A MESSAGE FROM FR. MARC

Fr. Marc Bishop - Pastor
St. Agnes and St. Camillus

Dear Faith Family,

This weekend at the St. Agnes 9:00 AM Mass we are Commissioning the St. Agnes Parish 8th Graders as they complete Religious Education and move into the Collaborative Confirmation Program. This Commissioning Mass is a time to celebrate the commitment of the students and the catechists. A special thanks is due to Mary Lou Vest, the St. Agnes Coordinator of Religious Education, who gives of her time and talent to serve our youth. Thank you Mary Lou.

With special interest to our St. Camillus Parish members, we have entered into a contract with Algonquin Gas Company to lease the Dow Street Parking Lot for the next year with a possibility to extend to two years. This lease is instrumental in our being able to meet the financial needs of St. Camillus Parish. You will see new fencing that will maintain security and safety for the employees and the people in the neighborhood. The Town of Arlington will still have access to the rear of the lot to dump snow.

It is all our responsibility to insure a healthy worship environment. If you are unwell, you are encouraged to stay home. We are taking several precautions: the water fonts have been emptied and cleaned; the Precious Blood is reserved for those with a gluten sensitivity that prevents them from receiving the Host; the Sign-of-Peace is either omitted or non-touching; and the Church is frequently cleaned. Please, help us make our Churches a safe and healthy environment for all who attend.

This week the Catholic Appeal is being announced. The collection will be held next weekend. Next week envelopes will be available in the pews. This week envelopes are available at the doors of the Church for those who may wish to bring them filled-out and sealed next week. Do not mail the envelopes you get from the church, they must be brought back to church for the church to get credit for your donation.

I pray that you are having a fruitful Lent. There are several programs and talks initiated or upcoming. I hope that you can attend them and make your Lent full of meaning.

Peace,
Fr. Marc

DONATIONS FOR DALMATICS

We have purchased Dalmatic Sets for our new Deacons to wear at our Liturgies. If you would like to donate toward that purchase please send a check to St. Agnes or St. Camillus for $50.00. There are four vestments available at St.

Agnes and four vestments available at St. Camillus. I thank you for your generous support.

ST. AGNES PARISH PROLIFE MEETING

We will be meeting on the second Monday of each month. The next meeting will be Monday, March 9th at 7:00 PM in the Saint Agnes Parish Center.

RICE BOWLS

Rice Bowls are available at the doors of St. Camillus Church. Families are encouraged to eat a meager meal during the week and donate the money to Operation Rice Bowl.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR YOUR HELP WITH OUR CHILDREN'S LIVING STATIONS OF THE CROSS

We are looking for a coordinator to run this annual tradition. We have a Sign-Up Genius (<https://tinyurl.com/gfstations>) collecting volunteers, but we need a leader. Contact Scott for more information or to share your time and talents with our collaborative.

SAINT AGNES MUSIC NOTES

Here at St. Agnes, you will recognize that our liturgical celebrations will take on a different character in Lent. You'll notice the music will be very reflective in nature, with a more introspective character. Many of the Lenten pieces are written in a minor key, with a quieter sound, often felt as more prayerful and penitential. We will be using the Chant Mass for the settings of the Holy, Holy, Memorial Acclamation number 12, "Save us, Savior of the world", Amen and Lamb of God. These settings are found in the order of the Mass at the beginning of the Breaking Bread Hymnal.

As we did last year, we will sing the Marian Antiphon, Ave Regina caelorum, as our closing hymn. This hymn to Mary, one of four Marian Antiphons, is the one historically sung in Lent.

PLEASE PRAY FOR...

Robert Sullivan and Salvatore Perlatondo, whose funeral Mass was celebrated last week.

It is a prayerful hymn to the Blessed Mother asking her to intercede for us to Christ our Lord. The hymn is sung in Latin. I know that many of you have said that you haven't studied Latin--and neither have I. That being said, both Fr. Marc and I believe it to be an important part of our Catholic heritage and a beautiful prayer for the Lenten season. Its pronunciation is really quite simple and there are only 8 lines. I have included a phonetic rendering in the bulletin (page 4) along with the written music. The phonetic rendering looks rather odd, but if you try to pronounce it, you'll find it reads along rather easily.

These changes in Mass Settings and hymns will create a quieter and perhaps noticeably more prayerful atmosphere in our corporate worship. I pray that these changes will aid in your personal Lenten journey.

He who sings prays twice!

DYNAMIC PARISH

BE BOLD. BE CATHOLIC.

MARIANNE COMEAU WANTED TO SHARE HER EXPERIENCE WITH DYNAMIC PARISH, HOPING TO INSPIRE YOU ALL THIS LENT.

Just over a year ago, before we started as a Dynamic Parish, we were given a book to read at Christmas. With severe learning differences I did not know what to expect, as I am not a great reader due to dyslexia. I read Matthew Kelly's book and right at that moment I knew that God had a plan for me. I've read every book since and I am able to understand the books.

I have taken all the things that are written and through my work in the church - I do a number of different things, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Religious Education Teacher, Confirmation Leader, member of the Collaborative Safety Team - I realized how these things I do through the books have really changed my life. I now have the courage and perseverance to keep going.

In my faith and in my life I try to show the best version of myself and have been told by others that they are able to see the change. Each day, as Matthew says, I spend time in silence and pray. I have developed a great love and connection with the Holy Spirit. When I go out on my run each morning, I really feel that I am with the Holy Spirit.

Growing up, I was always told I couldn't do things. I lost my Dad in 1981 and have been trying hard to overcome my learning differences. So now, through my Dad and signs of the Holy Spirit - who I see in doves that come out where I am, especially on my run each day - that my father and the Holy Spirit are with me.

With the support and coaching of our parish priests and staff teaching me about being a dynamic Catholic, along with the books, that I can live what is in the books and be the best version of myself. I have never been so happy in all my life. They showed me that my faith is strong and that I can share it. I use this strength to coach the kids I work with by telling them to put forth the best version of themselves. I see that the kids are now happier and working hard.

I will be doing the Best Lent Ever and my life and faith will still be getting stronger. I will watch the video each morning and then go out and run and reflect on it.

Once again, I want to especially thank Fr. Marc, Fr. Michael, and Scott Morin for teaching me and helping me to be a dynamic Catholic, along with Matthew Kelly, for changing my life.

BEST LENT EVER

BEST LENT EVER

As part of our Dynamic Parish Initiative, we invite everyone in our parish to participate in the Best Lent Ever program. By joining, you will receive a 3 minute video reflection each morning from Ash

Wednesday to Easter. The reflections feature Matthew Kelly and are based on the book we handed out at Christmas, Rediscover the Saints. As we often say, Lent shouldn't be focused simply on what we give up, but on who we become through the disciplines of prayer, fasting, and generosity. Let's all move toward becoming a-better-version-of-ourselves and discover together the amazing possibilities God has in store for each of us this Lent. It's simple to sign up at BestLentEver.com.

SIX TUESDAYS TILL THE TRIDUUM

To prepare ourselves for this most awesome and the penultimate celebration of our Liturgical life, you are invited to meet for the six Tuesdays of Lent, in St. Agnes Upper Church at 12:15 PM to 1:00 PM.

We will reflect with Fr. Marc, our Pastor, and Roger Mansen, the St. Agnes Music and Worship Director, upon the 7 Old Testament readings and pray with the psalms that accompany them. "The readings of the word of God is the fundamental element of the Easter Vigil." You can bring a "brown bag" lunch, if you'd like.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS AND PASTA SUPPER

Join us on Friday, March 20th following the Stations of the Cross for a dinner of pasta, salad, rolls, and dessert, along with a Gluten Free option of frittata in the ACHS Cafeteria. If your child(ren) is interested in reading or participating, please contact Maria DeLoughery (781-395-3021) or Mary Ellen Marino (781-729-4354).

2020 CATHOLIC APPEAL

Hello Fellow Parishioners,
Bob Tosi and I are the Appeal Coordinators for the Boston Catholic Appeal. Over the next few weeks, we as a parish will be participating in the Catholic Appeal. This week we ask that each family take home a pledge envelope. If you have already given or cannot give, please take one and indicate either of those choices on the envelope. Please take time and consider making a pledge that makes sense to you and your family. Please return the appeal envelope in the collection next weekend. It is important that all envelopes are returned even if you have already donated/pledged or are not giving because that is how the Archdiocese is going to calculate our participation in the appeal. Know that all information completed on the form is confidential and will not be shared with any organization outside the Archdiocese or the parish. Please make sure to write our PARISH NAME AND TOWN on the space indicated. This is crucial so that the correct parish is properly credited. Please tear off the pledge form and place it in the envelope and seal it. The envelopes will be collected during the collection on Saturday and Sunday.

Thank you for your time and for your contribution to the 2020 Catholic Appeal.

May God Bless you,
Robert Tosi and Christopher Sousa

BOSTON SOCK EXCHANGE

Boston Sock Exchange serves our homeless and needy brothers and sisters on Boston Common on the second Saturday of each month. We are in need of personal-sized bottles of water, juice or Gatorade for individual distribution. Please join us in the Parish Center next Friday, March 13th at 7:00 PM to prepare sandwiches and organize donations. We also need volunteers to help with distribution next Saturday, March 14th, at 11:00 AM on Boston Common. Please note that anyone under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult. ## BUILD A BED ON GOOD FRIDAY!

A good night's sleep has a major effect on a child's ability to come to school prepared to learn; falling behind due to a lack of sleep can have negative long term consequences on a student's education and future. A proven pathway out of homelessness is to ensure children of low-income families receive an education that will allow them to graduate from high school. To do this, we have to give these children the tools they need to succeed. One of these tools is a bed. The Massachusetts Coalition for the Homeless partners with public schools to assist students whose families are at risk of becoming homeless. In 2011, their advocates learned that many students in local public schools were not getting a good night's sleep because they did not have their own bed to sleep in at night. The Coalition took action and launched A Bed for Every Child.

REMEMBER THE POOR

Poverty for the Sake of the Gospel

In our reflections over poverty, it is now time to discuss positive material poverty. This poverty is not an injustice against which we all must work. Instead, it is the choice of those guided by the Holy Spirit.

In the Gospel of Mark (10:29-30), Jesus says, "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come." This 'giving up things for the sake of the gospel' is the poverty of the monks, nuns, brothers, sisters, friars and all those who have made a religious vow of poverty. These are the people who have committed their hearts to Christ and dedicated all their efforts for the good of the people of God. These are the people who founded and staffed many of our Catholic schools, hospitals, and institutions for years.

I believe, however, the best way to capture the essence of this poverty is to share a story from the lives of the followers of St. Francis. At the beginning of his Order, that is, in the early thirteenth century, St. Francis sent two of his earliest followers, Bernard and Giles on a pilgrimage to the great Spanish shrine of St. James in Compostela. Along the way, the two friars sought shelter for the night by knocking on the door of a house. The lady of the house, in her husband's absence was reluctant both to accept or reject the pilgrims. She, therefore, settled on allowing the friars to pass the frigid night on her front porch. Feeling compassion toward them, she did toss out to the wayfarers some blankets.

The next morning, the woman was eager to see if her guests had respected her property, but they had vanished. At that moment, the husband returned and was furious to learn that his wife had placed his home in such danger. With mixed emotions, the woman made her way to the local church. After the Mass, she was surprised to see the two friars devoutly praying. Just then, a great man of that town, who was accustomed to distribute daily alms to the poor, came upon the pilgrims. As the kind man offered his money to them, the friars refused saying, "You can keep your money to help others. For us, poverty is a joy, not a burden." The housewife could not contain her remorse. She apologized to the brothers for keeping them out in the cold and begged them to spend that night in her house. The rich man, however, had already prevailed over the travelers.

The privations of the poverty of religious life are a joy for these special souls. They share both the poverty and joy of Christ crucified and glorified.

YOUTH + YOUNG ADULTS

Scott Morin
Evangelist of Youth and Young Adults

FAITH IN AN ANXIOUS WORLD: INFORMATION FOR PARENTS

We don't need to look far to see that our teenagers are hurting. While today's parents, stepparents, and ministry leaders are more aware of teen anxiety, depression, and suicide, we often aren't sure how to respond. We need practical, accessible, and trusted resources that spark vital conversations with our teenagers.

That's why our youth ministry is beginning a new four-week series called Faith in an Anxious World. In the coming weeks, we want to propel your young person and other students toward a deeper understanding of Christ—one in which he becomes to them not simply a teacher and miracle worker, but a living, breathing example of the wholeness we can experience in our daily walk with God. Each week they'll talk about anxiety, delve into stories throughout the Bible where God enters into an anxious situation and uses it to nurture growth, and discover spiritual practices they can use to look to God as they navigate daily life. And each of our gatherings will prompt students to have meaningful conversations beyond their youth meeting times.

As we journey through this four-part series, your student will be encouraged to build themselves a "circle" of trusted adults they can call on when they need to talk about how they feel. Each week your student will receive a take-home sheet that recommends a conversation they can have with a trusted adult. This could be the same adult weekly, or, if your student is comfortable, they can grow a wider circle by connecting with a different trusted adult each time. The wider a student's circle, the more people they will have to turn to in a crisis.

To help you stay sharp as a parent, we are giving you additional tools to help you learn and grow all week long. Keep an eye out for...

- Regular communication from our youth ministry full of suggestions and tools to have life-giving conversations at home with your young person.
