QUEEN OF ANGELS CLOSING SALE

After 24 years of serving our community, our Apostolate at St. Joseph Church in Cuyahoga Falls, Queen of Angels Religious Treasurers, will be closing to make room for a much-needed installation of an elevator. Our last weekend of operation will be the weekend of Palm Sunday, March 23rd and 24th. Our goal has always been to help build a vibrant faith community one soul at a time. Throughout these 24 years, we have made many friends, prayed with and for many people, and shared the spiritual joy that comes to us from Our Lord Jesus Christ. We will miss those conversations, but trust that God has something else for us to do. Our hours will expand to Saturdays, 3:00-6:00 p.m. and Sundays, 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. until March 24th. All items are 30% off, including items already reduced with a sale price.

Pastor's Note

And we're off! Lent is about a good balance between what we have committed to and what God is calling our attention to. It is helpful to commit ourselves to giving something up or to adding times of prayer like our Holy Hours on Thursday or Stations on Friday. Certainly our commitments will help us to remember indeed that "we are dust and to dust we shall return!" But our life with God is, as St. Julian of Norwich puts it, "a dance." Can you imagine two partners dancing where one is deciding all of the moves and one is just standing there watching? Not very pleasant to watch or be a part of that one! The best dancing involves the movements of both partners and the leadership of each at times! So, as much as we should try to keep what we have committed to, we must also ask and leave room for: "What is the Holy Spirit of God calling me to during Lent and what may I implement to be faithful to that call?" For example, I know I have committed to less time on certain apps this Lent, but maybe if God is calling me to more connection with family, I might actually use my phone more overall. I know God has called me to prayer in Adoration more this Lent, but if in prayer I discover a greater need to pray, I may need to spend more time in my room at home with the door closed praying. I know that God has called me to give of my time more this Lent, but what if, in giving of that time, it becomes clear where I may get an even better use of time in other parts of the day? At this time of history, the Lord is probably calling us in the desert of Lent to be more attentive to respect for the dignity of others, to be more generous and optimistic in committing time to God for prayer and to consider our levels of generosity and how we might be able to give even more. Whatever they are, may we be true to our commitments AND follow the suggestions of the Lord in the moves we make to grow spiritually during this Lenten season. See you soon!

– Father Chris

P.E. AT ST. MARY SCHOOL

Our students have been quite busy in their Physical Education classes. We started with a review of our rules and procedures; as well as, proper use of the Gaga Pit and Playset on the playground. Each grade progressively works on various motor skills and then culminates in a game using those skills. We also incorporate using good sportsmanship and having integrity while playing sports. Many of the games include not only physical skills, but always encourage teamwork and some even include the use of their weekly spelling words or math skills.

We have participated in flag football, soccer, basketball, pickleball, and cornhole. The younger grades also play games which have holiday themes, such as Ghostbusters, Turkey Takedown, Grinch Games, Buddy Elf Express and Snowball Frenzy, to name a few.

Recently, some of our students participated in the Knights of Columbus Free Throw Competition – with two of our students advancing to the next stage to be held in Wickliffe, Ohio.

Presently, the K-2nd grades are working on their jump-roping skills. The older grades are working on their volleyball skills and will culminate in playing games.

The yearly event the students look forward to is the 7th grade versus 8th grade volleyball game. We continue to grow and develop and encourage our students to have a healthy lifestyle, including proper sleep, nutrition and exercise!

Parish Eucharistic Revival

Witness

The end-game of the Eucharist for Jesus is to offer us a means to be united to Him and to be re-fortified in that union. All of the "loud" and "quiet" prayers of the priest and congregation together point to this. Therefore we should do everything in our power to receive this grace which Jesus offered us at the most critical moment of His life and treat it therefore as critical to our life. -Father Chris

Teaching

By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled Himself to share in our humanity. With humble spirit and contrite heart may we be accepted by you O Lord and may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you O Lord our God. Wash me O Lord from my iniquity and cleanse me of my sins.

Action of the week

Reflect on what the most critical actions of your life are and to where they direct your attention and others' attention.

ST. MARY

Avivamiento Eucarístico Parroquial

Testimonio

El objetivo final de la Eucaristía para Jesús es ofrecernos un medio para unirnos a Él y fortalecernos en esa unión. Todas las oraciones "en voz alta" y "en voz baja" del sacerdote y de la congregación juntas apuntan a esto. Por lo tanto, debemos hacer todo lo que esté a nuestro alcance para recibir esta gracia que Jesús nos ofreció en el momento más crítico de Su vida y tratarla como algo fundamental para nuestra vida. -Padre Chris

Enseñanza

Que por el misterio de esta agua y vino podamos llegar a compartir la divinidad de Cristo que se humilló para compartir nuestra humanidad. Que con espíritu humilde y corazón arrepentido seamos aceptados por ti, oh Señor, y que nuestro sacrificio ante ti en este día te sea de agrado, oh Señor, Dios nuestro. Lávame, oh Señor, de mi maldad y límpiame de mis pecados.

Acción de la semana

Reflexiona sobre cuáles son las acciones más críticas de tu vida y hacia dónde dirigen tu atención y la de los demás.

Nota del Pastor

¡Empezamos! La Cuaresma se trata de tener equilibrio entre aquello a lo que estamos comprometidos y aquello a lo que Dios nos llama. Es conveniente comprometernos a renunciar a algo o agregar momentos de oración como nuestra Hora Santa de los jueves o los Vía Crucis de los viernes. Ciertamente nuestros compromisos nos ayudarán a recordar que "somos polvo y al polvo volveremos." Pero nuestra vida con Dios es, como dice San Julián de Norwich, "una danza." ¿Te imaginas a dos compañeros bailando donde uno decide todos los movimientos y el otro se queda ahí mirando? ¡No sería muy agradable verlo o ser parte de eso! ¡El mejor baile involucra los movimientos de ambos compañeros y el liderazgo de cada uno! Entonces, por mucho que debamos tratar de mantener aquello a lo que nos hemos comprometido, también debemos preguntar y dejar espacio para: "¿A qué me llama el Espíritu Santo durante la Cuaresma y qué puedo hacer para ser fiel a ese llamado?" Por ejemplo, sé que me he comprometido a dedicar menos tiempo a ciertas aplicaciones de mi celular en esta Cuaresma, pero tal vez si Dios me llama a tener más conexión con la familia, podría usar mi teléfono para eso en general. Sé que Dios me ha llamado más a la oración en Adoración esta Cuaresma, pero sí en la oración descubro una mayor necesidad de orar, es posible que necesite pasar más tiempo en mi habitación de casa con la puerta cerrada orando. Sé que Dios me ha llamado a dar más de mi tiempo en esta Cuaresma, pero ¿qué pasa si al dar ese tiempo queda claro dónde puedo aprovecharlo aún mejor en otras partes del día? En este momento de la historia, el Señor probablemente nos esté llamando en el desierto de la Cuaresma a estar más atentos al respeto por la dignidad de los demás, a ser más optimistas, a dedicar tiempo a Dios para la oración y a considerar nuestros niveles de generosidad y cómo podríamos dar aún más. Como sea, podemos ser fieles a nuestros compromisos y seguir las sugerencias del Señor en los pasos que damos para crecer espiritualmente durante esta temporada. ¡Nos vemos pronto!

– Padre Chris
