risks to our health.

On the other hand, we can develop fears that hinder our personal growth and happiness. Fear of failure can cause some people to excuse themselves from the struggle to overcome challenges. Fear of rejection can stifle one's relationships with others. Fear of embarrassment or rejection can make us reluctant to speak the truth.

In our current age, we need to hear and speak the truth. Every day powerful forces promote their anti-religious agendas through multiple means of communication. Some of these forces even try to suppress the truth through intimidation.

In our struggle to learn and teach the truth, let us turn to Scripture for encouragement. The Apostle Paul reminded his protégé Timothy as he reminds us. "For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control. So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord." (2 Timothy 1:7-8) Jesus at Last Supper prepared his disciples for the coming struggle by assuring them. "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me." (John 14:1)

Let us pray for the power of the Holy Spirit to help us to discern the truth and to fearlessly proclaim it.

Anthony McGinn, S.J.

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO

Rooted in our identity as Catholic and Jesuit, and driven by the spirituality of St. Ignatius of Loyola, Immaculate Conception Parish gives glory to God by creating a faith community where all are welcomed to experience God's love in Word and Sacrament and Community, and where all are challenged to embrace the mission of fulfilling God's desires for us and our world by growing in love and by becoming Christ to others through lives of prayer, witness, and service.

ST. ALOYSIUS GONZAGA

June 21 is the feast day of St. Aloysius Gonzaga, a Jesuit scholastic who died in Rome after ministering to plague victims in 1591.

Let us seek his intercession for the protection and guidance of medical professionals and other workers who care for the victims of COVID-19.

A statue representing him appears above the main altar along with statues of St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis Xavier, and St. John Berchmans.
