THE COLLABORATIVE PASTORAL COUNCIL

DISCERNMENT PERIOD SEPTEMBER 5–19

The Collaborative is a large and multi-faceted community, and the Collaborative Pastoral Council (CPC) is our primary vehicle for “connecting the dots” of the many groups and ministries active in our faith family. The CPC is an essential advisor to the Pastor and works with the staff to guide the efforts and community life of the Collaborative. The CPC is not a legislative body.

The CPC is comprised of 12 (six from St. Camillus and six from St. Agnes) elected community members, the Parish Clergy, two staff members, and one youth member (a person from 14 to 19 years of age, and in High School). Youth may be nominated as well.

Nomination Process

Parishioners interested in serving in the Pastoral Council are to have their names put into nomination until Sept. 19. The week following the discernment period, those nominated will be contacted. The following Sunday, the members will be chosen by lot during a Mass at the corresponding parish, a commissioning prayer service will be held prior to the first meeting on October 3rd, 2021.

Responsibilities

The Council meets seven to ten times per year as a group to reflect on issues facing the community and to work with the clergy and staff to implement and evaluate the pastoral plan. The Council assists the Pastor and the Staff in long-term planning. The Council also liaises with the Parish Finance Councils as needed and runs the annual Pastoral Council election. Members sit on standing or ad hoc committees such as Prayer, Study, Evangelization, and Generosity.

Time Commitment and Term of Office

Council members will be elected to serve 2-year terms beginning in September 2021. Elections will be held for six seats (3 from each parish annually). Terms are renewable twice (no more than 4 years). The Pastor can appoint members ex officio as is required to best serve the community.

The time commitment is approximately 10 hours per month.

Qualifications

Any registered member of St. Camillus or St. Agnes Parishes may be nominated for consideration to be a member of the CPC. Those nominated should demonstrate the willingness to serve their fellow parishioner by furthering the mission of the Catholic Church. Some thoughts for consideration before nominating or accepting nomination:

- Are or have been involved in one or more of the CPC's ministries or groups
- Desire to contribute to the overall health of the CPARL Faith Family
- Enjoy looking at “the big picture”
- Desire to help people connect more deeply with each other and the Church
- Have a real heart for implementing the community's vision in the Pastoral Plan and helping the community determine “what comes next”

Please contact Fr. Marc (frmarc@cparl.org) or Scott Morin (smorin@cparl.org) to discuss or ask questions about serving on the Council.

Prayer For Collaborate Discernment During CPC Nomination Period

Lord, my God and my loving Father, you have made us to know you, to love you, to serve you, and thereby to find and to fulfill our deepest longings. We know that you are in all things and that every path can lead us to you.

But of them all, there is one especially by which you want us to come to you. Since we will do what you want of us, we pray you, send your Holy Spirit to us: into our minds, to show us what you want of us; into our hearts, to give us the determination to do it, and to do it with all our love, with all our mind, and with all of our strength right to the end. Reveal to our *community whom you wish to serve our Collaborative as members of the Pastoral Council. Jesus, I trust in you.

Amen*

MUSIC NOTES from Roger

This week's hymn selections are specifically chosen to accompany our worship in a week which brings to mind thoughts of memorialization and Patriotism. As we arrive at the 20th Anniversary of 9/11, we all have a story of how it has impacted our lives, whether it be directly through the loss of a loved one, the loss of someone connected to someone we know, or simply the fact that our country was attacked on our own shore for the first time in our lives. For those of us who lived through the Twin Towers attack, it has certainly changed our lives and the world in which we live. As I chose music for this specific weekend, I did not think about any of the politics that are associated with this terrible event, but attempted to simply look back to honor and memorialize all of the losses of that day, and those that have been lost in the subsequent twenty years. As a nation, we have certainly come to know loss and conflict. Thankfully, our Catholic faith provides us with comfort, including in the hymns we offer in worship.

The opening hymn, "For all the Saints," is well known to most of you. We always sing this hymn for All Saints Day as a memorial to those who have passed. While acknowledging the loss of loved ones, it also sings of the glory and promise of life beyond our worldly existence. I find great comfort in verse 4 as we sing, "there breaks a more glorious day."

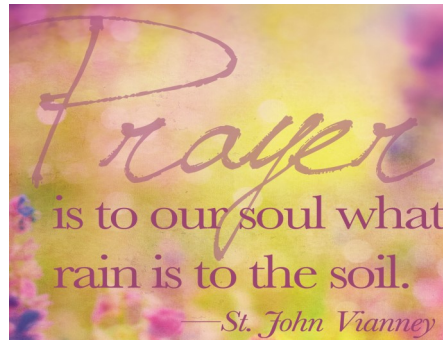

"Be still my soul" during the offertory is a simple yet deeply meaningful hymn. The text tells of God's abiding care and that He is in control. We must be patient as we wait on his guidance. The familiar music is taken from that beautiful larger work by Jean Sibelius, Finlandia.

Our closing hymn, "America the Beautiful," needs no introduction. In my experience, this hymn has always been sung with 'gusto' here in our church. I would like to call your attention, however, the second verse that we are singing this weekend: "O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife." I was not familiar with this verse but when I looked through the hymn, it jumped out to me as a perfect sentiment for our responders and protectors.

