OUR ARCHDIOCESAN FAMILY PRAYER

Loving and Faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people.

Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

WEEKLY REFLECTION
2 Timothy 3:14-4:2

Church leaders in the first century faced many challenges and obstacles. Some congregations were divided into competing factions. The unity of the church was threatened by elitism and petty jealousies. Other church leaders faced persecution by the civil authorities. Heresies threatened other congregations. Some church members wanted to retain a connection with Judaism. Some of the teachings of pagan religion had infiltrated some local churches.

Leaders of the church at this challenging time needed encouragement to remain faithful to the Gospel and firm in their leadership. The Apostle Paul wrote two letters to his protégé Timothy who was the leader of the church in Ephesus, a large city in what is today western Turkey. Paul told Timothy to “proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching. For the time will come when people will not tolerate sound doctrine but, following their own desires and insatiable curiosity, will accumulate teachers and will stop listening to the truth and will be diverted to myths.” (2 Timothy 4:2-4)

Paul reminds Timothy that leadership in the church involves convincing, reprimanding, and encouraging. Church preachers as well as other leaders need to speak the truth that challenges us to accept God’s call to change. All of us prefer our leaders to encourage us rather than reprimand us. Since we are all given to some degree of self-deception, leaders in the church, family, and in the wider society perform a great service when they gently remind us of our responsibilities. The Holy Spirit uses human instruments to call us to change those habits that lead us away from living a righteous life. In some cases, our disordered attachments to our self-destructive behaviors have so blinded to reality that we need to be challenged more energetically. Reprimanding may be necessary when encouraging and convincing fail to produce a change.

Paul instructs Timothy to exercise his duty of correction with patience. Leaders have to remember that correcting the mistakes of others requires humility. When one is aware of one’s own limitations, one can more authentically point out the weaknesses of others. All teachers and leaders need to be committed to the truth. Paul warns that people can be misled by their desires and “accumulate teachers and will stop listening to the truth.” Our contemporary culture has led many people to deny obvious truths. Those in positions of leadership have to be persistent in proclaiming the truth “whether it is convenient or inconvenient.”

May a spirit of humility and patience guide us as we encourage others and guide them to acknowledge inconvenient truths. Likewise, may we receive constructive criticism in a spirit of humility and patience.

A LETTER FROM ARCHBISHOP AYMOND

To: Clergy, Religious, and Laity in the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On October 23, World Mission Sunday, we join Catholics worldwide in this annual Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church.

Pope Francis reflects on this year's theme: "You shall be My witnesses" (Acts 1:8). He emphasizes the call to every Christian through baptism to bear witness to Christ, to participate in a mission of universal evangelization, and to seek strength and guidance from the Holy Spirit.

Blessed Pauline Jaricot, foundress of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, began this work 200 years ago. As Pope Francis reminds us, "She accepted God's inspiration to establish a network of prayer and collection for missionaries so that the faithful could actively participate in the mission of Christ, 'to the ends of the earth.'" The first monies collected from Pauline for the Propagation of the Faith came to us in support of the Diocese of New Orleans as a mission diocese. Her vision would lead to World Mission Sunday, which helps support missionary activity today.

Through prayer and sacrifice you can make it possible to support priests, religious women and men and lay missionaries throughout the world. Likewise, you support missionary seminarians in their formation. You can also assist in building schools and orphanages that care for children in places few will ever visit.

We ask God's blessings to help us to reach out in solidarity and support for the Mission Church, and ask God to encourage the work and witness of missionaries.

In this spirit, I offer my sincere personal gratitude for your kind missionary heart, reaching out in love throughout October, designated as Mission Month.

Gratefully in the Lord,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans

HOLY SPIRIT WOMEN'S RETREAT

Anne Trufant, Fr. Bill Henry, and Fr. Paul Yi will be featured at the annual Holy Spirit Women's Retreat from January 27-29, 2023, at the DoubleTree by Hilton in Lafayette. The theme for 2023 is "Fear Not...For You Are Mine!" The weekend will include praise and worship, dynamic preaching, adoration, daily Mass, prayer ministry and more. Anne is a dynamic missionary and teacher who has travelled the world spreading the truth of the Kingdom of God. She and her husband Dave are the founders of The Mission on the Mountain ministries, and are especially known in our area for their decades of youth and young adult ministry at Camps Kahdalea and Chosatonga. The retreat is sponsored by the Catholic Charismatic Renewal of New Orleans (CCRNO) and annually serves hundreds of women from throughout the Gulf South. Early bird rates end November 30, 2022. Register online at www.ccrno.org
