A MESSAGE FROM FR. MARC

Fr. Marc Bishop - Pastor
St. Agnes and St. Camillus

Dear Faith Family,

This weekend we bid farewell to Fr. Michael Zimmerman. It is always hard to say goodbye to a person that has touched our lives. Many of you have shared wonderful stories and moments of encounter with Fr. Michael that touched your lives. I pray that you are able to share your gratitude with him either by a note or simply a gesture of affection.

My story about Fr. Michael is slightly unusual but I think still good to share (again). One day I was walking in front of St. Agnes School and I was stopped by a woman who just needed to tell me something. She spent the next several minutes telling me how thrilled she was that her grand-children had "me" to look-up to. How "I" was wonderful and a great addition to the community. I was flattered but also realized that she was thanking me for things I didn't do. As she concluded she said: "Fr. Michael we are so happy you are here." I politely told her that I was grateful for her comments but that I was not Fr. Michael. She turned red with embarrassment and quickly apologized. No apology was necessary. I was most edified to hear what Fr. Michael's ministry in Christ meant to her and her family. To hear good things about a priest encourages me.

Fr. Michael, thanking you for encouraging me and all at the Catholic Parishes of Arlington. Know you and your new ministry, as Assistant Vocation Director, will be in our daily prayers.

Peace and Blessings,
Fr. Marc

SAINT AGNES MUSIC NOTES

Our 'choir worship season' is off to a great start. Our Children's Choir has begun singing for our Family Masses and brings a joyful sound and exuberance to our worship. We are hoping to grow the numbers of singers in our choir. If your young chorister is interested, please either come to a rehearsal on Tuesday evening, a Sunday morning when we sing, or speak with me about how we may get them involved. The Children's Choir is open to all our youth beginning at grade two.

Our Parish Choir continues its wonderful ministry in our church. Their voices fill our church with glorious praise and prayer. The Parish Choir rehearses every Tuesday evening and sings for most of the 10:30 AM Masses. We are always looking for new members to join our ranks. Especially men's voices. If you enjoy singing, why not give it a try as we prepare for the Advent and Christmas seasons. It's already beginning to sound like Christmas in St Agnes Choir Loft on Tuesday nights!

* * *

The settings of the Mass parts, Glory to God, Holy, Holy, and Lamb of God, are from the "Mass of the Resurrection" and can be found in the Breaking Bread Hymnal beginning at number 852. Please lend your voice to our liturgy and join the singing of the hymns and the Mass. He who sings prays twice! - St Augustine

They provide people the opportunity, in a safe and supportive environment, to share their feelings and stories with others that are going, or have gone, through the loss of a loved one. The Life AFTER LOSS group is intended for those who would like to learn new and supportive ways to reclaim moments of contentment and happiness while honoring those who have died. This group is sponsored by the Keefe Funeral Homes. New sessions will run from 6:00 PM-7:00 PM in the Saint Agnes Parish Center, beginning on October 21st and running until November 25th. Please sign up at christykeefe2002@yahoo.com.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today Jesus tells his disciples to pray always without becoming weary., indeed our prayer must always be an expression of our love for God, our family, our world, and especially for the suffering poor. As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, please say a special prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

HEARTBEAT CRISIS PREGNANCY CENTER IN BURLINGTON

Baby bottles will be handed out after all the Masses this weekend, October 19th and 20th. You are asked to take a bottle home and return it with a donation the weekend of November 16th and 17th. BOSTON SOCK EXCHANGE

Boston Sock Exchange serves our homeless and needy brothers and sisters on Boston Common on the second Saturday of each month. Now that fall is here, we are in need of cooler weather clothing, such as long-sleeved shirts, sweatshirts, sweaters, jackets, hats, gloves, and welcome these donations. Bottles of water, small-sized juice or Gatorade for individual distribution, and granola bars are also needed. Extra volunteers are needed the next time we gather at the Parish Center on Friday, November 8, at 7:00 PM, to prepare sandwiches and reorganize donations for the fall and winter months. We also need volunteers to help with distribution on Saturday, November 9, at 11 AM on Boston Common. Please note that anyone under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult. EVANGELIZATION

Fr. Robert Sahayaraj, OCD

In the month of October, we celebrate the feast of two marvelous, inspiring and lovable saints, who truly love us and want us to love them: Saint Thérèse of Lisieux and St. Teresa of Avila. Saint Therese Lisieux we celebrate October 1st and Saint Teresa of Avila we celebrate October 15th. What do they have in common? Both are women, both are Doctors of the Church, both were great contemplatives, both were Carmelite nuns. Last time I wrote about the life of St. Therese of Lisieux. In this article I try to write about the life St. Teresa of Avila.

Teresa was born in Avila, Spain, to a pious family. She was 7 years old when she decided that the best option for her future was martyrdom. She convinced her brother Rodrigo of her plan, and the two attempted to run away, but their uncle saw them outside the city walls and sent them back home.

Teresa was 11 when her mother died, which left her heartbroken but deepened her devotion to Mary as a spiritual mother. Her father sent her at age 16 to an Augustinian convent for education. At first Teresa hated the convent, but as she grew closer to God, she began to enjoy it.

Teresa chose to enter a Carmelite convent, but after she arrived, she was disturbed by the atmosphere she found. The sisters had become lax in their religious observance, entertaining visitors and paying more attention to their appearance and social prestige than to God. Teresa herself spoke and wrote about the difficulties she found in persisting in prayer: "I was more anxious for the hour of prayer to be over than I was to remain there. I don't know what heavy penance I would not have gladly undertaken rather than practice prayer." Teresa persisted in mental prayer and God rewarded her. She began to have mystical experiences in prayer, including periods of deep contemplation and heavenly visions.

She met Franciscan priest St. Peter of Alcantara, who became her spiritual director, in 1560. And she began to take steps toward reform. She founded a reformed Carmelite convent, called St. Joseph's. The convent's success gave her confidence. Teresa spent the rest of her life founding dozens of Carmelite monasteries, for both men and women, throughout Spain. She faced trials and obstacles in this work, particularly from other Carmelites who did not appreciate her efforts to reform their way of life, yet she overcame all and found success in her life and work.

She was canonized in 1622, only 40 years after her death. She was one of the first women to be declared a Doctor of the Church. The tireless work she put into reforming her order played a key role in the Catholic Reformation. She had deep love for God and compassion for others. Her strength of character makes her a valuable role model today.