Those of you attending the 12 noon Mass at St Agnes will hear our quartet sing a beautiful piece by Felix Mendelssohn, "Grant Us Thy Peace." It is a paraphrase of the Latin hymn, Da pacem Domine, a hymn for peace from the 6th or 7th Century, based on biblical verse.

I hope that you will find comfort and meaning in these hymns as we remember a difficult time in our history. Let your voices be heard as we sing together as one worshipping body, one community praying for comfort and peace.

GENEROSITY

SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel Jesus says "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." The cross of Jesus and the crosses of his members can evangelize us: the sick, who bear illness with courage; the grieving, who hope against hope; the dying, who clearly trust in the resurrection; the suffering of our poor brothers and sisters who are hungry and homeless, but who still trust in God's love.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul...we want to help!

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul strives to make contact with needy individuals and families in Arlington to provide those in need with short term assistance and life improvement possibilities. Thanks to everyone who contributes to our mission to help our neighbors in need.

Donation slots are now available at St. Camillus Church to the left and right of the front side altars on the walls as well as in rear of St. Camillus near the center interior doors. Donation boxes continue to be available at St. Agnes near the doors of the church.

REMEMBER THE POOR: FRANCISCAN FRIARY, DAY 1

I continue now with my vocation story. By the way, the telling of this journey through a monthly column may lack the chronological consistency for which some attention spans long. Nonetheless, sharing this story during this month makes sense given my September 1st arrival in the friary.

This time of year is nostalgic, or mildly traumatic, for many people. Passing double-parked moving vans with parents and students scurrying up and down stairs like leaf-stripping ants, we can think back to college or young adult moving days. It also always rains on moving day, right? There are, however, some good memories. I recall making my mother giggle my freshman year. Before she left my room, I had her take a picture of me pretending to be on the phone. Back then before cell phone cameras and social media, silly pictures of such scenes seemed to mean more. In my future dorms, I decided to reproduce the photo over the next three years: same shirt, same shorts, same phone, same giggles. Four years after the original pose there were no giggles.

The month after college graduation, I chose to join the friars in New Bedford. I don't remember my mother being amused with me that moving day. On Labor Day, 2003, my grandparents met my mother and me for 9 am Mass. The parochial vicar, who was a helpful ear during my discernment, called me forward at the end of Mass for a special commissioning-blessing. Later at a breakfast diner, my grandparents pointed out the significance of the date. Over forty years to the day, they laid to rest their young son, Michael, after his fight with leukemia. Being his namesake and the beneficiary of his intercession, I saw this calendar alignment as Providential. But perhaps this news only comforted my grandmother and me.

There were four of us in the car for the drop-off in New Bedford. It felt like nana accompanied me and my sister was there to support my mother. My grandmother and mother walked me to the front door of the friary. The porter welcomed us into the foyer. I placed my stuffed backpack on the floor for our pleasant, yet brief, conversation. After the hugs and goodbyes, there was no phone and no picture.

I share my arrival in the friary to encourage each of us to pray for men and women who have recently taken the next step in their vocation. Prayers are also necessary for their family and friends. We need parish communities full of generous souls: some inching closer to their vocations, others providing prayer support, still others offering understanding ears or sound advice. I can tell you from experience that this process brings excitement, fear, and questions from all involved. I also know that my vocation is an answered prayer of people I have never met.

Is 50: 5-9a

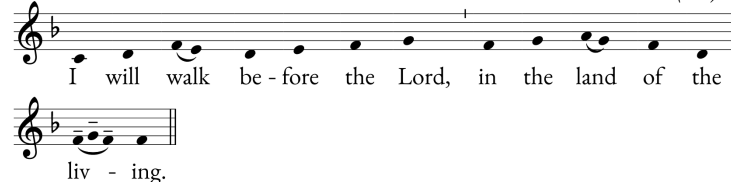

The Lord GOD opens my ear that I may hear; / and I have not rebelled, / have not turned back. / I gave my back to those who beat me, / my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; / my face I did not shield / from buffets and spitting.

The Lord GOD is my help, / therefore I am not disgraced; / I have set my face like flint, / knowing that I shall not be put to shame. / He is near who upholds my right; / if anyone wishes to oppose me, / let us appear together. / Who disputes my right? / Let that man confront me. / See, the Lord GOD is my help; / who will prove me wrong?

SECOND READING

Jas 2: 14-18

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well," but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

Indeed someone might say, "You have faith and I have works." Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.

ALLELUIA

Gal 6: 14

✠. May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord through which the world has been crucified to me and I to the world.

GOSPEL

Mk 8: 27-35

Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" They said in reply, "John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets." And he asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said to him in reply, "You are the Christ." Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him.

He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it."

CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

AGNUS DEI

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

COMMUNION CHANT

Mode 1

Cf. Ps 36 (35): 8 · RM

How pre - cious is your mer - cy, O God! The chil - dren of men seek shel - ter in the shad - ow of your wings.

Ps 36 (35): 6-13

∇. Your mercy, LORD, reaches to heaven,
your truth to the clouds.
Your uprightness is like the mountains of God;
like the great deep, your justice.
Both man and beast you save, O LORD.

D. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

America the Beautiful

O Beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

O Beautiful for heroes proved In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved, And mercy more than life!
America! America! May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness, And every gain divine.

O Beautiful for patriot dream That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.
