OUR ARCHDIOCESAN FAMILY PRAYER

Loving and Faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness.

We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism.

We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people.

Bless parents that they may form their children in faith.

Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time.

Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

Teenagers have been making imprudent decisions since adolescence was invented in the early twentieth century. (Around 1900 sociologists began to promote the concept of adolescence as a stage of development distinct from childhood and adulthood.) Before society accepted the idea of an intermediate stage characterized by immaturity and impulsiveness, children were expected to take on adult roles as soon as they were able.

Even old curmudgeons have to admit that in their youth they took risks they would not consider today. Somethings have not changed. The first class of high school seniors I taught are now eligible for Social Security. Just as today, fifty years ago teens were making foolish, unhealthy, and dangerous decisions “that seemed like a good idea at the time.” The part of the brain that provides impulse control is not fully developed in males until age 25.

In my role as a school administrator, I urged parents to see themselves serving as their child’s pre-frontal cortex, the part of brain that is not fully developed in adolescence. I was particularly concerned about the early age of onset of alcohol consumption. Family, school, and community should work together to inculcate values that reinforce young people’s positive and prudent choices.

Some aspects of the maturing years have not changed; however, the culture has changed dramatically. What is acceptable and what is unacceptable have been redefined. School, church, and community need to help reinforce the values of the family that protect young people from falling into unhealthy choices.

The proverb “It takes a village to raise a child” has been used to justify a diminished role for the nuclear family. Nonetheless, the saying has much wisdom. The family needs the village to support its values by encouraging personal responsibility and healthy autonomy among its youth.

Lord, grant us the wisdom to be effective in our support of the right values in a world of conflict. Grant us the courage to confront appropriately the unhealthy values of contemporary society. Grant us the patience to accept that positive growth can take a very long time.

Anthony McGinn, S.J.

LETTER FROM ARCHBISHOP AYMOND

October 17, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

World Mission Sunday — the annual worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church — will be on October 24 this year. This important day in the life of the universal Church fortifies our understanding of our shared call to mission, bestowed on us at Baptism.

Pope Francis's message of World Mission Sunday reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). The Holy Father shares his zeal, reminding us that "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves" as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel." He invites us to speak of our faith.

World Mission Sunday provides us with that very opportunity. We can speak about our faith and respond to our missionary call — through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and almsgiving. Jesus calls us to open our hearts to the missions where our brothers and sisters face many challenges. The poverty and lack of infrastructures make the challenges almost insurmountable. Many hunger for a deeper relationship with Jesus and many are persecuted because of their faith in him and the Church. Dioceses and religious orders depend on Mission Sunday to continue their missionary work.

We ask God's blessings as we reach out in solidarity and support for the Mission Church, and ask God to encourage the work and witness of our missionaries.

In this spirit, I offer my sincere personal gratitude for your kind missionary heart, reaching out in love throughout October, designated as Mission Month.

Wishing you God's blessings, I am

Gratefully in the Lord,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans
